From Fr. Dan, Pastor

Dear Friends,

The endless, unfailing mercy of God: “But the man who is not afraid to admit everything that he sees to be wrong with himself, and yet recognizes that he may be the object of God's love precisely because of his shortcomings, can begin to be sincere. His sincerity is based on confidence, not in his own illusions about himself, but in the endless, unfailing mercy of God.”

—Thomas Merton

You are appreciated, accepted and warmly welcomed here. We love to see you. We want you to know the love of God and feel His presence near. For you are so special to Jesus, and special to us too. For your life has significance, and there's purpose in what you do.

Pope Francis: “I am spiritually close to the victims of the violent episodes which in these days has bloodied Texas, California, and Ohio in the United States, striking defenseless people,” the pope said August 4, inviting Catholics “to unite with me in my prayer for those who have lost their lives, for the wounded, and for their families.” The condolences come in the wake of three mass shootings which have ravaged the United States in three different cities over the past week. Before closing his remarks, Pope Francis offered a moment of silence and the recitation of a “Hail Mary” in remembrance of all those impacted by last week's three mass shootings.

“At times, our own light is rekindled by a spark from another person. Each of us has cause to think with deep gratitude of those who have lighted the flame within us.” —Albert Schweitzer.

Pope Francis on climate change: Time is of the essence. The Holy Father sounded a dire warning. “The signs today are not good,” he said, pointing to declining investment in clean energy and a rise in the concentration of carbon dioxide in the atmosphere. Citing leading climatologists and experts, Pope Francis said, “Their message was clear and insistent. We need to act decisively to put an end to all emissions of greenhouse gases by mid-century at the very latest, and to do even more than that.”

Sports: As I write this (August 4), I hope the Patriots avoid training camp injuries and the Red Sox turn it around. Maybe BC football will have a good year!

Love and God bless you,
Fr. Dan

Mother Caroline Academy School Supply Drive: August 24–September 8

It's almost back-to-school time! MCA is a tuition-free private school in Dorchester for low-income girls in Grades 4-8. Each fall, parishioners at Sacred Heart & Our Lady's have been very generous in donating supplies for the 88 students and 10 teachers there. Since it is almost the beginning of another school year, it's time to take advantage of sales and replenish their supplies!

Items especially needed at this time: copy paper, art supplies, highlighters, dry erase markers and erasers, writing implements, index cards, and loose-leaf notebook paper.

Our drive will begin next weekend, August 24 & 25, and continue for two weeks until September 7 & 8.

—At Sacred Heart: please bring your donations to the baskets at the entrances and exits of the church.

—At Our Lady's: please bring your donations to the main church, left hand side of the gathering space with hardwood (where the Giving Tree goes up each Advent)

If you prefer, you can make a donation for school supplies by check to Mother Caroline Academy or online at www.mcaec.org/. Your generosity and support make a difference every day! Thank you!

Kevin Staley-Joyce, our new Parochial Vicar, will celebrate the Mass and Anointing of the Sick. After refreshments, we will have our Annual Ice Cream Social. It promises to be a delightful evening. The evening is designed to bring joy, hope, and peace to those who are affected by illness, including family and friends. The Mass and program will both be held downstairs at Our Lady's Church. For questions or more information, please contact Pat Enright at 617-467-4482 or penright298@gmail.com, Lorraine Higgins at 617-244-0267 or higlor1@msn.com, or the parish offices. All are welcome!

August 18 ~ Twentieth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Sundays in the summer often afford us more time for leisure and contemplation. Today's readings give us much food for thought if we take a few minutes to take another look. Who do you count among “the great cloud of witnesses” in your life? Is there someone who is a pillar of faith and strength whom you admire? What is it about that person that you can imitate – today? The race mentioned in the Letter to the Hebrews is NOT the “rat race” we so easily get trapped in; it is the race to eternal life—the race we run in faith each day “...while keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus.”

Monsignor Dennis Sheehan
Homily Given on August 19, 2007
Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Liturgical Year C

Wait just a minute Jesus! My life is already a constant rush of chaos, business, fast-forward and non-stop. I come to church looking for a little peace and quiet consolation. I'm looking to center a bit on this Sunday morning. I'm here to get grounded, to find the stable and dependable Jesus.

If that's what you're thinking today, I'm with you. An hour in a nice safe building, the cool of air conditioning, the solace of prayer and good music.

But then there's Jesus today. "I have come to set the earth on fire..." Peace? "No, from me you get division. I'll split up families, divide homes, turn parents against children." Fire!

This, frankly, is the side of Jesus and his Gospel that I dread whenever it comes up. But here it is.... fire!

Fire can be good or bad. But good or bad, you can't ignore it. God knows that. Look at a few places where fire burned in the Scriptures.

