From Fr. Dan, Pastor

Dear Friends,

You are warmly welcomed at Sacred Heart and Our Lady's. We are glad you are here. Thanks for coming!

Happy Independence Day / Fourth of July! May God help us more fully live up to the inspiring ideals our nation was founded upon. Enjoy the cookouts!

Pope Francis "pointed out that the most serious illness in life is a lack of love, and not being able to love. The Pope lamented that at times we seek useless remedies for our lack of love, throwing ourselves into vain searches for success and money, even looking online. "The Lord waits for us to encounter Him, to open our hearts to Him. By growing in intimacy with Jesus, we are healed." Pope Francis encouraged everyone to "let Jesus look at and heal your heart." If we have already experienced His gaze, then we should turn to those around us who may feel wounded and alone to show them love. "Jesus asks you for a gaze that does not stop at the outward appearance, but that goes to the heart: a gaze not judgmental, but welcoming, because love alone heals life."

The Declaration of Independence: We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness.

Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent, a new nation, conceived in Liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. It is for us the living to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us -- that we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion -- that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain -- that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom -- and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth. —Abraham Lincoln, Gettysburg Address, Excerpts Cardinal Sean's June 24th statement on protecting life is printed in full in this bulletin. I found it insightful and sensitive.

Sports: Most likely to win it all next: Celts, Sox, Pats, Revs and Bruins in that order. What order would you put them in?

Happy 4th, Love & God bless you!
Fr. Dan

We thank these new council members for their service to the parishes and to the collaborative. We will be introducing them in the bulletin in the coming weeks (see box on the next page).

Thank you also to Tammy Sakala Stossel from Our Lady's and Lija Joseph and Keirnan Conroy Klosek from Sacred Heart, who are finishing their terms. And final thanks to all who submitted nominations.

July 3 - 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

We know all too well the reality of Jesus' words in today's gospel that there are too few who are willing to be "laborers for the harvest." This week, rather than focusing on the scarcity of laborers, let us appreciate and give thanks for those in our midst who do respond to Jesus' words, "Go on your way...I am sending you." They are our religious education teachers, our lectors, those who visit the sick and homebound, our St. Vincent de Paul society and the many, many others. Each one of us is sent as "a laborer for his harvest." To what is Jesus calling you, and how will you respond?

Weekday Mass Summer Schedule

This year, Fr. Dan is on his own for the weekdays in June, July, August. As a result, the weekday Mass schedule in that time is:

Monday & Tuesday, 7:00am at Our Lady's Friday & Saturday, 9:00am at Sacred Heart

This summer schedule ends on Saturday, September 3, 2022.

We will return to the regular schedule after that.

Thank you for understanding!

Racial Justice Ministry Meeting

All are welcome to the next Racial Justice Ministry meeting on Monday, July 11, 7:30-9:00pm, on Zoom. We continue to follow the Just Faith Ministry curriculum on Faith and Racial Equity. All are welcome! Please contact Lija Joseph at lijajoseph@gmail.com with questions. <https://us05web.zoom.us/j/5739347100?pwd=UTJaNVp5OXgwZ2t3UDBReWRnTVBRUT09>

Support for the SHOL Racial Justice Ministry

The Sacred Heart & Our Lady's Racial Justice Ministry, which was started by a group of parishioners, began meeting twice a month over a year and a half ago to promote true equality and equity of human beings within the Catholic Church and the world. Shortly thereafter, we were fortunate to have Deanna Morgan, who earned a Master's of Christian Education at Princeton Theological Seminary, volunteer to lead the group. By use of media, guest speakers, books, and action to be taken, members of the group immersed themselves in non-white cultures and began to confront the sin of racism.

In October 2021, the Ministry held a virtual Racial Justice Retreat entitled "Awaken to Racism", attended by over 50 SHOL parishioners and others from local parishes. This retreat, with guest speakers and discussions that followed, was the first of its kind and one that we hope to have annually. Currently, we are following the curriculum for "Faith and Racial Healing: Embracing Truth, Justice, and Restoration" created by Just Faith Ministries. The group meets once a month on Zoom, and all members of the parishes are welcome to join. This new curriculum requires the use of books and Session Guides that are needed to address race and racism from a spiritual perspective.

