Reflecting on God's Word

TOO LITTLE Today's first reading reveals the Lord's super-sized heart. "It is too little," according to God, to protect and guide only the tribes of Jacob. The enormity of God's love cannot limit itself to one nation; divine love overflows, spilling liberally over all people everywhere. Isaiah, prophet of the long-suffering Israelites, might have been surprised to hear that the salvation of his people is not enough for God. But God always wants more than what we want. God's passion outstrips all of our deepest desires. We are merely creatures. Compared to the hugeness of our Creator's designs, we will always want too little, have too little, know too little, love too little. This littleness frustrates us throughout life. But exactly when we admit our littleness, we make room for Christ.

NEVER TOO LATE John the Baptist models for us the grace of littleness. Twice in today's Gospel reading, John admits, "I did not know." Even though John has ordered his entire life toward the goal of preparing the world for the Messiah, he does not, on his own, recognize Christ when he sees him. The Gospel insists John "did not know" Jesus; in his humility, John relies entirely on God for direction. John waits and waits—baptizing, praying, preaching—until, finally, the Holy Spirit reveals the Messiah.

John had waited his whole life for this confirmation from the Spirit. God's chosen people, the Israelites, had waited much, much longer. Surely many wondered if God would ever send the Messiah as promised. But God is never late. In our littleness, we cannot see the arc of all human history with God's clarity and love. Each of us aches deeply for some good thing: a cure, a resolution, a rest, a fair break. When we are made to wait for what seems obviously beneficial, we sometimes wonder if God is really as all -powerful and all-loving as people say. Today's readings invite us to trust.

Reflexionemos sobre la Palabra de Dios

DEMASIADO POCO La primera lectura de hoy muestra el corazón súper grande del Señor. "Es demasiado poco", de acuerdo a Dios, proteger y guiar sólo a las tribus de Jacob. La magnitud del amor de Dios no puede limitarse a sí mismo para una nación; el amor divino se desborda, derramándose generosamente en todas las personas en todas partes. Isaías, el profeta sufriente de los israelitas, podría haberse sorprendido de escuchar que la salvación de su pueblo no era suficiente para Dios. Pero Dios siempre quiere más de lo que nosotros queremos. La pasión de Dios supera todos nuestros deseos más profundos. Somos simplemente creaturas. Comparado con la inmensidad de los designios de nuestro Creador, siempre querremos demasiado poco, tenemos demasiado poco, sabemos demasiado poco, amamos demasiado poco. Esta escasez nos frustra a lo largo de la vida. Pero exactamente cuando admitimos nuestra escasez, hacemos espacio para Cristo.

NUNCA ES TARDE Juan el Bautista modela para nosotros la gracia de la pequeñez. En el Evangelio de hoy, dos veces Juan admite "no lo conozco". Aunque Juan había ordenado toda su vida hacia la meta de preparar el mundo para el Mesías, él no, por su cuenta, reconoce a Cristo cuando lo ve. El Evangelio insiste Juan, "no conoce" a Jesús; con humildad, Juan confía plenamente en Dios por consejo. Juan espera y espera bautizando, orando, predicando, hasta que finalmente, el Espíritu Santo le revela al Mesías.

Juan había esperado toda su vida por esta confirmación del Espíritu. El pueblo elegido de Dios, los israelitas habían esperado demasiado, mucho más. Seguramente muchos se preguntaban si Dios llegaría a enviar al Mesías como lo había prometido. Pero a Dios nunca se le hace tarde. En nuestra pequeñez, no podemos ver el arco de la historia humana con la claridad y amor de Dios. Cada uno de nosotros ansia profundamente por algunas cosas buenas: una sanación, una decisión, un apoyo, un justo descanso. Cuando se nos hace esperar por lo que parece un beneficio obvio, algunas veces preguntamos si Dios es en realidad todopoderoso y lleno de amor, así como la gente dice. Las lecturas de hoy nos invitan a confiar.

Respect Life 2020

For the past 2 years, St Cyril has been involved with the Respect Life Initiative "Stand and Pray", joining the group of churches that take a day to stand and pray at the largest abortion facility in the Western hemisphere, Gulf Coast Planned Parenthood, one of the two facilities in Houston which performs late term abortions. We have witnessed women change their minds, exit Planned Parenthood, go across the street to the Mobile Crisis Pregnancy Center, and choose life for their babies. We would like to repeat the appeal again this year, as well as to encourage those who cannot join us outdoors, to participate in the monthly Holy Hour sponsored by the Knights of Columbus, knowing that prayer changes hearts and changed hearts choose life. For more information, email Mary Kleypas at mkleypas@gmail.com.

La iglesia de San Cirilo se ha involucrado desde hace dos años en la iniciativa de respeto hacia la vida: "Ponte de pie y Reza", uniéndose al grupo de iglesias que toman un día para ponerse de pie y rezar, en una de las instalaciones de aborto más grandes del hemisferio Oeste, Planned Parenthood de la Costa del Golfo, una de las dos instalaciones que hay en Houston y que realiza abortos tardíos. Hemos presenciado cuando muchas mujeres cambian de opinión y salen de Planned Parenthood, cruzan la calle hacía el Centro Móvil de Crisis de Embarazo y eligen la vida para sus bebés. Nos gustaría repetir la apelación nuevamente este año y también alentar a aquellos que no pueden unirse a nosotros al aire libre, a que participen en la Hora Santa que patrocina los Caballeros de Colón, sabiendo que la oración cambia corazones a que elijan la vida. Para más información favor de enviar u correo electrónico a Mary Kleypas mkleypas@gmail.com.

El Viñedo de Raquel: La Oficina de Actividades Pro-Vida ofrecerá de nuevo el retiro El Viñedo de Raquel para mujeres y hombres que sufren después del aborto voluntario.