Remember Moses and the burning bush? Moses, you recall, was a murderer on the lam from the law. Here he is in the wilderness hoping everyone has forgotten him. But God seeks him out. "Hey Moses, your people need you. I'll set you on fire and you'll set your people free." That's just what God did; he set Moses on fire. Fire can be good, and fire can be bad; but you can't ignore fire.

So Moses takes the people out in the desert. They moan and groan at the hardship. God gives them food. But God comes to them as guide...in a pillar of...you got it...fire!

The Letter to the Hebrews put it this way: "Our God is a consuming fire." A fire. You can love God, you can hate God, but you can't ignore God!

I'm sure the disciples of Jesus just wanted a little peace and security. After Jesus' resurrection, there they were together in the upper room. Maybe their pews were bolted to the floor. Maybe they were going through the familiar, comforting routine of Sabbath prayer. Then the building began to rumble, the doors swung open, and someone from somewhere yelled, "Fire!"

It was fire all right. It was the fire of God's spirit we call Pentecost. It set those sleepy disciples on fire, and they went out to cast the fire of faith on the waiting world. Fire is good, and fire is bad, but it always gets your attention. You can't ignore it.

Jesus comes to us today, looking for a few combustible followers. A real church is like a furnace. It radiates warmth and drives out chill.

What's your choice and mine in the face of all this harsh stuff? "I have come to set the world on fire." Jesus says it's not easy. People probably will react negatively if you become too much of a firebrand. There are those among us who like the cool, stable, and predictable church experience. But then we're very far indeed from the incendiary group Jesus calls us to be.

Imagine a church – here and all around the world – fired up by the Gospel. It would be a glorious sight to behold. Jesus really did come to set the world on fire.

Watch out. You're combustible.

This week's homily reflection comes to us from Msgr. Dennis.
It seems that Fr. John escaped on a vacation every 20th Sunday of Ordinary Time, as we could not find a single homily from this particular Sunday in the last 12+ years!
Homilies are available each week online at www.sholnewton.org/godeeper

Psalm: Trace the words and learn to pray like Jesus!

Lord, come to my aid!

Learn at Mass

Today at Mass, watch as people receive Jesus in Holy Communion. Pray for them to follow Jesus with their whole hearts.

Gospel: Jesus teaches us some hard things! God asks us to believe what the Church teaches. Sometimes people argue about what they believe. If you don't know what to say about your faith, talk to your family or to your priest so they can help you understand. We learn about our faith by reading the Bible and listening to the Church.

Draw yourself listening to Jesus!

Religious Education Registration Is Open

Registration for the 2019-2020 Religious Education Programs has now begun in early July. Registration forms have been mailed home to all returning students. New students are asked to download a registration form from our website: <https://www.sholnewton.org/religious-education-at-our-ladys>

Please note for First Penance and First Holy Communion: Preparation for these Sacraments is a two-year program. Although Religious Education begins in Kindergarten, Grades 1 and 2 are required before First Communion.

Please note for Confirmation: Preparation is a two-year program! High school students who wish to celebrate Confirmation must enroll in the preparation program for two consecutive years, typically - but not always - Grades 9 and 10. In addition, all rising 9th graders and any new 10th graders (typically Catholic school students) must contact Kristina over the summer to schedule a one-on-one introductory meeting that includes at least one parent.

Please spread the word about our programs to family, friends, and neighbors. Thank you!

Religious Education Catechists Needed!

Every Christian shares the responsibility of sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ with others. In Luke's Gospel, chapter 12, Jesus tells us, "Much will be required of the person entrusted with much."

Here at Our Lady's, we need approximately 100 catechists (teachers) and assistant catechists for 20-22 classes this year (9 classes only for Confirmation). We especially ask adults whose children are grown to consider this ministry, since many Religious Education parents have younger children at home or work on the weekends and are unable to teach. Perhaps you have a friend who would share the teaching with you or serve as your assistant.

Talking about possibilities now, in the summer, allows you ample time to plan before classes begin on September 22 and 23. Please contact Rosemary or Kristina if you would like to talk about volunteer possibilities. Thank you!

Invitation to Serve: Eucharistic Ministers and Greeters Needed

Would you like to become more involved in the Our Lady's community? Consider serving at Mass!

Eucharistic Ministers: We are in need of ministers at all Masses. We are happy to have you serve according to your availability, whether that is every week or once a month. If you are an active and confirmed member of the Church and would like more information, please contact Maribeth Scott at 617-469-8110 or mbskis@yahoo.com.

Greeters: greeters are needed for the 8:00am and 6:00pm Masses. The greeter's primary role is to welcome all to the celebration. As the community leaves the church, the greeter sends all to take Christ to the world. Greeters may also assist with the collection. Women, men, and youth who are welcoming and caring of others would find this a rewarding ministry. Some couples or families may like to serve together as greeters. Ministers are scheduled according to their preferences. Please contact Maribeth at 617-469-8110 or mbskis@yahoo.com.
