The sacrament of Matrimony signifies the union of Christ and the Church. It gives spouses the grace to love each other with the love with which Christ has loved his Church; the grace of the sacrament thus perfects the human love of the spouses, strengthens their indissoluble unity, and sanctifies them on the way to eternal life. (CCC 1661)

Lifelong Union: The bond of marriage is meant to be permanent: "What God has joined together, let no one separate" (Mark 10:9).

Love and Fidelity: Spouses vow to love, honor, and remain faithful to each other for life.

Openness to Life: Married couples are called to be open to the gift of children and to raise them in the faith.

Grace from God: Through the sacrament, God gives couples grace to live out their vocation with love, patience, and sacrifice., even in difficult times.

Reflects Christ's love for the Church: Marriage symbolizes the union between Christ and His Church. Just as Christ is faithful to His Church, spouses are called to be faithful to one another

TO BE A VALID CATHOLIC MARRIAGE:

Free consent: Both individuals must freely and knowingly choose to marry.

Intention of permanence, fidelity, and openness to children.

Canonical Form: A valid marriage according to canonical form is one that is celebrated in accordance with the laws of the Catholic Church. This implies that the ceremony must be performed before a priest or deacon delegated and two witnesses, and that the contracting parties must freely express their matrimonial consent. At least one of the contracting parties must have been BAPTIZED in the Catholic faith for the sacrament to be valid.
