From Fr. Dan, Pastor

Dear Friends,

Welcome, Benvenuto, Bienvenido, Bienvenue, Bem-vindo, Hoan nghênh, Witaj, Tuloy po kayo, Willkommen, Byenveni, Céad míle fáilte. We are glad you are here! (Happy to add to other languages.)

Jesus loves us both: (1) as we are, and (2) he loves what we can become. (1) Jesus loves us “warts and all,” and (2) he loves us so much he wants to help us become the best version of our ourselves.

“We do not believe that God loves us because we are good, but that God will make us good because He loves us.” —C.S. Lewis

Pope Leo on war, nuclear weapons, and the need to work for peace. In his January 9, 2026, address to the Diplomatic Corps, Pope Leo lamented that: “War is back in vogue and a zeal for war is spreading.” (A similar point is made by the Bulletin of Atomic Scientists who on January 27, 2026, adjusted the “Doomsday Clock” to one that indicates a very worrying increased threat of nuclear war.) In his address, the Pope opposed the idea that “peace is only possible through the use of force and deterrence.” This echoes the Church’s teaching that the ultimate end we seek is a world free of nuclear weapons.

“Be grateful for what you already have while you pursue your goals. If you aren’t grateful for what you already have, what makes you think you would be happy with more.”

Pope Leo on persecution of Christians: It cannot be overlooked that the persecution of Christians remains one of the most widespread human rights crises today, affecting over 380 million believers worldwide. They suffer high or extreme levels of discrimination, violence and oppression because of their faith. This phenomenon impinges on approximately one in seven Christians globally, and it worsened in 2025 due to ongoing conflicts, authoritarian regimes and religious extremism. Sadly, all of this demonstrates that religious freedom is considered in many contexts more as a “privilege” or concession than a fundamental human right.

“All of you should be like-minded, sympathetic, loving toward one another, kindly disposed, and humble. Do not return evil for evil or insult for insult. Return a blessing instead. This you have been called to do, that you may receive a blessing as your inheritance.” —1 Peter 3:8-9

Sports: As I write this, my computer tells me it is Pats 7-3 vs. Houston. Sure hope we beat them and the Broncos!

Love & God bless you!
Fr. Dan (written 1/18/2026, 4PM)

February 1: 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our gospel today presents the beatitudes. In them, Jesus describes a way of living or what we might call a beatitude spirit. To those caught up in worldly values or overwhelmed with circumstances that seem beyond control, these beatitudes can appear unrealistic or of little relevance to our lives. However, we can offer mercy, or be a peacemaker, or live a chaste and pure life or withstand insult because of our faith and love of Christ. We need to imitate Christ, whose very life exemplified each of the beatitudes. This week, ask for the grace to be open to making the beatitudes the way you live your discipleship.

Explaining the Mass: February 1

Have you ever wanted to know more about the Mass? Curious about the meaning and significance of different sections or prayers in the Mass? On Sunday, February 1, at the Sacred Heart 9:30am Mass and the Our Lady's 10:00am and 6:00pm Masses, we will be explaining the Mass throughout the liturgy with 10 one-minute explanations. We hope that this exercise allows you to enter more deeply into the source and summit of our faith! Questions about the Mass? Contact any of the staff.

Workcamp Pancake Breakfast

The Workcamps invite everyone to join them on Sunday morning, February 8, in Our Lady's Lower Hall for a Mardi Gras pancake breakfast fundraiser. This event is free with donations gladly accepted, which will support the Workcamp trip to western Maryland in summer 2026. With questions, please contact Jared at jblake@sholnewton.org

Adoration and Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

Come, let us worship Christ the Lord! First Fridays, 6:00-7:00pm, Adoration and Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at Sacred Heart Lower Church. This is spearheaded by the Youth Group and the Young Adults Ministry but open to all ages in the Collaborative. Silent reflection, meditation, and soulful songs will fill the sacred space for an hour. The next date is Friday, February 6. For further information, please contact Jared at jblake@sholnewton.org or Leslee at lambrosio@sholnewton.org. We can't wait to worship with you!

