From Fr. Dan, Administrator

Dear Friends,

Fr. John – “The Real Deal!” In his terrific homily (see full text on the next page), Msgr. Dennis related how Fr. John used this in praise of so many who were authentically growing in spirituality. Fr. John was always growing, and teaching us how to grow, in spirituality, in generosity of spirit, in a personal relationship with Jesus. He was the consummate “real deal” here on earth, and now continues to be the real deal in eternal paradise with God.

Happy Easter Season, Alleluia! Jesus is risen. Death is overcome, as have ultimately sin, suffering and death. Jesus walks by our side, always helping us, and he has invited us to join him in eternal bliss!

Thank you to all who did so much for Fr. John and his family both during his time of ministry here, including helping him with his illness, and following his passing to eternal life. For example, between those who came earlier in the day and those who attended the Mass on Wednesday, April 24, we easily exceeded 1000 people!

Thanks be to God! "I would maintain that thanks are the highest form of thought; and that gratitude is happiness doubled by wonder." G.K.

Chesterton.

Fr. John quoted this repeatedly: “We do not want you to be unaware, brothers, about those who have fallen asleep, so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose, so too will God, through Jesus, bring with him those who have fallen asleep. . . . Thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore, console one another with these words.” (1 Thess 4: 13-14,18).

Congratulations to all who have received or are receiving Baptism, First Communion or Confirmation! What a joy for you and your parents! We are so proud of you. May the love, joy, and wisdom of God lead you toward the full life that Jesus promises. Go and make a huge difference with the life and gifts God has given you!

Sports: As I write this, the Bruins are tied in games, 1-1, with the Blue Jackets, in a gutsy battle. I predict the Bruins in seven! The underdog Celts decisively won Game One against the Bucks. The Patriots seemed to have a good draft last weekend. The Sox need to pick it up – wake up those bats!

Love and God bless you,
Fr. Dan

New & Ongoing in Our Community

May 5 ~ Third Sunday of Easter

In the first reading, St. Paul is ordered “to stop teaching in that name.” That is, he was to stop teaching about Jesus. But Paul gives a clear response, “We must obey God rather than men.” Paul was willing to face trial and suffering rather than stop speaking about Jesus. The Gospel presents us with the magnificent story of Jesus’ love and mercy. Having denied Jesus three times, Jesus now gives Peter three opportunities to show his love. We can hear the strength of that love in each response, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Are you willing to speak with the same conviction we hear in Paul and Peter?

Six-Week Grief Support Group

Join us for a 6-week grief support workshop “Living with Grief”. The death of a loved one is unlike any other. Whether the death was sudden and tragic or one with warning and preparation, the reality of death leaves most of us shocked, confused, and sad. These feelings may last for years. Grieving people need time and space to honor their grief. Your loss may be recent, or it may be years ago.

Our Lady's and Sacred Heart has developed a program to help you and yours start the healing process. This group will meet Sundays 11:15am-12:15pm on May 5, May 12, May 19, May 26, and June 2. Advanced registration is required. If you would like more information or to register, contact Kate Neal at 617-527-7560 x219 or kneal@sholnewton.org.

We will be reviewing the Robert DeSimone Forum schedule for the coming year, discussing “Back from the Brink” on nuclear disarmament, and going over updates on climate change and the refugee ministry. Please join us with your thoughts and ideas.

Get to Know Your Pastoral Council Representatives!

Representative: Kathie Long

Parish: Sacred Heart

Contact: longlongij@verizon.net

Because of my age, I've been in quite a few parishes: as a kid, I was at St. Joseph's in East Pepperell; BC brought me to first to Sacred Heart and St. Columbkille's; teaching sent me to Holy Name in West Roxbury and St. John's in Wellesley; marriage and family brought me to St. Philip Neri and for 11 years back at Sacred Heart again. My life span has seen the ebb and flow of the Church in Boston.

I was delighted to be nominated for Pastoral Council for a couple of reasons: 1) I love to know what is going on, and 2) I often have energy and interest in helping out where needed. I would love to do all I can to help the collaborative succeed and flourish.

I am a parishioner better known for involvement in the social aspects of the parish life, rather than the spiritual aspects of a parish; think Grandma of "The Attic", Guild President, 125th Celebration, clothing drives for St. Francis House, and coffee hours!

For most of us in these turbulent years, our strong faith keeps us Roman Catholics, "we wish to keep our parish collaborative strong and supportive of our faith", so any suggestions or support that you have to "Keep the Faith", I welcome and will pass on.

