FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise." Luke 10:36-37

From Fr. Dan, Pastor

Dear Friends,

Hope you feel at home at Sacred Heart and Our Lady's. We are blessed to have you here. Thanks for coming!

"Cast your cares on God, because God cares for you." (1 Peter 5:7). One of my favorite bible verses.

God approves of rest, renewal and relaxation. I hope you are able to get some. Have a wonderful summer!

"No joy can be compared with the joy of discovering that one is very much loved by someone whom one longed to be loved by but did not dare hope that such might ever be the case. Such a thought seems to lie behind the final word of Jesus in this section (v. 11). He has "said these things" to the disciples in order that his joy may be in them and their joy complete. In other words, by sharing with them a sense of the love he receives from the Father, he is also communicating to and sharing with them a sense of the eternal joy he experiences through that reception of divine love. The ultimate goal of his saving mission then is joy: that human beings, through being drawn into the communion of love that is the godhead, may share in the joy prevailing in that communion of love. When they share to the full the "eternal life" of that communion, their joy will be "complete." – Fr. Brendan Byrne on John 15: 9-11.

"Dialogue and Friendship: Approaching, speaking, listening, looking at, coming to know and understand one another, and to find common ground: all these things are summed up in the one word "dialogue." If we want to encounter and help one another, we have to dialogue. There is no need for me to stress the benefits of dialogue. I have only to think of what our world would be like without the patient dialogue of the many generous persons who keep families and communities together. Unlike disagreement and conflict, persistent and courageous dialogue does not make headlines, but quietly helps the world to live much better than we imagine."
- Pope Francis.

"Let us pray for the elderly, that they may become teachers of tenderness so that their experience and wisdom may help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility." – Pope Francis, prayer for the month of July.

Sports: Celts made a great pickup with Malcolm Brogdon.

Happy Summer, Love & God bless you!
~Fr. Dan

July 10 - 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"… heed the voice of the LORD, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes …," Moses reminds us that we know the commandments, they are "already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out." Simply put it is to love God and love our neighbor! The Good Samaritan in the gospel parable knew in his heart what he needed to do for the wounded stranger. Living by that commandment is a challenge we strive to live each day. At the end of each day ask yourself where and to whom did I show love, mercy and kindness? What grace do I need to love God and others tomorrow? Trust and the grace will be given!

Weekday Mass Summer Schedule

This year, Fr. Dan is on his own for the weekdays in June, July, August. As a result, the weekday Mass schedule in that time is:
Monday & Tuesday, 7:00am at Our Lady's Friday & Saturday, 9:00am at Sacred Heart
This summer schedule ends on Saturday, September 3, 2022.
We will return to the regular schedule after that.
Thank you for understanding!

Racial Justice Ministry Meeting

All are welcome to the next Racial Justice Ministry meeting on Monday, July 11, 7:30-9:00pm, on Zoom. We continue to follow the Just Faith Ministry curriculum on Faith and Racial Equity. All are welcome! Please contact Lija Joseph at lijjoseph@gmail.com with questions. https://us05web.zoom.us/j/5739347100?pwd=UTJaNVp5QXgwZ2t3UDBReWRnTVBRUT09

Support for the SHOL Racial Justice Ministry

The Sacred Heart & Our Lady's Racial Justice Ministry, which was started by a group of parishioners, began meeting twice a month over a year and a half ago to promote true equality and equity of human beings within the Catholic Church and the world. Shortly thereafter, we were fortunate to have Deanna Morgan, who earned a Master's of Christian Education at Princeton Theological Seminary, volunteer to lead the group. By use of media, guest speakers, books, and action to be taken, members of the group immersed themselves in non-white cultures and began to confront the sin of racism.

In October 2021, the Ministry held a virtual Racial Justice Retreat entitled "Awaken to Racism", attended by over 50 SHOL parishioners and others from local parishes. This retreat, with guest speakers and discussions that followed, was the first of its kind and one that we hope to have annually. Currently, we are following the curriculum for "Faith and Racial Healing: Embracing Truth, Justice, and Restoration" created by Just Faith Ministries. The group meets once a month on Zoom, and all members of the parishes are welcome to join. This new curriculum requires the use of books and Session Guides that are needed to address race and racism from a spiritual perspective.

In order to fund these programs for our parishes, we are asking for support from current participants, those who would like to become involved, and those who believe this is a worthwhile ministry. You can greatly help by making a donation by check payable to either Sacred Heart Church or Our Lady Help of Christians Church, with "SHOL Racial Justice Ministry" in the memo line, and then dropping it off or mailing it to the office. For those unable to contribute financially, we welcome your prayers for the Racial Justice Ministry. Thank you. Please contact Lija at lijjoseph@gmail.com with questions.

