Sixth Sunday of Easter

May 26, 2019

Fifth Sunday After Easter (Traditional Latin Mass)

Dear Friends and Parishioners.

Thank you for your generous contributions during Easter Week! We deeply appreciate every gift. We are working hard to improve St. Agnes and still have major projects ahead of us. They include:

- Sound system repairs in the church $45,000
- Elevator upgrade (required by the City of NY) $50,000
- Our beautiful pipe organ needs $46,000 in repairs, including parts
- We're currently assessing the heat/AC units. A total replacement, which is ideal, is too expensive. However, regular repairs and maintenance add up to thousands of dollars every year. We want the faithful to always have a comfortable place to pray. Whatever the outcome, this project will be a financial investment that we will have to address and we'll need your support.

St. Agnes is like a large home, with many things that need attention and cannot be neglected. We rely on Mass collections for our monthly expenses, but run at a deficit every month. This is why we ask for extra help with large projects though second collections. Please know that all expenses are carefully prioritized so that St. Agnes can be a clean, safe, enjoyable space.

As Ascension Thursday and Pentecost (the end of the Easter Season) approach, please pray to St. Agnes, as well as our Blessed Mother, asking their intercession for our church as we strive to work through these financial challenges.

Yours in Christ, Fr. Michael

Easter Gifts for 2019: $35,774.90 Thank you!

We will have our regular confession schedule and the bookstore will be open from 11:30am-6:30pm that day. Stop in!

Pope says Blessed Guadalupe Ortiz Inspires "Normal" Holiness

The Catholic Church has a new Blessed: the Spanish chemist and researcher Guadalupe Ortiz de Landázuri (1916-1975). A member of Opus Dei, Blessed Ortiz de Landázuri was beatified in a ceremony presided over by Cardinal Becciu, prefect of the Congregation of the Causes of the Saints, held in Madrid on May 18th, 2019. Following the solemn rite of beatification, the image of the new blessed was unveiled and her relics brought to the altar, carried by both her relatives and also relatives of the man reportedly cured through her intercession, Antonio Sedano.

Pope Francis wanted to unite himself to the "joy and thanksgiving" for the beatification of Guadalupe Ortiz. In a letter addressed to the Prelate of Opus Dei, the Holy Father says Guadalupe Ortiz de Landázuri, "put her many human and spiritual qualities at the service of