St. Vincent de Paul Appeal: Help Support the Community

"For want of a nail, the shoe was lost. For want of a shoe, the horse was lost...." Many of us know this old English proverb, and the Society of St. Vincent de Paul is all too familiar with its real-life examples. SVDP recently helped a Neighbor who suddenly faced necessary car repairs. Without a car she couldn't get to work, and without work she couldn't afford rent. Our rental assistance afforded her the ability to pay for the car repairs so she could resume work and support her family.

This past year we provided nearly $50,000 in food, clothing, and housing-related assistance to Neighbors in your community. We need your help to continue our work. If you are able to make a donation, please send a check, made out to Saint Vincent de Paul Society, to the Our Lady's parish office or scan the QR code to use PayPal. Your generosity will have a positive, direct, and immediate impact on the lives of Neighbors in your community. More information can be found at www.sholnewton.org/SVDP. Thank you for your support!

Men's Group: Welcoming New Members

This group of men comes together to explore ways of finding and making the Lord more present in their lives. They share their Catholic faith and their struggles, and they discuss matters of faith focused on developing and strengthening their spirituality as Christian men. A confidential and supportive environment is fostered. Coming together is supportive, as there are areas in our lives where each would like to be more Christlike and ponder what that would look like. Readings, reflections and sharing of life's experiences make up the meeting format. Each meeting has a topic for reflection and discussion format.

The Men's Group meets on the first and third Tuesdays (note: this is a change and correction to previous bulletins that stated the meetings are on Wednesdays) of each month in Our Lady's Parish Office at 7:00 pm. If you are interested in checking out the group or getting more information, please contact David Poles at 617-981-1186. New members are welcome!

Christ Child Society Valentine Toddler Clothing Drive (February 7-15)

The Christ Child Society of Greater Boston has been an important ministry at Sacred Heart Parish for decades. We have recently completed our annual Christmas Clothing/Gift Drive for 257 children, mostly children in Catholic Charities daycare programs. Each child received a warm winter jacket, mittens, and a hat, as well as small gifts!

Recently, we have been asked by Boston Archdiocesan Pro Life Social Workers for help. When they visit a mom with a new baby, bringing loving support as well as a beautiful layette, they are often aware of other young children in the home. Will you help us collect new warm toddler clothing so they can surprise the other children as well?

Shop for size 2T to 5T items: pajamas, sweatshirts, pants, tops, slippers, socks, outfits! Shop now while there are winter sales going on! Bring items February 7-15 to the Sacred Heart church entrances, where there will be collection bins. For additional information, contact Kathie at kathielong44@gmail.com

Inclement Weather Policy

During the week, if Newton Public Schools are closed or have a delayed opening, the morning Mass or Communion service will be cancelled. If Newton Public Schools are closed, both parish offices will also be closed. For weekends or holidays, please check the cancellations list on local TV and radio stations. You can also call either of the parish offices at 617-969-2248 or 617-527-7560 (the greeting will have information) or check the collaborative website. This policy is for the safety of those who attend Mass and also allows for the clearing of the parking lots, walkways, and stairs. Remember, we each have a duty to keep ourselves and our family safe.

If the scheduled Mass has an announced intention and is cancelled, the intention will be rescheduled to the next available Mass.

When possible, someone will notify those who are scheduled to serve at Mass. For Our Lady's, if you are scheduled to serve at Mass but find you are personally unable to attend due to the weather, please call 617-527-7560 ext. 270 and leave a message.

Deacon Bill Koffel: Homily Given on January 24, 2026 Annual Mass for Life

Welcome to this year's Mass for Life. Over the 18 years that we have been gathering to affirm the right to life of every human person, from the time of conception to the time of natural death, we have looked at different threats to life, including those posed by abortion and physician-assisted suicide, among others.

