From Fr. Dan, Administrator

Dear Friends,

Fr. John's vision: Among other things, our pastor Fr. John wants us to be Christ-Centered, especially imitating Christ in "Generosity of Spirit," and he invites us to develop our personal relationship with Christ. In everyday life, this simple thing impresses me – John is always the first to ask: "Dan, how was your day?" Like Christ, he puts others before himself.

Welcome to Sacred Heart and Our Lady's. We're honored to have you with us. We hope that Jesus touches your life and that you leave this place today with the peace of Jesus inside.

How to reduce worries. We all worry about an uncertain future. To alleviate some of this worry, try a "responsibility transfer." You may want to do this with closed eyes. Consider that God is all powerful and benevolent. Now imagine lifting the weight of everything you're worrying about off your shoulders, and placing it on the shoulders of God. God is in charge now. Imagine lifting everything off your shoulders and onto God's. Feel the difference, as you are now no longer responsible for the outcome of any of these things. God is taking care of them. You can sit back and relax. Feel the worries go away.

We are going to miss Brian! Brian has done truly excellent ministry in the collaborative and especially at Sacred Heart. He has made a big difference for the better! The search committee is at work to find someone to follow Brian. I am glad we have Brian through Easter.

Let's all do something wonderful for Lent! Jesus recommends: (1) fasting, (2) prayer and (3) almsgiving (helping the poor and vulnerable). Jesus gives the highest priority to almsgiving.

"Kudos to WNBA star Maya Moore, who decided to skip the upcoming season to focus on a higher calling. Moore will focus on "some ministry dreams that have been stirring in my heart for many years. I measure success by asking, 'Am I living out my purpose?' I learned a long time ago that my purpose is to know Jesus and to make Him known.'" -Tara Sullivan, sportswriter

Sports: The Bruins shine. The Celts are scuffling. The Pats are about to enter free agency signing time. The Sox look good in spring training and could repeat! Will Duke win the Men's NCAA basketball title? How are our local high school teams doing?

Love & God bless you,
Fr. Dan

March 10 ~ First Sunday of Lent

Lent is a good time to reorder our lives and to focus our attention on the essentials of our faith. In the second reading today, St. Paul challenges us to make these words come alive: "if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved." Does your way of life profess that Jesus is Lord? Do you believe in the Resurrection? This Lent, take some time in prayer asking that your faith be strengthened.

Have You Lost Someone You Love? Grief Support Group

The death of a loved one is unlike any other. Whether the death was sudden and tragic, or one with warning and preparation, the reality of death leaves most of us shocked, confused, and sad. These feelings may last for years. Grieving people need time and space to honor their grief. Your loss may be recent, or it may have been years ago. Our Lady's and Sacred Heart has developed a program to help you and yours start the healing process. We offer two 6-week workshops each year with a monthly drop-in group in between sessions. The next 6-week session will begin after Easter. Until then you are invited to drop-in on the first Sunday of the month, no registration is required and the group is open to all. Monthly sessions will meet at Our Lady's in the McPherson Room (lower level of main church building, by the stairs at the parking lot entrance)

Sunday, April 7, 11:15am-12:15pm

Msgr. Dennis Sheehan: Homily Given February 14, 2010 1st Sunday of Lent—Liturgical Year C

The chaplain at an Ivy League college was hosting a student discussion group. The topic of the day was "Who was Jesus?" The first student question to the chaplain: "Do you think Jesus was married?" "No," responded the chaplain, "I don't think Jesus was married. There's no mention of it in the Gospel". The student persisted, "Then do you think he'd like to have been married?" "Why do you ask that that?" the chaplain inquired. The student's answer is worth pondering. The student said, "Because if I knew Jesus was married, it might make Jesus easier to relate to".

You can understand that student. He wanted Jesus to be like him, to be interested in his interests. It's the constant temptation I have as a preacher. Am I "making Jesus easier to relate to"? If so, I'm in real danger of cutting Jesus down to my limits, my values, my vision. But – and today's Lenten Gospel makes this clear – Jesus doesn't want to be remade to suit the hearer. Jesus is fine with being odd. Jesus is fine with being tough.

