From Fr. Dan, Administrator

Dear Friends,

There was a wonderful Ice Cream Social last weekend after the 9AM Mass at Sacred Heart. The Collaborative Picnic will be at Our Lady's on Sunday, September 23. Folks from both parishes are always invited to all of these events. Do bring guests too. The more the merrier!

The Father Effect, by John Finch. A fascinating, important and very practical book that I loved reading (Fr. Dan). "The Father Effect is an extremely important book and offers hope to all who read, for healing, redirection, forgiveness, and the knowledge that they can be great parents." —Meg Meeker, MD, bestselling author of Strong Fathers, Strong Daughters.

Fr. Adrian has been promoted. I want to tell you that he is as kind behind the scenes as what we have all witnessed in public in the collaborative. St. Jude's in Waltham is blessed to be getting him as their spiritual leader. Boy will I, and all of us, miss him!

On Prayer: A modest success is better than a grand failure – says Matthew Kelley, and I agree. Find a time, and an amount of time that you can do regularly. Find a way of praying that works for you. You might want to google "Daily Mass Readings" and spend 5,10,15 minutes reflecting on them. Look especially for God's love for you.

Pope Francis officially condemns the death penalty: "Consequently, the Church teaches, in the light of the Gospel, that 'the death penalty is inadmissible because it is an attack on the inviolability and dignity of the person,' and she works with determination for its abolition worldwide."

Crucial Support to the mourning is what so many of you give. Not only from the official ministries but also family, friends, neighbors and more – you make a big difference! Your presence, compassion and faith shows that love is stronger than death, and that Jesus, resurrection ultimately conquers death.

Sports: As I write this (August 5), the Sox have taken the first three of the four game series with the Yankees, nearly assuring we will win our division. Newly acquired Nathan Eovaldi has been awesome (15 shut out innings) and Mookie Betts is vying with Mike Trout for best player in MLB. The Pats are a week into camp, and so far so good. Monster size left tackle Trent Brown seems like a great pick-up. How about a Superbowl and World Series victory all in one year! Why not?

Love and God bless you! ~ Fr. Dan

Refugee Ministry Update

Please join the Justice and Peace Committee and its Refugee Ministry in praying for the Komi Family as they begin their faith journey in preparation for the Christening of Ann, Nofak, and Mansy. At this time, the Baptism date is cancelled and a new date will be forthcoming once the preparation is complete.

We are very excited to welcome the Komi Family into the Sacred Heart & Our Lady's Collaborative Community, and we thank you all for your continued prayers and support during this period.

New & Ongoing in Our Community

From Father Adrian

As we announced at last Sunday's Mass, I have been asked by Cardinal Sean to begin a new assignment on September 1 at St. Jude Parish in Waltham, where I will replace the pastor who recently retired. This means that, unfortunately, I will have to end my time in Newton earlier than I had expected. I would like to thank all of you for all of your prayers and support, as well as your example, over the last two years and several months. I have greatly enjoyed my time in Newton, and have learned a lot from all the priests, staff, volunteers, and parishioners who make Our Lady and Sacred Heart Parishes such a grace-filled place. I ask your prayers as I prepare for my new assignment over the next few weeks and take on the challenge of being the administrator of a parish for the first time in September. I know that my time here has helped me prepare for this next chapter in my journey with God, and

I am so grateful to the Cardinal for giving me my time in Newton and for having confidence in me to take on a parish by myself. I am filled with many emotions right now as I am sad to be leaving but excited by what God has in store for me, but most of all I am filled with gratitude towards all of you and towards Christ, whose love has brought us all together.

For those who can attend, there will be a farewell reception at Our Lady Parish after the 6pm Mass on Sunday, September 9. I am hoping to have an opportunity to express my gratitude to many of you there.

In Christ,
Fr. Adrian

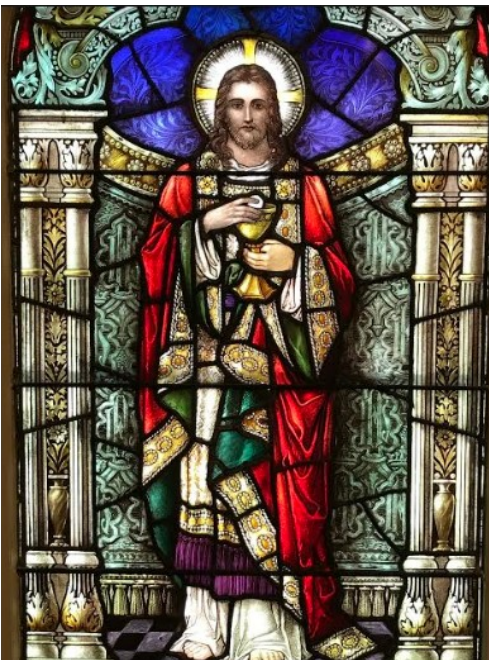

Next Justice and Peace Committee Meeting

The next meeting will be held on Sunday, August 12th, at 11:30am in the lower church conference room at Sacred Heart. Please join the Committee as we discuss the latest legislation for climate change and the summer activities being pursued by the Komi family as they experience their first summer in Massachusetts! Also please feel free to bring whatever additional peace and social justice issues you would like the Committee to discuss. We hope to see you on the 12th.

