From Fr. Dan, Administrator

Dear Friends,

The Christmas Season ends today with the Baptism of the Lord. Hope it was a joyful and renewing season for you and your loved ones. Thanks to all!

Has the government's partial shutdown ended? May God's wisdom guide our government leaders to a resolution!

Peaceful warmth! It is great to look out from the altar and see folks warmly exchanging the sign of peace. The smiles are full of kindness.

Pope Francis: "Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy." Mercy has two aspects. It involves giving, helping and serving others, but it also includes forgiveness and understanding. Matthew sums it up in one golden rule: "In everything, do to others as you would have them do to you."

Patience: "Jesus, meek and humble of heart, clothe us with compassion, kindness and humility, – make us want to be patient with everyone."

Is This All There Is? On Resurrection and Eternal Life by Gerhard Lohfink. Fr. Dennis has recommended it to me and I am loving it! From the blurb: "Is the Christian hope for resurrection still alive or has it become tired? How can we talk about the Resurrection today? Gerhard Lohfink takes up the question of death and resurrection in this new book. He argues against the dazzling array of today's ideas and expectations and seeks his answers in Scripture, the Christian tradition, and human reason. With his characteristically gentle but clear language, he reveals the power of Christian resurrection, showing it is not about events that lie in the distant future but rather occurrences incomprehensively close to us. They were long since begun and they will embrace us fully in our own death. If you are planning to read this book, prepare for an exhilarating and surprising ride. Lohfink leads us through all the imaginable possibilities of what happens to us when we die and then moves to a most profound description of what our faith teaches us. This is a book that must be read at least twice."

Sports: I predict Pats 24–Chargers 21 with the winning touchdown being Brady to Gronk! Did 'Bama beat Clemson in the College Super Bowl? The Celts are showing signs of catching fire. Who would have thought Marcus Morris would be this good or that Marcus Smart could hit a 3-point shot? The Bruins are playing some gutsy hockey.

Love & God Bless You,
Fr. Dan

Have You Lost Someone You Love? Drop-In Grief Support Group

The death of a loved one is unlike any other loss. Whether the death was sudden or one with preparation, the reality of death leaves most of us shocked, confused, and sad. These feelings may last for years. Grieving people need time and space to honor their grief. Your loss may be recent, or it may be years ago.

Our Collaborative has developed a program to help you start the healing process. We offer two 6-week workshops each year with a monthly drop-in group in between sessions. The next 6-week session will begin after Easter. Until then, you are invited to drop in on the first Sunday of the month; no registration is required, and the group is open to all.

Monthly sessions will meet at Our Lady's in the McPherson Room (Lower Level of Church just off the parking lot entrance) Sundays 11:15am-12:15pm, on February 3, March 3, & April 7.

For more information, contact Kate Neal at 617-527-7560 x219 or kneal@sholnewton.org.

Upcoming Pastoral Council Meeting

The Collaborative Pastoral Council will be meeting on Thursday, January 17, at 7:00pm in the Our Lady's Parish Office. The majority of the meeting will continue the year-

Enhancing the Pastoral Use of Sacred Heart Rectory

Back in December 2017, Fr. Dan asked Andy Majewski, Chair of Our Lady's Finance Council, and me, Tom Morrison, Chair of Sacred Heart's Finance Council, to work with him to put together a Collaborative Space Utilization Committee ("Space Committee") to deal with the short- and long-term needs within the collaborative regarding the use of the facilities. The goal is to effectively support the pastoral/spiritual mission of our two parishes while being good stewards of both sets of properties. We added to the committee, from Our Lady's: Cathy Belli Duffy and Joanne Madden, and from Sacred Heart: Chris Golden and Paul Schreier.

An immediate opportunity now centers on the Sacred Heart Rectory. Currently, Fr. Michael is the only priest in residence there, and he will be leaving in July 2019. One need that has been identified is to increase pastoral presence and to better support pastoral activities and parish functions at Sacred Heart. The Space Committee views the rectory as a great place to address this need and to enhance the use of the building. Representatives from the Pastoral Council, the Finance Committees of both parishes, and the Space Committee collectively are excited about the possibilities of better utilizing the building to support the community and make it more accessible and welcoming. This historic, beautiful building hasn't been substantially improved since it was built in the early 1900s! The project is in very early phases right now so no specific plans are in place, but further information will be forthcoming in the spring of 2019, at which time we will be welcoming your input.

