~ All Are Welcome ~

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd,
*his heart
was moved*
with pity for them,
for they were
like sheep without
a shepherd;
and he began
to teach them
many things.

From Fr. Dan, Administrator

Dear Friends,

The Festa was a great success. Thanks to all who made it happen.

Sacred Heart and Our Lady's – Two Parishes with hospitality: "People will forget what you said, forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel." We hope we make you feel at home. We are so glad you are here.

Pope Francis – looking on the positive side: "The saints do not waste energy complaining about the failings of others; they can hold their tongue before the faults of their brothers and sisters, and avoid the verbal violence that demeans and mistreats others. Saints hesitate to treat others harshly; they consider others better than themselves (cf. Phil 2:3). It is not good when we look down on others like heartless judges, lording it over them and always trying to teach them lessons. That is itself a subtle form of violence. Saint John of the Cross proposed a different path: "Always prefer to be taught by all, rather than to desire teaching even the least of all". And he added advice on how to keep the devil at bay: "Rejoice in the good of others as if it were your own, and desire that they be given precedence over you in all things; this you should do wholeheartedly. You will thereby overcome evil with good, banish the devil, and possess a happy heart. Try to practice this all the more with those who least attract you."

God, talking to one of his angels said: I just created a 24-hour period of alternating light and darkness on Earth." The angel replied, "What are you going to do now?" God said, "Call it a day."

Use Kind Words: "Words are the mind's food. As you speak, so others feel. Your words can inflict damage, or they can soothe and heal. Anger-laced words fill your cup of regret, while kind words are an oasis for others. Choose your words carefully." – Sood, Amit.

Sports: As I write this (July 15, 3pm) The Sox having been hitting grand slams with incredible regularity. They are the best team in Baseball and are on pace for a record 114 wins this season! France won the World Cup – the most watched sporting event in the world. Who is winning the British Open this Weekend? Pats open training camp this Thursday!

Love and God bless you!
Fr. Dan

July 22 ~ Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The disciples return to tell Jesus about the work he had sent them to do. Take a few moments today to look back over the past week to those times when you, like the disciples, did works of charity or mercy. Offer a prayer of gratitude to God for those times you spoke a healing word, or offered comfort to a person in their loss, or welcomed a newcomer to your parish. Ask for the grace to respond to the opportunities that will arise for you this week.

Marriage Banns

Care for Creation

Recently we have had a number of broiling hot days that generated "peak events": time periods when everyone is trying to get cool by using a lot of electricity at once. This causes a strain on the electric grid. To keep up with the demand, grid operators turn to more dirty fossil-fueled power plants. Here's what you can do now to help "Shave the Peak" and reduce the need for dirty generation. Efficiency actions you can take from 3:00-8:00pm on a very hot day:

1. Turn your A/C up a few degrees. Use fans to stay cool.
2. Delay washing or drying laundry until tomorrow or after 8pm.
3. Delay running the dishwasher.
4. Delay charging an electric car.
5. Turn off lights and appliances when not in use.
6. Switch off "energy vampires" (like entertainment and computer stations not in use)

You can sign up with Mass Energy Consumers Alliance to receive "Shave the Peak" text or email messages with reminders the day before a very hot day. (From the Boston Catholic Climate Movement)

Collaborative Picnic

Our Annual Sacred Heart and Our Lady's Collaborative Picnic this year will be Sunday, September 23, from 12:00pm to 3:00pm on the front lawn of Our Lady's Church. All are welcome!

If you attended last year and enjoyed the day, please spread the word about our picnic to your neighbors and friends. We will supply hamburgers, hot dogs & ice cream; you supply soft drinks and any other foods your family will enjoy. If you would like to share a finger food dessert or salad with other people, bring it along; we will have tables set up for your items.

Bring your blanket and chairs and enjoy an afternoon of fun; there will be games, races, pony rides and more. If you would like to make a monetary donation to help defray the expenses of the picnic, please make your check payable to "Our Lady's" with "picnic" written on the memo line. Donations can be dropped in the collection baskets or mailed to the parish office.

Note: Grill closes at 2:30pm.

Through Monday, September 3: Summer Daily Mass Schedule

We are now in our revised daily Mass schedule:

Monday, Wednesday, Friday at 7:00am at Our Lady's Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday at 9:00am at Sacred Heart in the lower church

The revised schedule will run through Monday, September 3 (Labor Day). Contact the parish offices with any questions.

There are flyers at the doors of the churches listing additional Mass times at other area parishes.

Monthly Mass for the Sick

The next Monthly Mass for the Sick, sponsored by the Mass for the Sick ministry of Sacred Heart and Our Lady Help of Christians Church, will be on Monday, July 23, at 6:30pm at Our Lady's Church. Fr. Adrian Milik, our Parochial Vicar, will celebrate the Mass and Anointing of the Sick. Following refreshments, Fr. Adrian will share his pictures and "Impressions of Japan". The evening is designed to bring joy, hope, and peace to those living with serious/chronic illness, and their caregivers, family, and friends. The Mass and program will both be held downstairs at Our Lady's Church. For questions or more information, please contact Pat Enright at 617-467-4482 or pmel130@aol.com, or Lorraine Higgins at higlor1@msn.com or 617-244-0267, or the parish offices. All are welcome!