In order to fund these programs for our parishes, we are asking for support from current participants, those who would like to become involved, and those who believe this is a worthwhile ministry. You can greatly help by making a donation by check payable to either Sacred Heart Church or Our Lady Help of Christians Church, with "SHOL Racial Justice Ministry" in the memo line, and then dropping it off or mailing it to the office. For those unable to contribute financially, we welcome your prayers for the Racial Justice Ministry. Thank you. Please contact Lija at lijjoseph@gmail.com with questions.

Meet Your New Pastoral Council Representatives!

Hannah Smith
Our Lady's Parish
Term ending June 2025
hannahmaysmith51@gmail.com

I am a lifelong resident of Waltham. I attended Our Lady Comforter of the Afflicted grammar school and Trinity Catholic High School here at the parish, where

I was a member of the last graduating class in 2012. I received my Bachelor's Degree from the College of the Holy Cross and started volunteering here at Our Lady's in Newton as a catechist with the Religious Ed program shortly after college. I have taught first grade (in-person) and second grade (on Zoom!) classes over the past four years. I work in Sales Enablement for a global company based in Boston, and I am an avid Red Sox fan. I'm looking forward to serving as a new member of the Pastoral Council.

Offices Closed—July 4th

In observance of the federal holiday, the parish offices will be closed on Monday, July 4. We wish everyone a safe and happy holiday as we celebrate 246 years since the Declaration of Independence was ratified!

It will be held at St. Eulalia Parish in Winchester in the parish center. On Wednesday, July 13, 7-8pm, we will be going over all of the details regarding the trip. WYD is July 28-August 7, 2023. For more information, visit the Archdiocese of Boston website at: <https://www.bostoncatholic.org/wyd2023>. Our trip is organized by the Archdiocese of Boston in partnership with Dube Travel. The cost is roughly $4,000 per person based on double occupancy. Because of the other mission trips and programs that take place, there will be no fundraising opportunities for this event.

Please RSVP to Jared. St. Eulalia is located at 50 Ridge St, Winchester. This info night is free, and we will have light snacks provided. If you would like more information, but cannot attend this meeting, please contact Jared to discuss other options.

Green Thumb Ministry: If any middle or high school kids would like to participate in the Green Thumb Ministry, we plan to meet throughout the summer at the raised beds (at Our Lady's, immediately to the right upon entering the parking lot) for some gardening on certain Sundays after the 10:00am Mass. If you would like to earn some volunteer hours or you simply want to learn how to grow your own food, feel free to drop by! Contact Jared for our July dates.

Msgr. Dennis Sheehan Homily Given on July 8, 2007 Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time—Liturgical Year C

This is a gospel you might be saying, "For missionaries. It has nothing to do with my daily life." Wrong. "This is a gospel for street preachers and people who go from house to house spreading the gospel. It's not even remotely about my Christian living." Wrong again. Look at one detail: Jesus sends seventy. Seventy in the Bible is the number of fullness. Seventy means Jesus sends everyone. This gospel is about you.

But we don't look like people on a missionary journey. We don't act for the most part like Jesus sends us. That's true enough! Why not? What we need to hear is a message so important it underlies this and every other gospel where Jesus sends people. There's a "message behind the message" here today. We need to hear it, let it penetrate our bones, and sink into our hearts. Jesus' message is three simple words: Don't be afraid!

Remember when Jesus walked across the water and got into the boat? He said it then: Don't be afraid. Remember when he healed the synagogue leader's daughter? He said it then. Don't be afraid.

Today, Jesus sends his seventy and all of us. Get out there, he calls, do my work, speak my words, lead my life. Do you imagine those first seventy were any less fearful and apprehensive than us? What must it be like to go to unfamiliar places and meet people without being invited? What must it be like to stand for gospel values in places where we may seem strange or peculiar? Today's gospel lifts up 4 possible fears, names them, and says resoundingly: Don't be afraid.

The gospel deals with four possible fears. The first is fear of people. Jesus sends those first disciples to heal the sick. What wisdom there is in that! But did people always recognize their illness? No. People, then and now, Jesus says, will turn you down, scorn you. Are you afraid of them? Look deeper, Jesus says. See their brokenness. See the pain that bubbles over in anger – even anger at you. Do you fear this? Jesus says, just move on. Do what you can and keep going. Don't fear people.

