From Fr. Dan, Administrator

Dear Friends,

Memorial Day: We honor with profound gratitude the men and women who died while serving in the U.S. military. May God bless them with eternal life!

Happy 10th Anniversary to Fr. Shawn Carey! Many thanks for his outstanding pastoral care and leadership of the Deaf Community.

Our beloved Pastor Fr. John Sassani is watching over us and praying for us. His pastoral care continues. I continue to be impressed by the many folks who have been so deeply touched by Fr. John. What a great priest!

You are warmly welcomed at Sacred Heart and Our Lady's! Whether you are relatively new or have been here for a while, it is an honor that you are here!

Jesus' love for you: "We are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death nor life...nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Romans 8:37-39)

You are loving and protecting Jesus, who is really present in the needy and vulnerable. Among the efforts in our Collaborative are projects involved with helping the poor, protecting unborn life, fighting climate change, reaching out to immigrants – and so much more. Way to go!

The Fragrance of Christ: "Help me to spread your fragrance everywhere I go - let me preach you without preaching, not by words but by my example - by the catching force, the sympathetic influence of what I do, the evident fullness of the love my heart bears to you." (John Henry Newman)

Pope Francis on Happiness: "You may have defects, be anxious and sometimes live irritated, but do not forget that your life is the greatest enterprise in the world. There are many that need you, admire you and love you." "Being happy means having the maturity to say, 'I was wrong'; having the audacity to say, 'forgive me'. It is to have sensitivity in expressing, 'I need you'; to have the ability of saying, 'I love you.'"

Sports: After sweeping the Hurricanes (thank you Tuukka!), the Bruins begin the Stanley Cup finals on Monday. I predict the Bruins win, and it will not take seven games. Go B's! Will Kyrie Irving return to the Celtics? The Red Sox youngsters are swinging hot bats lately.

Love and God bless you,
Fr. Dan

May 26 ~ Sixth Sunday of Easter

In our first reading, we hear more about the growing pains of the early Church. The Apostles were doing something that had never been before: building a community of believers in Jesus Christ, Son of God. There were bound to be misunderstandings and differences of opinion. Even today, as the Church in Boston focuses on strengthening evangelization efforts and spreading the Good News of Jesus Christ, people are hesitant to put their faith into action. Jesus' words in today's Gospel sustained the early Church, and they must sustain us also: "Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." Rely on the Holy Spirit – the Advocate – who is still with us.

Cardinal Seán on the Protection of Life

"There are two bills proposed in the Massachusetts legislature which have extreme consequences for the protection of life. The bills should, in my judgement, be opposed even by those who support the Roe v. Wade decision. I do not address the proposed legislation from a religious perspective but as an issue of human rights, in this case the right to life, as I also speak to other human rights issues such as welcoming immigrants to our country, supporting a strong social safety net for the poor and the call for racial justice.

"The proposed legislation would produce the following consequences:

Allow abortion in Massachusetts during all nine months of pregnancy.
Eliminate the requirement to make efforts to care for a child who survives an attempted abortion.

"We do not seek to judge or blame individuals, particularly women and families faced with excruciatingly difficult pregnancies. Our objective is to consider the implications of the proposed legislation, which among its provisions removes any limits to abortion in the third trimester of pregnancy. Legislators, I hope, will not presume that broad support in Massachusetts for legal abortion automatically translates into willingness on the part of the public to embrace the extreme provisions of these bills. The unborn children who will be most directly impacted by the proposals deserve to have their lives protected."

Msgr. Dennis Sheehan's Homily Given on May 9, 2010 Sixth Sunday of Easter—Liturgical Year C

I had been ordained only a few years. Out of the blue, I was given a new and complex assignment. I was to direct a program of continuing education for 35 American priests in Rome. The priest I replaced had to leave the day after I arrived. "Don't worry, Dennis," he told me, "I've prepared lots of notes and directions." Yeah, sure.

Jesus is getting ready to leave his disciples as we listen to his words today. But he doesn't leave them an instruction manual. He says instead, I am leaving you a teacher, a guide, a friend – The Advocate. "The Advocate, the Holy Spirit," he says, "will teach you everything.".

Let's remember here that these gathered disciples haven't exactly been stellar learners. They still break Jesus' heart with their comments and questions. They repeatedly misunderstand him and his words. Later tonight in the garden, they'll all run off as Roman soldiers arrest Jesus.

Still, I wonder if we today would be any better. Jesus tells me not to worry about tomorrow. Still, I check reports on the priests' retirement regularly. I get nervous about my future. Turn the other cheek? For me, that's not likely. Take up the cross? I don't think I'm getting high marks there either.

But the strange thing is this: To those first bumblers and betrayers Jesus promises the Advocate, the Holy Spirit. He's going, and a door will close in their experience of Jesus. But a new door, Jesus assures them, will open for them – and, yes, for us too!

That's what the Holy Spirit continues to do. The Church doesn't always heed. History and current reports make that painfully clear. But the life of following Jesus is not something we are supposed to do alone. Understand the Bible? Live a moral life? Take up the cross? Serve our neighbor in Jesus name? Sometimes these are seemingly impossible tasks. But when it comes to following Jesus, we never act alone.

I remember speaking with a group of college students about "Catholic faith and sex". The title drew quite a crowd. I talked, among other things, about the traditional Catholic teaching about sex and marriage. Afterward, one student said to me, "You must be crazy! Do you think anyone can live that way? Impossible!"

Sure, it's probably impossible if you think you have to go it alone. But Jesus says today, we never live the Gospel by ourselves. We can only live a Christian life if there is a Holy Spirit to guide and strengthen us.

The good news: There is an Advocate, and he's right here. Let's give thanks to the Lord our God.

Care for Creation: A Mother's Journey

Lorna Gold of Ireland will launch her book, Climate Generation: Awakening to Our Children's Future, on Thursday, June 6, 2:30-4:00pm, at Boston College's Simboli Hall (School of Theology and Ministry). Climate change is a real threat, which risks destroying our children's future unless we act fast. This book tells the story of how one mother was awakened to this reality and how it changed her life. From fearing she could do nothing, she found herself catapulted into a big adventure. She discovered people from all walks of life who care about their children's futures and who are doing amazing things to make these voices heard. She is now the vice-chair of the Global Catholic Climate Movement.

A featured speaker also will be Bill McKibben, one of the earliest voices on climate change, who the Boston Globe described as "probably America's most important environmentalist." Following the book launch, at 4:30 in Simboli Hall, there will be a discussion and light supper with Lorna Gold, sponsored by the Boston Catholic Climate Movement. To register for either of these free events, contact Barbara Allaire at barbara.allaire@gmail.com.