Summer Prayer

Father, Creator of all, thank You for summer!

Thank you for the warmth of the sun
and the increased daylight.

Thank You for the beauty I see all around me
and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy Your creation.

Thank You for the increased time I have to be with my friends and family,
and for the more casual pace of the summer season.
Draw me closer to You this summer.

Teach me how I can pray
no matter where I am or what I am doing.
Warm my soul with the awareness of Your presence and light my path with Your Word and Counsel.

As I enjoy Your creation, create in me
a pure heart and a hunger and a thirst for You.

We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

The Mass for Millennials: “It Is Right and Just”

If you have ever learned a second language, you know that some concepts do not translate perfectly. I have always loved discovering those words and phrases in Spanish that more precisely convey meaning than their corresponding English. The feeling is akin to becoming privy to a small but special secret—only these are the secrets you want to share with others, hoping they provide a similar sense of excitement and insight.

For me, certain lines of the Mass said in Spanish prompt this discovery. I only started learning Spanish in high school, but it didn't take me long to fall in love with the language. Through various extended immersions, I have had my fair share of exposure to the Mass in Spanish. And while there was indeed a learning curve, I did eventually move from mumbling unintelligibly to confidently joining my voice with others in our response as a unified congregation.

In the very beginning of the Eucharistic Prayer, a dialogue occurs between the priest and the congregation. In English:

Priest: The Lord be with you.

People: And with your spirit.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them up to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right and just.

From here, there are several different versions of the prayer the priest may recite, the most common of which goes on to affirm, “It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation...to give you thanks.”

This exchange evokes a slightly different meaning in Spanish. The congregation proclaims the last line of this prayer as, “Es justo y necesario.” It is just and necessary. I remember how striking I found this wording the first time I truly understood it. In English, “right” and “just” can be used synonymously. Although the two words together bring out deeper meaning than either would alone, the Spanish translation leads me to deeper reflection. Not only is it right and just to give our praise and thanks to God; it is necessary. Not only is it something we should do, it is something we must do, as “our duty and our salvation.”

Understanding this declaration as a necessity changes how I view the Eucharistic Prayer as a whole. While we thank God for the many gifts in our lives in this introductory dialogue, we also realize it is necessary to thank him for the gift of our lives as they are redeemed in his son Jesus Christ. In a particular way during this exchange, we are called to thank God in advance for the great miracle about to occur in the Eucharistic sacrifice.

Even when attending Mass in English now, I recall how a posture of humility and thanksgiving is just and necessary to truly enter into the sacrament of the Eucharist. Since the Liturgy of the Eucharist is so central to the Mass, its words help me see why going to Mass is essential to our faith. Going to Mass and receiving the Eucharist is right and just and necessary to living our faith. We don't go simply because we should; rather, we must attend Mass each Sunday if we desire to bring about right relationship in this world and the next. We must approach the Eucharistic sacrifice with humility if we wish to bring that humility into our encounters. We must receive Christ's self-gift in the Eucharist to be self-giving love in the world. Our weekly celebration is more than a momentary celebration of God's goodness—it enlivens communities throughout the week and the year to be strong in faith and to live the good news, thankful for the sacrificial mystery in which we have taken part.

We give God thanks and praise before receiving the Eucharist because it is right and just, but also, as the Spanish translation reminds us, because it is necessary. This necessity is echoed in the relationship between attending Mass and living out our Catholic faith. We go to Mass because it's right. We go to Mass because it's just. But we also go because it is necessary to live a Christian life, giving praise and thanks to God.

-Laura Camarata

The above reflection first appeared online through the Center for Liturgy at the University of Notre Dame and can be read in its entirety at <http://churchlife.nd.edu/?s=the+mass+for+millennials&submit=Search>. While it was originally written for an audience of college and graduate students, the beauty of the Mass is something that we can all consider and savor. We hope that you enjoy these reflections, consider prayerfully how you are called to engage or reengage in the Mass, and share these words with your loved ones. Timothy P. Another Workcamp Thank You from Meadowbrook Healthcare Skilled Nursing & Rehab Facility

June 28, 2018

To Whom It May Concern:

This is the second year we have had volunteers from the Catholic Heart Workcamp at Meadowbrook Healthcare. The organization is wonderful and helps the community in so many ways!

The gratitude we (the team and patients here) have towards the wonderful group of kind-hearted, dignified and generous souls we had here is unmeasurable. The help we received from Veronica, Paul, John, Sidney, Sarah, and their fearless leader Rick was superb! This group came prepared, ready to jump in wherever they were needed, and did what needed to be done. They went to lunch late, called games for bingo, sorted, transported, prepared events, helped run events—and they did this all in just four days!

We were very lucky to meet such a nice group of young adults and we want to say thank you for your dedication to assisting us. We will miss you all! Feel free to keep in touch!!!!

Sincerely,

Kim P., Activity Director
and Staff and Residents at Meadowbrook
Plattsburgh, New York