Term ending June 2025
hannahmaysmith51@gmail.com

I am a lifelong resident of Waltham. I attended Our Lady Comforter of the Afflicted grammar school and Trinity Catholic High School here at the parish, where I was a member of the last graduating class in 2012. I received my Bachelor's Degree from the College of the Holy Cross and started volunteering here at Our Lady's in Newton as a catechist with the Religious Ed program shortly after college. I have taught first grade (in-person) and second grade (on Zoom!) classes over the past four years. I work in Sales Enablement for a global company based in Boston, and I am an avid Red Sox fan. I'm looking forward to serving as a new member of the Pastoral Council.

If you would like to earn some volunteer hours or you simply want to learn how to grow your own food, feel free to drop by! Contact Jared for our July dates.

Msgr. Dennis Sheehan
Homily Given on July 11, 2010
Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time—Liturgical Year C

So – let me ask you: where are we at the end of Jesus' story? "Go and do likewise," Jesus has told us. Is he serious? If we answered every need, if we got involved with every suffering, we'd end up exhausted, much like the robbed and beaten traveler.

Well, look again. Is there a way to be the Samaritan without burning ourselves out? Let's take a look. First, the Samaritan sees the wounded victim. Then, we are told, he is moved with pity. Finally, he does what he can to help.

Consider, for a moment, each of these responses. First, the Samaritan sees. He doesn't glance and then turn away. He doesn't see a hated Jew. He doesn't see someone who took foolish risks and got caught. Instead, he sees another human being. He sees the best and most important aspect of who the man is, not a Jew or fool or undeserving risk taker.

Then, we're told, the Samaritan is moved by pity. It comes from his gut, rises from within his deepest self. The Samaritan here is an image of God, the God who is moved by human pain and sorrow, the God who suffers along with the suffering.

Finally, the Samaritan does what he can. Compassion is costly. Here it cost the Samaritan time, effort, and money.

But back to the question. Am I called to answer every need? No, obviously. But on a regular basis, we are called to see one need at a time, one suffering soul or situation. We're not called to help everybody. We're called to help somebody.

The scene is in New York City on a stormy bitter-cold winter day. It's evening and a well-dressed man is rushing to catch his train. He spies a little girl, painfully thin, too lightly clothed with a sad, desperate, lonely expression. She's alone, probably hungry, certainly cold. He passes by. On the train, he can't banish the image of the girl. He gets angry, then angrier. In a silent cry, he yells to God: "Why don't you do something for her?" Then, as if from nowhere, the voice within speaks to the man: "I did do something for her. I made you."

"Go and do likewise." See. Be moved. Act. By God's grace, we can all be neighbor to someone. For that opportunity today at the altar, let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

Homily reflections are also available each week online at www.sholnewton.org/godeeper.

June 24, 2022: Cardinal Seán O'Malley Statement regarding Supreme Court Ruling in Dobbs v. Jackson

For all of us who have spoken, written, worked, marched, and prayed to reverse Roe v. Wade, today's Supreme Court decision in Dobbs v. Jackson is deeply significant and encouraging. This decision will create the possibility of protecting human life from conception; it calls us to recognize the unique burden faced by women in pregnancy; and it challenges us as a nation to work together to build up more communities of support — and available access to them — for all women experiencing unplanned pregnancies.

During the past half-century, as the abortion debate continued, the Catholic Church has often been accused of imposing a religious belief on our pluralistic society. It is indeed the case that, when addressing the Catholic community, the Church has used both religious and moral arguments to oppose abortion. But when engaging the wider American civil society, elected officials, and our legal system, the Church has defended human life from its inception as a matter of human rights. Our continued efforts in advocating our position on the protection of unborn children is consistent with our advocacy for issues affecting the dignity of all persons at all stages and in all circumstances of life. The Church employs this principle of consistency in addressing issues of race, poverty, and human rights generally. It is a position that presents a moral argument as a foundation for law and policy to protect human life.

I welcome the Court's decision, but I do not underestimate how profoundly divisive the issue of abortion has been and will continue to be in our public life. Even more tragic has been the personal suffering of women facing unplanned pregnancies in difficult situations. The Church has consistently opposed the moral and legal dimensions of Roe v. Wade; we also adamantly reject stigmatizing, criminalizing, judging or shaming women who have had abortions or are considering them. Too often isolated and desperate, women have felt they had no other choice. They need and deserve spiritual, emotional, and material support from the Church and from society.

In the Archdiocese of Boston, we have sought, through Project Rachel and Pregnancy Help, to support women facing a crisis pregnancy and women whose lives have been impacted by an abortion. In addition, the Church offers the Lord's boundless mercy and healing to those suffering from the spiritual harms of abortion. In the face of recent statistics indicating an increase in abortions, our pastoral and social support for women will continue, will be welcoming, and will be available to all who need them.