Four possible fears. The second is obvious, fear of failure. We breathe it in like the air around us. Jesus doesn't say: push harder. Jesus doesn't say: success is all that matters. He says again: move along. You carried the message. You lived and spoke authentically. Jesus himself was a failure. But God reached into the failure of Jesus crucified and brought forth a whole new life. Don't fear failure.

Four fears. The third fear is fear of not having things. We spend lots of time wanting stuff. If I had more money. If my shoes were better. I need a digital TV. The consumer culture tells us we are what we have. An iPhone will make me more of a person. Jesus says things can be distracting, can absorb our lives in worry and desire. Travel light, Jesus says. Don't fear things – what you don't have.

The fourth and last fear is the fear of needing. Be content with the food you get, says Jesus. That's all you need. Be content with the roof over your head. You don't really need a cathedral ceiling and a gourmet kitchen. What you really need you may already have: friends, food and shelter, support and affection. Do you fear for these?

Jesus wants us free from fear. But we have them, nonetheless. One of these fears will probably crop up in the week ahead: fear of people, fear of failure, fear of not having things, fear of being in need. The fear will keep us from living as people sent by Jesus. The fear, not the gospel, will direct our lives. At that moment, listen again to Jesus: I am sending you. I am sending you like sheep among wolves. There you have it. Just don't be afraid. Why not? You're on Jesus' mission, and he's with you. That's reason aplenty not to be afraid.

Homily reflections are also available each week online at www.sholnewton.org/godeeper.

June 24, 2022: Cardinal Seán O'Malley Statement regarding Supreme Court Ruling in Dobbs v. Jackson

For all of us who have spoken, written, worked, marched, and prayed to reverse Roe v. Wade, today's Supreme Court decision in Dobbs v. Jackson is deeply significant and encouraging. This decision will create the possibility of protecting human life from conception; it calls us to recognize the unique burden faced by women in pregnancy; and it challenges us as a nation to work together to build up more communities of support — and available access to them — for all women experiencing unplanned pregnancies.

During the past half-century, as the abortion debate continued, the Catholic Church has often been accused of imposing a religious belief on our pluralistic society. It is indeed the case that, when addressing the Catholic community, the Church has used both religious and moral arguments to oppose abortion. But when engaging the wider American civil society, elected officials, and our legal system, the Church has defended human life from its inception as a matter of human rights. Our continued efforts in advocating our position on the protection of unborn children is consistent with our advocacy for issues affecting the dignity of all persons at all stages and in all circumstances of life. The Church employs this principle of consistency in addressing issues of race, poverty, and human rights generally. It is a position that presents a moral argument as a foundation for law and policy to protect human life.

I welcome the Court's decision, but I do not underestimate how profoundly divisive the issue of abortion has been and will continue to be in our public life. Even more tragic has been the personal suffering of women facing unplanned pregnancies in difficult situations. The Church has consistently opposed the moral and legal dimensions of Roe v. Wade; we also adamantly reject stigmatizing, criminalizing, judging or shaming women who have had abortions or are considering them. Too often isolated and desperate, women have felt they had no other choice. They need and deserve spiritual, emotional, and material support from the Church and from society.

In the Archdiocese of Boston, we have sought, through Project Rachel and Pregnancy Help, to support women facing a crisis pregnancy and women whose lives have been impacted by an abortion. In addition, the Church offers the Lord's boundless mercy and healing to those suffering from the spiritual harms of abortion. In the face of recent statistics indicating an increase in abortions, our pastoral and social support for women will continue, will be welcoming, and will be available to all who need them.

Today's Supreme Court decision begins a new chapter in our legislative and legal forums as the public debates about abortion will not end. Since 1973, there has been continuing opposition to Roe v. Wade's reasoning and its consequences. Those consequences have permeated the political, legal, and social fabric of American life. The radical character of the Roe decision catalyzed some of the deepest reactions and responses to any issue in our nation's history. The public arguments will now shift to the states, the Congress, and the courts. It is my hope that this new chapter may be a time of a different tone and focus in our civic life.

