Pentecost Sunday: May 20

For all those who generously share their unique gifts so that as a parish community we carry on the work of Jesus Christ. “There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.”

1 Corinthians 12:4-6

All of us are blessed, regardless of our own individual circumstances; God has given each of us many gifts. How we use those gifts is our gift back to God. For God’s plan to work, each must do what we are called to do and guess what – we are not all called to do the same thing!

Message from the desk of the Pastor

My dear people of God,

Today is the Feast of Pentecost which recalls the descent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles in the form of a roaring wind and tongues of fire. The coming of the Spirit on that first day of Pentecost was the beginning of his permanent presence in the church. By virtue of our baptism, the Holy Spirit is closer to us than we dare imagine. Wherever there are hearts open to receive him, the Spirit of God is poured out, inspiring minds to undertake their mission as Christ's representatives. This feast brings home to us that God calls us to a deeper relationship with him and wants us to share in his life. It is an invitation to enkindle the fire of love and to stir up the grace of our baptismal calling. We do not always know when the Spirit moves us, yet we are frequently surprised by the power that drives us into action.

As we face trials and crosses and encounter the difficulties and disappointments which can leave daily lives in tatters, we stand in need of the help of the Holy Spirit, whose presence makes such a difference to our outlook. Christ has promised that the power of the Spirit will come if we ask for him.

Today is the birthday of the Church. A time for us to celebrate who we are and to rediscover what it means to be the people of God. Down through the centuries the Holy Spirit has guided the church, despite the weaknesses of its members. We have the witness of many generous and heroic people who have been led by the Spirit and whose lives have given eloquent testimony to the power of God at work in them.

On this Pentecost Sunday, we thank God for the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Happy Birthday Church—

May God bless you all.

*Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Joseph*

distributing bottles for the annual Baby Bottle Boomerang fundraiser, in support of the Pregnancy Help Center of Brazoria County. The fundraiser runs from Mother's Day through Father's Day. It's not too late to participate. Bottles are available from Catholic Daughters in the back of church after weekend masses.

We encourage you to take a bottle home and over the next few weeks, to fill it with loose change (bills and checks made out to PHC are okay, too). Any amount is welcome.

If you still have a PHC bottle from previous years, you may continue to use it and turn it in by Father's Day.

PHC has been expanding into other areas. They were invited to make a presentation to freshmen students at Brazoswood High School. The presentation is called "Free to Be Me", and is about making good choices based on the whole person, rather than based on emotions or peer pressure. One of our Catholic Daughters, Carol Peltier, was one of the presenters.

Kylie's Corner

Yes, Adam's one sin brings condemnation, but Christ's one act of righteousness brings a right relationship with God and new life for everyone.

Romans 5:18

Every day, I think about how I can't wait to actually love my life and just have my life together after college. There are so many things I pray to God for. For example, I cannot wait until I am officially a teacher and have a cute, well-organized classroom of my own filled with children that I love so dearly. I can't wait for that chapter of my life and I know God will lead me in the right direction. Everything will be so worth it in the end! If you are like me who wants to actually love the life you live, building a relationship with God is the key because He will put all of the missing puzzle pieces together. He is going to transform your life, if you let Him. Let Him be the pen because He is writing your very own story! Please listen to "Welcome To The New" by MercyMe. "Let us be the first to welcome you. Welcome to the life you thought was too good to be true. Welcome to the new. You broke your back, kept all of the rules. Jumped through the hoops to make God approve of you. Oh, tell me was it worth it? Did you stop to think that maybe He is ok with just you? Now here you are, a new point of view. Now it all makes sense why it's called the Good News."

Heavenly Father,
Give grace and courage to the ones who have worked hard and now greet this special time of graduation.
We thank you for protecting and guiding them to this point. All praise and glory to You! Inspire the graduates to put to good use all the knowledge, skills and life lessons gained through their education.
Most importantly, as they face unknown challenges moving on, help them to keep dear the greatest wisdom of all — that of knowing Jesus and the power of the Cross!
A chapter has closed and another eagerly awaits. Pave their road with opportunities and inspire them to live with hope in this incredible journey called life.
Continue to bless the graduates with love, protection, mercy, strength and wisdom.
May they live passionately to honor and glorify Your name. In Jesus' name, Amen.

With the Eucharist, we join with our fellow Catholics, our neighbors, and our friends to be fed by the Lord. We celebrate together, not alone. In this way, Mother Church keeps our faith from being a solitary experience. If there were no Church, there would be no real community of believers. We might have our personal "spirituality," but we would lack the support, the fellowship, and the mutual encouragement that comes from belonging to a family of faith.

Please remember the sick, their families, all who suffer in body and mind, in your daily prayers

Unfailing Prayer to St. Anthony

Feast Day: June 13th

O Holy St. Anthony, gentlest of Saints, your love for God and Charity for His creatures, made you worthy, when on earth, to possess miraculous powers. Encouraged by this thought, I implore you to obtain for me (request). O gentle and loving St. Anthony, whose heart was ever full of human sympathy, whisper my petition into the ears of the sweet Infant Jesus, who loved to be folded in your arms; and the gratitude of my heart will ever be yours. Amen.

Please Pray for Priests

Dear Lord, we pray that the Blessed Mother wrap her mantle around your priests and through her intercession strengthen them for their ministry. We pray that Mary will guide your priests to follow her own words, "Do whatever He tells you" (Jn 2:5) May your priest have the heart of St. Joseph, Mary's most chaste spouse. May the Blessed Mother's own pierced heart inspire them to embrace all who suffer at the foot of the cross. May your priest be holy, filled with the fire of your love seeking nothing but your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Amen.

St. John Vianney, pray for us.

Saint Michael the Archangel

St Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray and do thou, O prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and all the other evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