Today's Supreme Court decision begins a new chapter in our legislative and legal forums as the public debates about abortion will not end. Since 1973, there has been continuing opposition to Roe v. Wade's reasoning and its consequences. Those consequences have permeated the political, legal, and social fabric of American life. The radical character of the Roe decision catalyzed some of the deepest reactions and responses to any issue in our nation's history. The public arguments will now shift to the states, the Congress, and the courts. It is my hope that this new chapter may be a time of a different tone and focus in our civic life.

First, we must adopt a wider vision of the multiple threats to human life in our society today. The recognition that human life begins with conception and continues through natural death. All human life deserves moral and legal protection at all times. Protection of life should be comprehensive, not selective. The Church, in its own positions, should reflect this wider vision, and we are called to engage our civil society around this more holistic view of the value and dignity of human life. It is commonly recognized by those on both sides of the abortion debate that conditions of poverty and injustice have been and are today a major factor contributing to abortions. Those who have opposed and supported Roe can and should find common ground for a renewed commitment to social and economic justice in our country.

Second, protecting human life at all times can only succeed if we rediscover the value of civility in discourse, in protest, and in policy advocacy. Respect for life calls for mutual recognition of and respect for our common dignity as persons and citizens. In recent years, the idea of civility and respectful discourse has suffered from neglect, as has the respect for human life. The renewal of both is possible and urgently necessary.

As a bishop and a citizen, I hope and pray we can create a culture that protects the most vulnerable at the beginning of life and at any time life is threatened in any way.

Cardinal Seán P. O'Malley
Archbishop of Boston

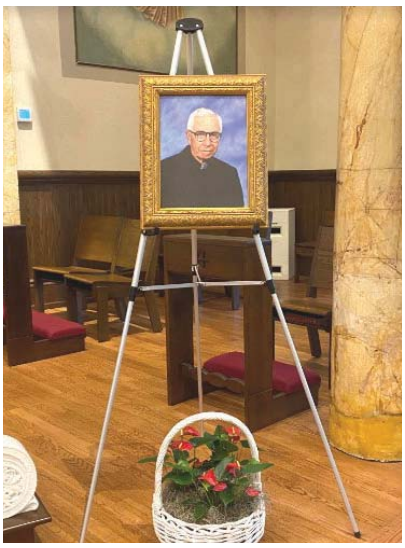
Remembering Fr. John Connelly

Thank you to all who gathered to remember Fr. John Connelly on Sunday, June 26. The memories and fellowship shared, the wonderful Mass, and all the help setting up honored him so well. May his brilliant mind and kind, gentle demeanor continue to inspire us all.



Guild Coffee Hour on June 5

The Guild of St Francis is happy to report that the Coffee Hour with Paul Valley was a wonderful success! We had a good crowd size, heard a meaningful message, and enjoyed an abundance of delicious goodies!

Paul recently spent time volunteering with World Central Kitchen in Poland, by moving tons of food to where it needed to be to feed Ukrainian refugees.

Paul has such an adventurous spirit and compassionate heart that he made us remember that there are so many good people in the world. Thank you Paul!

Thank You to the Guild of St. Francis

Thank you to the Guild for the very generous donation of $5,215 to Sacred Heart. In the photo here, Guild President Pat Acton is presenting the donation to Sacred Heart through me. On behalf of all the people of Sacred Heart: Thank you Guild for this donation and for all you do for the parish! – Fr. Dan

Sacred Heart Campus Summer Updates

The latest projects on campus have begun! The Wellan School will be renovating the third floor of the convent starting at the end of June (due for completion in mid-August). This renovation includes two brand new bathrooms on the second floor (for use by Christ Child, The Guild of St. Francis, and the Knights of Columbus!). The MacKenzie parking lot will be updated this summer during the month of July; we are hopeful that the impact on parking will be minimal. And finally, there will be a new floor installed in the MacKenzie Center (2-3 weeks beginning on Friday, June 17, see picture here). Lots of good updating going on!

Religious Education News: Registration

Registration Is Open! The Registration for the 2022-2023 school year has begun! Returning families have gotten information sent to them by email, and we are so eager to hear from newly-registering families who will be joining us in the fall. All information can be found online at https://sholnewton.org/religious-education

The registration form is online at https://forms.office.com/r/NjBAE9Ef42, and this is one common form for all grades and both parishes.

For Grades K-5: There are three in-person class options for elementary school students. At Sacred Heart, classes are Tuesdays 4:00-5:00pm. At Our Lady's, classes are Sundays 8:45-9:45am and Mondays 4:00-5:00pm. We also plan to offer one Grade 5 class during our Monday night (7:00-8:00pm) middle school class time at Our Lady's. Classes begin October 2-3-4.