Those three tests, or temptations, are all about remaking Jesus. Remake him as a stop in the food chain. Remake him as a political powerhouse. Remake him as a circus performer.

Jesus just says no. He won't do a makeover by Satan. He'll share the world's hungers, not feed his face. He'll be among the poor, the humble, the losers – not the movers and shakers of his day or ours. He'll bring God's kingdom by death on a cross, not by fireworks and pyrotechnics.

At bottom, Jesus says that God his Father has different ideas. One often hears it said among well-meaning people: "We all serve the same God, don't we?" Jesus says, "No, we don't." He refuses the easy God, the compromising God. He wants us to do the same.

This is really good news at the beginning of Lent. Jesus refuses fame, prosperity, power – all the things Americans hold dear. He will be about saving, rescuing. He will not always be the Jesus we want. But he will always be the Jesus we need. He will knock down the cheap ideas of God and salvation and put his truth in their place. He leaves us today with a question to ponder. We say: "Doesn't it all boil down to serving the same God?" Jesus seems to say no – God is God and will not be remade in Satan's image – or ours.

Blessed Lent to all.

Live Lent: Join a Small Faith Sharing Group!

Small faith-sharing groups have proven to be one of the most effective ways to form community where members can bring faith to life. With small groups, members can grow deeper in their relationship with Christ by breaking open the Word of God, engaging in meaningful conversation, and committing to care for one another.

It is not too late to join a group this Lent! There are several different day and time options at both parishes. Contact Kate Neal at kneal@sholnewton.org or 617-527-7560 x219 if you would like to join a group.

Lenten Fasting

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence. For members of our Roman Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of our Roman Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.

But Why Are We Called to Fast and Abstain? Christian tradition can name at least seven reasons for fasting:

1. From the beginning, God commanded some fasting, and sin entered into the world because Adam and Eve broke this fast.
2. For the Christian, fasting is ultimately about fasting from sin.
3. Fasting reveals our dependence on God and not the resources of this world.
4. Fasting is an ancient way of preparing for the Eucharist—the truest of foods.
5. Fasting is preparation for baptism (and all the sacraments)—for the reception of grace.
6. Fasting is a means of saving resources to give to the poor.
7. Fasting is a means of self-discipline, chastity, and the restraining of the appetites.

Beyond Our Walls

Care for Creation: Eating Simply

Fasting from meat on Fridays is part of our Catholic tradition. It's a way to live in the simplicity and humility that Jesus models for us. Growing in simplicity for Lent is a gift of the spirit. We now know that it's also a way to sustainably inhabit our place in God's creation. Many of us enjoy meat, and we're grateful for the farming families who make our meals possible. Focusing our diets on plant-based meals and enjoying meat as an occasional treat is a sustainable way of living in our common home. It surprises many people to learn that meat production is a major contributor to climate change. Adding plant-based meals to our diets is an invitation to honor our Lenten tradition and stand in solidarity with our sisters and brothers around the world. For resources on eating simply during Lent and any time, go to: <https://catholicclimatemovement.global/lent-2019/resources>

Do you remember that the priest wore purple during Advent? That's when we were waiting for Jesus to be born at Christmas. Now, the priest is wearing purple while we wait for Jesus to come at Easter.

Gospel: Jesus lived in the desert for 40 days! The devil tried to tempt him to turn the rocks into bread when he was hungry. Jesus got help from the angels. He didn't listen to the devil.

Religious Education News

Happy Lent! Someone once said that Lent is like a long retreat where we gain strength to defeat the Evil one as Christ did in the desert. Our CCD students and families are seeking to gain the strength to overcome evil with Good by PRAYING MORE, MAKING SACRIFICES DAILY, AND GIVING TO THE POOR.

Religious Ed classes will be collecting food bags for the Missionaries of Charity in Dorchester to distribute to families who do not have enough to celebrate the Holiest Feast Day of the Year: Easter! Food Bags (list below) should be dropped off at the St. Anthony Statue in the lower church by Tuesday, April 2.