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Wednesday, August 15th is the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary and is a Holy Day of Obligation. Masses for the Holy Day are as follows:

7:00am - Our Lady's
9:00am - Sacred Heart
12Noon - Our Lady's
7:30pm - Sacred Heart

A Summer Gift for You—Part 3

We are in the midst of the Bread of Life Gospel passages for five weeks this summer, and this weekend is the third installment. Jesus offers us a path leading closer to himself and to God through the Eucharist. First, we are drawn in by God. Then we listen to God, and we learn from God. Finally, we eat the living bread of Jesus and believe.

—How does God draw you in? And how might you open yourself even more to God's call?

—In all of these Gospel readings Jesus asks us to believe – to have faith – that he is the living bread. Living in communion with Jesus, the Bread of Life, is an amazing and joyful tenet of our Catholic faith. How might you create a space each day in your busy schedule to celebrate and embrace the living presence of Jesus within you?

The Mass for Millennials: The Eucharistic Prayer

While serving a weekday Mass recently, the only way to remain focused while holding the Roman Missal (a large book that necessitates a strange twisting of myself to hold it upright) was to follow along on the page as the priest read the Eucharistic Prayer. This proved beneficial since I was struck anew by a phrase I have heard virtually every week since birth (although in a new translation since 2011).

“Therefore, as we celebrate the memorial of his Death and Resurrection, we offer you, Lord, the Bread of Life and the Chalice of salvation, giving thanks that you have held us worthy to be in your presence and minister to you.”

The first ninety percent of this phrase had little new consequence for me. Three words, however, caught my attention and remained in my thoughts: “minister to you.”

Being a campus minister, I was thrown off by seeing part of my job title appear in the Roman Missal. I like to think that any Catholic in my position would react similarly—imagine coming upon the word “accountant” in the middle of Mass.

The phraseology of this sentence struck me as odd and, at first, backwards. Minister to you? Generally when I think of my job description, it includes nothing about ministering to—taking care of, attending to—Christ. Sure, I believe I’m furthering his will when I care for and console students—and yes, I know that God is in each of them, but am I really ministering to Christ? He doesn’t need my ministry; surely it is I who need his.

But that is precisely what I do in my job and what we do in Mass. When we celebrate the Eucharist, we carefully serve Christ’s broken Body. We cradle him in our hands, receive him with heartfelt reverence and gratitude. We carry and care for our risen Christ in a very intimate and direct way.

Ministering to Christ, though, continues long after the tabernacle is closed. In my particular case, I am called to take care of his people as a minister. And in doing so, I am asked to care for him. I am called to serve the mystical Body of Christ in every conversation with a student, in every encounter on campus. Each time I listen to a student’s dilemma and offer compassion, I am tending to Christ’s wounds. Radical though it may sound, I am a campus minister not only to my students, but to Christ as well.

We all encounter these situations in which we care for Christ in this way. If we truly believe that we form the mystical Body of Christ along with our brothers and sisters, every encounter with another is an encounter with Christ.

This simple fact is, in reality, mind-blowingly complex. How is it that we, God’s creation, are responsible for taking care of Christ? What kind of backwards logic is this? God’s choice to include us in his plan of salvation does not tell us so much about our own abilities but his generosity and mercy. This concept is an indication of the outpouring of love with which God created us, giving us purpose and freedom and allowing us the dignity to take part in his work—to minister to him.

If, then, we are found worthy to minister to Christ, what does that do to our vocation? In my case, I am called to find Christ in every student, young adult, or parent I meet with. I am to encounter them as they are and minister to Christ in them. I am to take care of them as I would God himself—and that should radically change the way I see my students. If my vocation—first practiced in the Mass, then carried with me to every person I encounter—is to take care of Christ, every decision and every moment of my day is filled with the wonder of meeting, speaking with, and walking with him.

We have been given an awesome responsibility—one which should color everything we do. We are called to do the unthinkable—to live in his presence and minister to Christ.

Beyond Our Walls

Care for Creation: Choosing Renewable Energy

Pope Francis, in his encyclical Laudato Si, said in 2015, "There is an urgent need to develop policies so that, in the next few years, the emission of carbon dioxide and other highly polluting gases can be drastically reduced, for example, substituting for fossil fuels and developing sources of renewable energy."