A special note for families with students in early elementary school: preparation for First Penance and First Holy Communion is a two-year program, with both Grade 1 and Grade 2 classes required before First Communion. We also have a Kindergarten class, which is an optional but very fun introduction to faith formation classes. Students who attend Catholic School and are entering Grade 2 need to register in the parish, as sacramental preparation takes place in the parish rather than in school.

For Grades 6-8: There are two in-person class options for middle school students. At Sacred Heart, classes are Tuesdays 7:00-8:00pm. At Our Lady's, classes are Mondays 7:00-8:00pm. Classes begin October 3 & 4.

Is Open for the 2022-2023 School Year!

For Confirmation Preparation (typically Grades 9 & 10): We have made the decision to combine our two parish programs into one collaborative program, to be hosted at Our Lady's on Sunday evenings 7:00-8:15pm. Classes begin September 18 for Grade 9; October 30 for Grade 10

Please be aware that high school students who wish to celebrate Confirmation must enroll in the preparation program for two consecutive years—typically but not always Gr. 9 & 10.

Homeschool Option: We are happy to continue offering a homeschool/virtual option for those who need it (all grades except sacrament prep). It will look a bit different from the last two years, but will still include weekly lessons at home and Zoom check-ins with staff. We are also excited to add a family volunteer service component to the homeschool program!

Welcome Back! Finally, we know that the pandemic upended so much of what was normal, including faith formation and sacramental preparation. We are eager to hear from any families who may have been away from Mass and/or Religious Education for the last few years—you are so very welcome to come back! It is always a good time to draw closer to Jesus and His Church!

IT'S LIFE CHANGING

Finally! A local practitioner is helping cancer survivors live lives free from the constant pain and suffering associated with Peripheral Neuropathy!

Irreversible is not a word you want to hear from your Doctor but it's a common one if you've been diagnosed with Chemotherapy-Induced Peripheral Neuropathy or CIPN.

Elliott S. of Burlington survived testicular cancer only to be living life in constant pain. He felt as though he were walking on pins and needles, becoming weaker and weaker every day. "I was beginning to be worried that one day I would be wheelchair-bound."

Nearly half of patients who undergo chemotherapy will develop Chemotherapy-Induced Peripheral Neuropathy or CIPN.

Chemotherapy meds travel throughout the body and attack cancer cells; sadly they can also cause severe damage to healthy nerves. CIPN can begin within weeks of starting treatment and can worsen as treatment continues. A high number of really unfortunate people will be forced to endure the symptoms associated with CIPN for months or even years after they've completed chemo.

When asked how CIPN was affecting his quality of life, he responded, "It was difficult to even walk up and downstairs and do other things we usually take for granted."

The most common symptoms include:

- pain, tingling, burning, weakness, or numbness in arms, hands, legs or feet
- sudden, sharp, stabbing or shocking pain sensations
- loss of touch sensation
- clumsiness and trouble using hands to pick up objects or fasten clothing
- loss of balance and falling

For some, their nerves will recover over time. For most, the nerve damage is 'irreversible.' Elliott had been told just that by a series of Doctors and specialists. Essentially they could cure his cancer but couldn't fix the damage done by the drugs used to cure his cancer.

Then Elliott made a call to Acupuncturist Min Jeon of AWC|Acupuncture & Wellness Clinic right here in Burlington, MA. Acupuncturist Min Jeon is using the time-tested science of Acupuncture and technology originally developed by NASA that assists in increasing blood flow and expediting recovery and healing to treat this debilitating disease.

After a series of treatments, Elliott was taking stairs with stride!

"We have a house and it has stairs. This morning I walked right down the stairs and got in the car," Elliot shared.

"I remember thinking, 'that's become mighty easy for me', I didn't have to hold on to the handrail or anything! It's life-changing to have this mobility back!"

Again and again, we meet with patients who were once diagnosed as "untreatable" or "incurable" but after receiving Min Jeon's treatments are now living lives free from pain and suffering. For over 20 years she has been reversing the effects of CIPN and other varieties of Peripheral Neuropathy, including that caused by diabetes without invasive surgeries and medications that come with uncomfortable side effects.

If you've recently beat cancer only to find that you're living a life in constant pain and discomfort or you're struggling with the same symptoms as a result of either Idiopathic Neuropathy or Diabetic Peripheral Neuropathy, Acupuncturist Min Jeon and the incredible team at AWC can help!

Min Jeon Lic. Ac. D.Ac is now accepting new patients but only for a limited time. In an effort to protect her patients, both current and future, she has made the difficult decision to limit the number of patients seen in her clinic. Call (781) 221-0162 now to schedule a consultation.
