John 15:5

Fifth Sunday of Easter

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

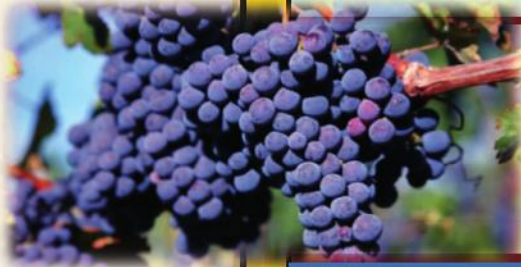

Today's Second Reading, from the first Letter of St. John says: "Children, let us love one another not in word or speech, but in deed and truth." In other words, we need to do more than talk the talk, we must also walk the walk. Our Catholic faith is not a comfortable faith. It does not say to us: "Hey, you're OK, don't worry about how you live your life; just enjoy yourself." That message comes from popular culture, not from Jesus Christ. It is a comfortable message, but it is false. Comfortable is not always good. We are certainly called to preach the Gospel, to talk the talk, but we also must make a daily effort to live like good Catholics:

- to study Church teaching when we don't understand it,
- to go out of our way to help others,
- to resist temptation and carry our crosses with elegance,
- to be faithful to Catholic morality and to our life-mission, even if it means enduring discomforts like hardship, ridicule, and persecution.

This week, walk like you believe.

Fr. Russ

St. Ephraem of Syria

"Virtues are formed by prayer. Prayer preserves temperance. Prayer suppresses anger. Prayer prevents emotions of pride and envy. Prayer draws into the soul the Holy Spirit, and raises man to Heaven."

The Minor Prophets of the Bible are named that only because of the length of their writings. Their writings are inspired by God and the messages they put forth also deal with our human journey and insight into our redemption and the Redeemer.

Saint Cyprian:

"Be constantly committed to prayer or to reading [Scripture]; by praying, you speak to God, in reading, God speaks to you."