In Newton today we have a significant chance to choose renewable energy. The City is beginning a new program called Newton Power Choice. It will allow the City to negotiate with suppliers of electricity directly, continuing to use Eversource for the delivery of our electric power. How much of that electricity will be from renewable sources, e.g., solar and wind? Mayor Ruthanne Fuller will decide what percentage will be renewable in September. The Newton Coalition for Climate Action is promoting 40% renewable, beyond the 13% required by state law.

You can advocate for renewable energy today. Call the Mayor at 617-796-1000, and tell her that you favor 40% renewable for Newton Power Choice. This action is now the most significant way that people in Newton can have an impact on global warming, eliminating carbon emissions equal to 10,000 cars in our city.

For more information, come to a house gathering on Wednesday, August 22, at 7pm. A member of the Newton Coalition for Climate Action will be there to inform us about Newton Power Choice. Contact Barbara Allaire at barbara.allaire@gmail.com or 617-244-2143 to RSVP and get the house address in Newtonville.

Ministry Fair—Save the Date

Interested in getting more involved in the parish, but not sure where to start? On Sunday, September 9th, Sacred Heart will host a ministry fair to showcase the various organizations, groups, and ministries that serve the collaborative. The fair will be held during Coffee Hour after the 9am Mass in the MacKenzie Parish Center. All are welcome!

Construction at Sacred Heart

You may have noticed a number of construction projects on the Sacred Heart Campus this summer. Here are a few highlights:

- The Montessori School is investing resources into the school building to help realize more teaching space for their growing needs. We are doing our part as good landlords to make sure the building is up to code and safe for all those who use the facility. This summer that means a sprinkler system for fire safety.
- The windows of the church are getting exterior covers. This will protect them from damage, and keep the church warmer in the winter and cooler in the summer. You will also be seeing some new signage around the church in the next month or two as we continue our efforts to make Sacred Heart an accessible and welcoming community.

There will be a longer update on space and projects as we head into the fall. Until then, if you have any questions, please contact Brian Romer Niemiec at bniemiec@sholnewton.org, 617-969-2248, ext. 111.

Fruit Juice Needed!

In August, we are collecting fruit juice. Donations can be dropped off during the week in the lower elevator lobby OR at weekend Masses in either the elevator lobby or the upper church foyer at Sacred Heart Church.

Guild of Saint Francis News

Save the Date: Sunday, September 16th—for our annual Tea Party at the Rectory. Ladies of all ages are invited! More information to come later this month.

Upcoming Events Reminders

Religious Education Registration: August 15 Deadline Approaching!

Registration for the 2018-2019 Religious Education Programs is ongoing. Registration forms were mailed home to all returning students. New students should download a blank registration form from our website www.sholnewton.org. Please note: our first deadline of August 15 is approaching. This is the deadline for friend requests AND for session requests for Grades K-5. Don't delay!

Please note for First Penance and First Holy Communion: Preparation for these Sacraments is a two-year program. Although Religious Education begins in Kindergarten, Grades 1 and 2 are required before First Communion.

Please note for Confirmation: Preparation is a two-year program! High school students who wish to celebrate Confirmation must enroll in the preparation program for two consecutive years, typically - but not always - Grades 9 and 10. In addition, all rising 9th graders and any new 10th graders (typically Catholic school students) must contact Kristina over the summer to schedule a one-on-one introductory meeting that includes at least one parent.

Please spread the word about our programs to family, friends, and neighbors. Thank you!

Religious Education Catechists Needed!

Every Christian shares the responsibility of sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ with others. In Luke's Gospel, chapter 12, Jesus tells us, "Much will be required of the person entrusted with much." Is this one way you can give back to the Lord?

Here at Our Lady's, we need approximately 100 catechists (teachers) and assistant catechists for 21-23 classes a year (9 classes for Confirmation). We especially ask adults whose children are grown to consider this ministry, since many of our parents have younger children at home or work on the weekends and are unable to teach.

Talking about possibilities in the summer allows you ample time to plan before we begin on September 23. Perhaps you have a friend who would share the teaching with you or serve as your assistant.

Please contact Rosemary (ext. 213) or Kristina (ext. 216) if you would like to talk about volunteer possibilities. Thank you!

An Open Invitation!

Did you know that Our Lady's has a Welcoming Ministry? We do! Our mission in part is to reach out to new parishioners with a phone call, an email or in person at our welcome table after Mass. We enjoy fielding questions, lending an ear to concerns and directing people to appropriate contacts within our parish. Are you already a parishioner enthusiastic about our parish, or perhaps you are new to Our Lady's and interested in meeting other members? Why not join our Ministry? It is easy and happy work with training provided and a minimal time commitment. Please contact us at allarewelcome@sholnewton.org or call Paula at 617-694-1973.

Offertory Collection Update...