Msgr. Dennis Sheehan
Homily from January 12, 1997 - The Baptism of the Lord

Preachers on this Feast of the Lord's Baptism are inevitably and correctly drawn to the mystery of sacramental baptism. The mystery of Christ's baptism sheds a great deal of light on the mystery of Christian baptism in the name of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Today's Gospel pictures Christ baptized in the waters of the Jordan. Christians too are washed in water at the font or, better still from a liturgist's view, plunged into a pool. After Jesus' baptism, he sees the Holy Spirit descend on him in visible form. Likewise, the baptized Christian emerges from the waters confident in faith that he or she is filled in a new and wondrous way by the power of Christ's own Holy Spirit. In prayer at the river Jordan, Christ hears God's very voice declaring him the beloved and favored child. Each baptized Christian enters the waters of sacramental baptism precisely to emerge graced and favored by a new and eternal relationship to God which will last beyond the gates of death itself into eternal life.

With all this emphasis on the grace and power of Christ's baptism and ours, I choose today to lift up an aspect of baptism very easily and often overlooked. For Christ at the Jordan, baptism was both the declaration of and acceptance of his mission in this world. Emerging from the Jordan's waters, Jesus begins the journey of preaching, healing, forming disciples, and proclaiming God's will that will lead him to death on the Cross. In the mystery of his baptism, Jesus accepts in a unique and public way his mission on the world's behalf so poetically described by Isaiah four hundred years earlier:

*Here is my servant whom I uphold, my chosen one in whom I am pleased.
Upon whom I have put my Spirit. He shall bring forth justice to the nations.*

Jesus, at his baptism is called, in Isaiah's words, "for the victory of justice" to bring light into darkness, freedom and power into a world in the captivity of greed, oppression, and injustice.

Will I now draw a comparison between Christ's mission and ours? To a certain extent there are similarities. Baptism for us immerses us in the mystery of Christ's saving love and gives us a share in Christ's mission. The Catholic tradition, however, adds a particular nuance at this point. For it is not an individual baptized in Christ to whom Christ's ongoing mission is entrusted. Our Catholic tradition proclaims that each of us at baptism becomes a member of the Body of Christ, the Church. And it is to this community of disciples, this Body of believers that the singular mission of continuing Christ's presence in the world is confided.

Here the Catholic tradition parts company with the majority of evangelists and preachers heard regularly on radios and television. For us, it is not sufficient to "accept Jesus as my personal Savior" and be baptized. For Catholics, unlike many of our Christian brothers and sisters, faith, decision for Christ, and baptism bring us to the doors of the Church and lead us into the gathering of Christ's disciples. From here – together in Christ's unity, the company of disciples sets out together to proclaim, to celebrate, and to witness together the saving power of God in Jesus. We are unabashedly, unashamedly, a community of faith.

Why is this a particularly urgent point of our tradition to recall on the Lord's Baptism in 1997? Because there is, both in the religious and in civil society, a turn to the individual, the private, the personal, which, if uncorrected, could undermine our identity as the baptized community, the Body of Christ. Much social pressure today seeks to drive the church back into the sacristy. Religious voices in America are ignored or silenced in the name of privacy, personal choice, or individual rights.

Apart from the tendency to make religious faith an entirely private individual affair, an equally perilous trend is afoot in American civil society. There is evidence that the spirit of collaboration, of association, of joining for mutual support is fading in American society. Our people, it seems, are losing a sense of mutual responsibility and common enterprise. Symptomatic of this is the slow demise of the formerly huge numbers of fraternal associations, leagues, and charitable societies that flowered in past generations. We are retreating, it would seem, into a perilously individual and unconnected world. With this comes almost inevitably a loss of the need for association in faith, for membership and life together in the Church.

What need we recall on this feast of Christ's baptism and ours?

First, baptism is for both salvation and mission. Baptism calls us to a share in Christ's work of bringing justice, light, and healing.

Secondly, we are baptized into Christ's mission by membership in the Church. In particular, our Catholic tradition calls us to a new awareness of each other. We are not called to be Christians alone but in the body of Christ.

Finally, this is where our Sunday Eucharist makes such sense and meaning in our faith. Here we assemble as Christ's Body. Here we see one another not as anonymous passers-by but brothers and sisters in the Lord. Here together we call down Christ's Spirit to make us what baptism destines us to be: "one Body, one Spirit in Christ". From this table and this gathering, we are sent forth in peace to work for the victory of justice, to be light and power for the world which waits for Christ.

Beyond Our Walls

The Church's Best-Kept Secret: Catholic Social Ministry Gathering

Saturday, February 2-Tuesday, February 5
Omni Shoreham Hotel, Washington, DC

What is it? The Catholic Social Ministry Gathering (CSMG) is an opportunity to Connect, Learn, Pray, and Advocate with other Catholics from around the country who want to put into action the social justice teachings of the Catholic Church.

As we connect with others from Massachusetts and elsewhere, we learn about current social justice issues from excellent speakers, panelists, and video presentations. In 2018, topics included immigration, the environment, aid to people in need both at home and abroad.

After learning about current needs and issues, experts brief the gathering on the federal budget that Congress will soon be enacting. Particular attention is given to key line items that the Church believes should be funded in order to relieve the suffering of the poor.