First, we must adopt a wider vision of the multiple threats to human life in our society today. The recognition that human life begins with conception and continues through natural death. All human life deserves moral and legal protection at all times. Protection of life should be comprehensive, not selective. The Church, in its own positions, should reflect this wider vision, and we are called to engage our civil society around this more holistic view of the value and dignity of human life. It is commonly recognized by those on both sides of the abortion debate that conditions of poverty and injustice have been and are today a major factor contributing to abortions. Those who have opposed and supported Roe can and should find common ground for a renewed commitment to social and economic justice in our country.

Second, protecting human life at all times can only succeed if we rediscover the value of civility in discourse, in protest, and in policy advocacy. Respect for life calls for mutual recognition of and respect for our common dignity as persons and citizens. In recent years, the idea of civility and respectful discourse has suffered from neglect, as has the respect for human life. The renewal of both is possible and urgently necessary.

As a bishop and a citizen, I hope and pray we can create a culture that protects the most vulnerable at the beginning of life and at any time life is threatened in any way.

Remembering Fr. John Connelly

Thank you to all who gathered to remember Fr. John Connelly last Sunday. The memories and fellowship shared, the wonderful Mass, and all the help setting up honored him so well. May his brilliant mind and kind, gentle demeanor continue to inspire us all.

Sacred Heart Campus Summer Updates

The latest projects on campus have begun! The Wellan School will be renovating the third floor of the convent starting at the end of June (due for completion in mid-August). This renovation includes two brand new bathrooms on the second floor (for use by Christ Child, The Guild of St. Francis, and the Knights of Columbus!). The MacKenzie parking lot will be updated this summer during the month of July; we are hopeful that the impact on parking will be minimal. And finally, there will be a new floor installed in the MacKenzie Center (2-3 weeks beginning on Friday, June 17, see picture here). Lots of good updating going on!

Guild Coffee Hour on June 5

The Guild of St Francis is happy to report that the Coffee Hour with Paul Valley was a wonderful success! We had a good crowd size, heard a meaningful message, and enjoyed an abundance of delicious goodies!

Paul recently spent time volunteering with World Central Kitchen in Poland, by moving tons of food to where it needed to be to feed Ukrainian refugees.

Paul has such an adventurous spirit and compassionate heart that he made us remember that there are so many good people in the world. Thank you Paul!

Thank You to the Guild of St. Francis

Thank you to the Guild for the very generous donation of $5,215 to Sacred Heart. In the photo here, Guild President Pat Acton is presenting the donation to Sacred Heart through me. On behalf of all the people of Sacred Heart: Thank you Guild for this donation and for all you do for the parish!

Religious Education News: Registration

Registration Is Open! The Registration for the 2022-2023 school year has begun! Returning families have gotten information sent to them by email, and we are so eager to hear from newly-registering families who will be joining us in the fall. All information can be found online at <https://sholnewton.org/religious-education>

The registration form is online at <https://forms.office.com/r/NjBAE9Ef42>, and this is one common form for all grades and both parishes.

For Grades K-5: There are three in-person class options for elementary school students. At Sacred Heart, classes are Tuesdays 4:00-5:00pm. At Our Lady's, classes are Sundays 8:45-9:45am and Mondays 4:00-5:00pm. We also plan to offer one Grade 5 class during our Monday night (7:00-8:00pm) middle school class time at Our Lady's. Classes begin October 2-3-4.

A special note for families with students in early elementary school: preparation for First Penance and First Holy Communion is a two-year program, with both Grade 1 and Grade 2 classes required before First Communion. We also have a Kindergarten class, which is an optional but very fun introduction to faith formation classes. Students who attend Catholic School and are entering Grade 2 need to register in the parish, as sacramental preparation takes place in the parish rather than in school.

For Grades 6-8: There are two in-person class options for middle school students. At Sacred Heart, classes are Tuesdays 7:00-8:00pm. At Our Lady's, classes are Mondays 7:00-8:00pm. Classes begin October 3 & 4.

Is Open for the 2022-2023 School Year!