Here is the list of needed items:

- 1 bottle of vegetable oil
- 1 bag of rice
- 1 jar of spaghetti sauce
- 1 box of pasta
- 1 jar of peanut butter
- 1 jar of jelly

A Word from Brian Romer-Niemiec

Dear Sacred Heart and Our Lady's Collaborative Community, A couple weeks ago, my wife Ellen and I made the very difficult decision to move from Boston to Chicago. The older our daughter Eleanor gets, the more we are drawn to move closer to our family. The last four years in our Collaborative have been a true blessing of community, ministry, and joy grounded in the Body of Christ living and working here in Newton.

My last day in the collaborative will be Easter Sunday, April 21. The timeline on our decision rapidly accelerated when I was offered a job in the Archdiocese of Chicago. My new role will have me working with a team assigned to a region of the Archdiocese containing about 60 parishes. This team will help these parishes and parish staffs respond to the challenges of faith in 21st-century America in the areas of discipleship, mission, faith formation, and strategic pastoral planning.

It has been incredibly exciting to see our Collaborative grow as a community of faith seeking a deeper relationship with Christ, attentive to how Christ is calling us to respond to this relationship, and always seeking those who are new or on the margins of our church family. I will very much miss my time here with you. Ellen, Eleanor, and I will certainly carry the great gift of these last several years with us to Chicago. As we travel back to family this spring, we recognize and are so thankful that you have made Newton and these parishes a home for each of us. We could not be more grateful!

With great love,
Brian Romer Niemiec

Snow Tubing—Oh What Fun!

On Thursday, February 21, our Youth Minister Kristina Preman took 18 young parishioners to Nashoba Valley for a great afternoon of snow-tubing - and LOTS of fried dough! Accompanied by Matt Marchand from Corpus Christi-St. Bernard, they had a great time together. We look forward to more fun outings like this with our awesome parish youth.

of these women leave prison with nothing, and it means so much to be able to have an outfit for a job interview or toiletries or household items as they begin their lives anew. Knowing that these purchases were made possible by others who care and wish them well as they do the hard work of starting over is the best gift of all. If you would like to know more about this ministry, contact Dorothy Koffel at dorothy.koffel@gmail.com.

Coffee Hour after 10am Mass

We are thrilled to have coffee hour after 10:00am Mass back, but we still need some more volunteers to keep it going! Can you get to Mass half an hour early to set up? Are you willing to come downstairs after Communion and help serve for an hour? Do you like to chat and want to stay and help clean up? WE NEED YOU. If you would be willing to help out at one coffee hour a month from now until May, please contact Kate Neal at kneal@sholnewton.org or x219.

Thank You from the Sisters of St. Joseph Prison Ministry

Thank you to all who contributed so generously to the Valentine request for gift cards to be used by volunteers helping women as they are released from prison. Many

This Lent, Give Hope to Honduras!

For the past nine years, one of Our Lady's annual Lenten practices has been to raise money to support the education of impoverished children from our sister parish of San Marcos in Honduras.

This week, meet Kimberly Julissa Nunez Rodriguez. She is a 12-year-old, seventh-grade student who has been receiving an Our Lady's scholarship since 2018. She lives in Sabana Larga village, San Marcos, Ocotepeque, with her parents Alex and Rosa, her grandmother Evangelina, and her brothers Douglas (17) and Jose Antonio (4).

Kimberly's mom Rosa was adopted by Evangelina, who has lived with the paralysis sequelae of poliomyelitis since she was 3. Evangelina married late in life, did not have children of her own, and decided to adopt Rosa.

Like the majority of people in these communities, the family cooks in this wood stove (pictured), and this is their living and dining room. Kimberly shares a room with her grandmother. Kimberly dreams of being able to continue studying and becoming a teacher of young kids.

Donation Form for San Marcos, Honduras, Scholarship Fund

Our Lady's is supporting 50 students in our sister parish in San Marcos, Honduras, with scholarships. Any donations beyond filling this need will go toward the San Marcos parish station, which transmits Mass and other programming to the over 50 remote hamlets in the mountains that make up the parish. The first 20 donors to make a full $300 sponsorship will be invited to choose a piece of original artwork, displayed at the back of the church, from a Honduran student.