After this briefing, members of the gathering go to Capitol Hill to meet with their Representatives and Senators, or their aides, to share information about the Church's position on specific budget proposals that help the poor and impact the environment.

You can find out much more about CSMG by going to the Catholic Bishops' website. Just Google "Catholic Social Ministry Gathering 2019" to find it. You can also call Deacon Bill Koffel at 508-561-6400 or Peter Metz at 339-777-5144.

Deacon Bill, who has attended the gatherings for the past two years with his wife, Dorothy, together with others friends from Massachusetts and from Our Lady's Parish in Newton, is going again in 2019.

Why: "I [Deacon Bill] have been deeply moved and heartened to be in the presence of so many other people who are motivated by the desire to put the teachings of Jesus and the Church into action. At a time when so much seems to be going wrong in our world, this was an opportunity to do something positive."

Care for Creation: Tune Up Your Water Heater

There are two ways you can make your water heater more efficient. One, wrap it in an insulating blanket. It costs only about $25 at your local home center, and it will cut your carbon emissions by up to 1,000 pounds annually. Two, turn down the thermostat from 140° (the standard factory setting) to 120°. Each 10°-reduction reduces your carbon emissions by 600 pounds (electric) or 440 pounds (gas) each year. Learn at Mass

Today we remember Jesus' baptism. Ask your family to tell you about the day of your baptism!

Gospel: Peter met Jesus because of John the Baptist. John the Baptist told Peter's brother Andrew that Jesus was the Lamb of God. Andrew went to Peter and told him that he had found the Messiah! Peter followed Jesus and eventually became our first Pope. Wow!

What's New at the 12:00pm Mass

If you have worshipped at the 12:00pm Mass in the last several months, you may have noticed that the community is growing both in size and in diversity. It is our hope that the liturgy (Mass) reflects the community gathered every Sunday. In response, we will be introducing a new chapter of the 12:00pm Mass in the months of January and February. We hope the experience will energize and better reflect the community present and help new parishioners use their gifts. In particular, you will notice new instruments and musicians, new and more contemporary music, and new lectors and Ministers of Communion. If you have any questions or would like to get more involved, please contact Erica Johnson at ejohnson@sholnewton.org or Brian Romer Niemiec at bniemiec@sholnewton.org.

Religious Education News

Religious Ed classes will resume this Tuesday, January 15.

In Gratitude for Your Generosity and Compassion

As we celebrate Christmas, we must thank all those who have graciously donated toys, clothing, gift cards, money, and groceries for meals to children, elders, and families in need. Through your generosity, you have truly acted as the hands, feet, and heart of Christ and made Christmas a little brighter for those in need. Thank you!

A huge thank you is also due to our Christian Service Committee, who organize The Giving Tree each year, and to St. Vincent de Paul, who helped in a big way at the meal distribution for needy families.

We are so grateful to and for all of you!

Be A Part Of Something Special

Have you been missing coffee hour after 10:00am Mass? Then we need you! A team is working to bring back Coffee Hour at Our Lady's, but part of the reason we had to take a break this fall was lack of volunteers. Can you get to Mass half an hour early to set up? Are you willing to come downstairs after Communion and help serve for an hour? Do you like to chat and want to stay and help clean up? WE NEED YOU. If you would be willing to help out at one coffee hour a month from now until May, please contact Kate Neal at kneal@sholnewton.org or x219. SAVE THE DATE for a first Coffee of the New Year on Sunday, January 20, after 10:00am Mass!

Bristol Lodge Food Request

We are in need of jarred tomato sauce and 12-packs of soda for our Confirmation Program, which prepares and serves dinner at Bristol Lodge Soup Kitchen in Waltham once a month as part of their service formation. If you can help us feed 50-70 people each month, please drop items off in the lift-top bins under the stairs on either side of the church. Thanks to your generosity, we do not need any elbow pasta for the time being. Thank you!

Invitation to Serve

Would you like to become more involved in the Our Lady's community? Consider serving as a Eucharistic Minister, Lector, or Greeter at Mass. We are in need of volunteers at all Masses. We are happy to have you serve according to your availability, whether that is every week or once a month. For more information, please contact Maribeth Scott at 617-469-8110 or mbskis@yahoo.com.

Grand Annual Collection

The Grand Annual Collection supplements our weekly offertory and lease revenue and is crucial to help us meet our financial obligations.

As of January 4, we have raised $164,577 from 357 parishioners. Thank you! Our goal is $200,000, and we need everyone to take part in order to attain that goal. Whether you give $100 or $300; $1,000 or $5,000, your gift will be appreciated as it promotes the wellbeing of Our Lady's.

Blue donation envelopes are available at the doors of the church. Thank you for your generous support!
