Third Sunday of Easter

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

There is a phrase in this week's reading from the Gospel of Luke (24:32) that is one of my favorites: "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the scriptures to us?" Jesus had just appeared to two disciples on the road to Emmaus, although they did not recognize him until later. The disciples were confused and perhaps even afraid about the events surrounding Jesus arrest and crucifixion. But after speaking with Jesus, everything became clear. Often it is that way for us. We experience rough times or pain. We do not understand why God would allow suffering. Then, one day, God's plan becomes clear to us, perhaps not a soon as we would like, but it is eventually revealed. And at that moment we might feel that burning of God's Love in our hearts. The key to surviving the trials of the journey is trust in God. Pray for His understanding.

Fr. Russ

Catholic Quotes Pope John Paul II

(Mane Nobiscum Domine— Stay with us Lord)

"The two disciples of Emmaus, upon recognizing the Lord, 'set out immediately' (cf. Lk 24:33), in order to report what they had seen and heard. Once we have truly met the Risen One by partaking of his body and blood, we cannot keep to ourselves the joy we have experienced. The encounter with Christ, constantly intensified and deepened in the Eucharist, issues in the Church and in every Christian an urgent summons to testimony and evangelization." Once we have truly met the Risen One by partaking of his body and blood, we cannot keep to ourselves the joy we have experienced.