For Confirmation Preparation (typically Grades 9 & 10): We have made the decision to combine our two parish programs into one collaborative program, to be hosted at Our Lady's on Sunday evenings 7:00-8:15pm. Classes begin September 18 for Grade 9; October 30 for Grade 10

Please be aware that high school students who wish to celebrate Confirmation must enroll in the preparation program for two consecutive years—typically but not always Gr. 9 & 10.

Homeschool Option: We are happy to continue offering a homeschool/virtual option for those who need it (all grades except sacrament prep). It will look a bit different from the last two years, but will still include weekly lessons at home and Zoom check-ins with staff. We are also excited to add a family volunteer service component to the homeschool program!

Welcome Back! Finally, we know that the pandemic upended so much of what was normal, including faith formation and sacramental preparation. We are eager to hear from any families who may have been away from Mass and/or Religious Education for the last few years—you are so very welcome to come back! It is always a good time to draw closer to Jesus and His Church!

I WAS TIRED OF LIVING WITH MY FIBROMYALGIA PAIN

Fibromyalgia has been difficult to treat and even more difficult to understand, UNTIL NOW! Acupuncturist Min provides patients with much needed relief from Fibro symptoms!

If you're suffering from Fibromyalgia you understand this sentiment all too well. Local resident Elyse K. found herself at a turning point when she noticed her diagnosis had started to take a toll on her marriage.

"I was angry all the time because of all the things I couldn't do anymore because of my Fibromyalgia. That anger cycled through to depression and affected everyone around me, my husband more than anyone. It made our lives miserable."

Fibromyalgia affects the entire body. To make things complicated it affects everyone's body a little differently. To make things even more complicated, those effects can change on a daily basis. Sometimes you're plagued with widespread muscle pain and fatigue, and other days it's a headache and heightened sensitivity to touch.

"I could barely stand to have the light weight of bedsheets touching me, much less a hug from my husband." explains Elyse.

This is what it's like to suffer from Fibromyalgia. Symptoms make everyday life incredibly difficult. Mundane, daily tasks are nearly impossible.

And too often, these symptoms are only made worse because practitioners find it difficult to understand and even more troublesome to treat. It's characterized by widespread pain in muscles, and tissues rather than inflammation of the joints, muscles and tissues.

Then your primary care doctors suggest dietary changes, pain liniments, and, prescription medications to the point where your life is no longer ruled by Fibromyalgia. It's now ruled by a difficult routine and pill regimen that is supposed to aid in avoiding flare-ups.

Elyse put it this way,
"My life was no longer my own."

Eventually, Elyse did her own research and discovered that acupuncture can improve the quality of life in Fibro patients. Determined to find the best in the business, she discovered AWC | Acupuncture & Wellness Clinic led by Acupuncturist Min Jeon.

Min Lic. Ac has been successfully treating difficult to manage, chronic pain cases for two decades.

She uses the time-tested science of acupuncture and integrates it with modern medical advancements that encourage healing and recovery. Acupuncture is a form of Chinese medicine that is commonly used to reduce various forms of pain.

Acupuncture works by reducing inflammation, stimulating the release of endorphins, and offering much-needed, effective symptom relief for Fibromyalgia.

Then Acupuncturist Min skillfully layers other non-invasive therapies like ATP Resonance BioTherapy™ and O3 Therapy™ for amplified, long-lasting results.

"I feel like a new person. My husband comes with me to my appointments. He spends most of it thanking Acupuncturist Min for giving him back the woman he married."

And for the first time since we moved here, one of my neighbors told me I looked good! It's a miracle she treated my Fibro, I don't know how else to explain it."

If you're looking for a doctor and a practice who not only understands your diagnosis but also has a proven solution for chronic pain, look no further than AWC.

Elyse describes AWC almost as enthusiastically as she does their treatments. "I love it here!"

Acupuncturist Min's success stories can be viewed by finding AWC on Facebook, @AcupunctureClinic!

Additional information about Min Lic. Ac. and her various treatments can be found by visiting www.AWCLinic.com.

Acupuncturist Min is now accepting new patients but only for a limited time. In an effort to protect her patients, both current and future, she has made the difficult decision to limit the number of patients seen in her clinic. Call (781) 221-0162 now to schedule a consultation.

Visit www.AWCLinic.com to learn more and to take advantage of their NEW PATIENT OFFER!