Cardinal Seán on the Protection of Life

"There are two bills proposed in the Massachusetts legislature which have extreme consequences for the protection of life. The bills should, in my judgement, be opposed even by those who support the Roe v. Wade decision. I do not address the proposed legislation from a religious perspective but as an issue of human rights, in this case the right to life, as I also speak to other human rights issues such as welcoming immigrants to our country, supporting a strong social safety net for the poor and the call for racial justice.

"The proposed legislation would produce the following consequences:

Allow abortion in Massachusetts during all nine months of pregnancy.

Eliminate the requirement to make efforts to care for a child who survives an attempted abortion.

"We do not seek to judge or blame individuals, particularly women and families faced with excruciatingly difficult pregnancies. Our objective is to consider the implications of the proposed legislation, which among its provisions removes any limits to abortion in the third trimester of pregnancy. Legislators, I hope, will not presume that broad support in Massachusetts for legal abortion automatically translates into willingness on the part of the public to embrace the extreme provisions of these bills. The unborn children who will be most directly impacted by the proposals deserve to have their lives protected."

Msgr. Dennis Sheehan's Homily Given on April 24, 2019 Memorial Mass for Fr. John Sassani

To craft a homily at a Memorial Mass for Father John Edward Sassani, a preacher should have four hands. The first hand should hold the Word of God from Genesis to Revelation, every sacred syllable. A second hand needs to grasp the mystery of the priesthood, where God calls, in the words of John Newman, "men, not angels, ministers of the Gospel". For John Sassani, the preacher's third hand must hold the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola, that classic text that has led so many to friendship with Jesus Christ their Lord. Finally, a fourth hand must hold the cross of Jesus Christ, itself so present in John Sassani's faith and life.

John left his earthly life in the wee dark hours of Easter Sunday morning. I am not here a believer in coincidence. John loved the Easter feast more than most I know. Decades ago, he and I served together at St. John the Evangelist here in Nonantum. We prepared an Easter fire so brilliant, it attracted two of Newton's ladder trucks screaming down Adams Street. When the Vigil ended (no, we didn't use Easter water to put out the fire!), John had an idea. Leave all the church lights on, he mused. Let the light of Easter shine through the wall of colored glass until the light of Easter morning. I thought of that light right away when I heard of John's death early Easter morning. The light of Easter shone in his darkness and in ours.

We gather this evening around his earthly remains to celebrate the Eucharist. This sacrament, where God's people, sinners and saints, gather to be fed by Word and sacrament, was at the heart of John's life and ministry as a priest. John was no ordinary preacher. Having him give a homily, one knew that he was speaking from his heart and life. He didn't need theatrics and oratory. He spoke directly and powerfully from a mind and heart embedded deeply in the Word of God and the life of the Catholic faith. From John's preaching, we learned more than the treasure of Scripture. He made life very concrete with stories of his friends and family. He was alive with God's Word and made that Word alive for us.

John's special gift as a priest was taking Catholics on a journey from membership to discipleship. He did this through the Cursillo retreat weekends. The experience for many of you here tonight was life-changing and lasting. John never came back after a Cursillo event tired or down. Gathering men or women, opening up hitherto undiscovered depths of faith, leading retreatants into prayer - it was life-giving for John and life-changing for us.

Fr. John relished leading retreats, using his treasured Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius as a roadmap. He led so many of us into the riches of imaginative prayer, the unique gift of St. Ignatius' teaching on indifference, the discovery of discernment in consolations and desolations.

I watched John at work over the years. He worked hard with the members of his parishes. But always he was on the prowl for what he called "the real deal". It described many of you. He spotted a Catholic ready in faith to go deeper, to take the road from being a member to being a disciple. If you made a Cursillo, it took for you. If you did the weekly long "19th Annotation", it changed you. It gifted you. But it was John Sassani's gift as a priest to be God's instrument leading you to Jesus Christ in friendship.

St. Ignatius teaches that prayer before the cross is the test of a real disciple's maturity. For over two years, John Sassani lived the experience of the cross he discovered in prayer. As his memory failed and his self-awareness became compromised by disease, we all watched helplessly with heavy heart. Living with him day-by-day, I never heard him complain, never saw him get angry or frustrated. When I pause to reflect, I realized he was the model of St. Ignatius' practice of indifference. Here, more agonizing, was the sharing of the Cross at the heart of his faith and ours. "Take Lord, receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding... give me your love and your grace. This is sufficient for me."

Good friends of Father John Edward Sassani's: we have been privileged all of us to know a disciple, a priest, a soul-friend. He lived with joy, generosity of spirit, and great serenity. He was filled with gifts of God's granting and gifted all of us in turn. He loved and lived in the Easter light. May that same light fill him now in God's presence with the life of Christ Risen. Alleluia.