Earlier this month, Pope Leo addressed the Vatican diplomatic corps outlining a truly moral foundation for international relations. He reiterated Catholic teaching that "the protection of the right to life constitutes the indispensable foundation for every other human right," and that abortion and euthanasia are destructive of that right.

Pope Leo also pointed to the need for international aid to safeguard the most central elements of human dignity, and he lamented the reduction or elimination of humanitarian foreign assistance programs by wealthy nations.

This year, Pope Leo and the Catholic Bishops have turned our attention to the plight of immigrants, including the evolving situation impacting immigrants in the United States. Two months ago, on November 12, 2025, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops issued a two-page "Special Message" on Immigration. It was the first time in twelve years that they have issued such a message. In a vote of 216 votes in favor, 5 votes against, and 3 abstentions, the bishops overwhelmingly approved the Special Message, with sustained applause following the vote.

The bishops recognize that nations have a responsibility to regulate their borders and establish a just and orderly immigration system for the sake of the common good. But they have identified specific areas of concern regarding our present situation. I urge you to watch a four-minute YouTube video produced by the bishops. Just search for "U.S. Bishops Special Message video".

Richard Henning, Boston's archbishop, read the first of the bishops' concerns, and Cardinal Séan appears at the end of the video.

I won't read all the concerns, but they begin by saying that they are disturbed when they see among their people a climate of fear and anxiety around questions of profiling and immigration enforcement. They're saddened by the vilification of immigrants. They're concerned about the conditions in detention centers. They're grieved when they meet parents who fear being detained when they take their children to school.

The bishops have launched an initiative called "You Are Not Alone." Its purpose is to stand in solidarity with immigrants by offering hope, accompaniment, and practical support to immigrants and their families facing fear and instability due to the current situation.

Catholic Charities of Boston works to implement that program, and others, through its office of Refugee and Immigrant Services. I spoke this week to the Vice President of this group, a long-time advocate for immigrants. Our parishes have worked with her on resettling families from Africa and Central America. We spoke about the many challenges her group is facing. 50% of the staff that served refugees and immigrants were laid off due to terminated contracts. Despite the loss of contracts for serving refugees, her team has doubled down on their efforts to provide comprehensive legal services to immigrants who are being unjustly detained and need representation to retain their legal status.

The bishops concluded their Special Message on immigration with a note of gratitude to the many people who already accompany and assist immigrants in meeting their basic human needs. They pray that the Lord may guide the leaders of our nation as we advocate for meaningful immigration reform.

Finally, they remind us of the words of St. Paul to the Romans: "As disciples of the Lord, we remain men and women of hope, and hope does not disappoint!" (Romans 5:5)

Thank you for being here to continue giving witness to the dignity of all human life.

Confirmation Age Change: Please visit <https://sholnewton.org/confirmation-age-change> to learn about how we are transitioning to Grade 8 Confirmation.

Fall Overview: In Grades K-1 and 3-7, our students use the Pflaum Gospel Weekly program to meet Jesus in the Gospel and to learn about the beauty of our Catholic faith. What we hear in Mass on Sundays we then learn about in class on Sundays, Mondays, and Tuesdays! Every student, no matter the grade, hears the same Gospel. It is truly a gift to learn from Jesus each week in class!

Our First Penance and First Communion students celebrated the Sacrament of Penance in early December. Now in the new year, they are moving into their First Communion preparation book and getting so excited for the celebration to come in the spring. Please continue to keep them in your prayers.

Confirmation classes: our Confirmation candidates in Grades 8 and up are using the Pflaum program "Gifted with the Spirit" as they prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation in the spring. This program presents the beauty of our Catholic faith while giving students time for conversation and reflection about their own personal relationship with Jesus.

Thank you for keeping our Confirmation Candidates in your prayers as they prepare for this sacrament, to be celebrated in May 2026.

Pictures: We are always so grateful for the many ways our young people serve during Mass: as greeters, gift bearers, lectors, cantors and choir members, and altar servers. We are so proud!
