Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

This week we celebrate Independence Day, a commemoration of the freedom won for us 242 years ago. This is a freedom others long to participate in and one which we proclaim each time we say the words "Liberty and Justice for All." But there is another freedom which we celebrate every week, every day. This is freedom from sin, freedom from the grave.

This is a freedom won for us not 200 years ago, but 2,000 years ago. It is a freedom not won just for Americans but given freely to all humankind. It is the freedom which inspired our forefathers when they wrote, "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness." As we celebrate the birth of our country, a country of immigrants, let's pray that we may find a way to bring Liberty and Justice to all people.

Fr. Russ

Catholic Quotes

St. John Chrysostom

"Whether, therefore, we receive what we ask for, or do not receive it, let us still continue steadfast in prayer. For to fail in obtaining the desires of our heart, when God so wills it, is not worse than to receive it; for we know not as He does, what is profitable to us."

Quotes from Church Teaching on the Rights of Migrants and Refugees

- ✠ The new immigrants call most of us back to our ancestral heritage as descendants of immigrants and to our baptism heritage as members of the body of Christ.
- ✠ The Church supports the human rights of all people and offers them pastoral care, education, and social services, no matter what the circumstances of entry into this country, and it works for the respect of the human dignity of all especially those who find themselves in desperate circumstances.

PARISH HOMEBOUND SERVICES AVAILABLE

It is our duty as Catholics and our privilege as members of this parish to help those who cannot attend Mass or receive the sacraments and to be a link to the parish community. If you know of anyone who is homebound, permanently or temporarily, and would like to receive the sacraments but is unable, please call the rectory with their contact information. We will be more than willing to attend to their spiritual needs.

Welcome Our New Parochial Vicar Fr. Emmett Hall Sunday July 8, 2018 (After the 12:00 PM Mass—in the school cafeteria)

After the 12 Noon Mass next Sunday, July 8, we will be having a reception to introduce our new Parochial Vicar, Fr. Emmett Hall. Some of you may remember that Fr. Emmett was briefly assigned to our parish two years ago during the summer break from his studies in Rome. He has just completed those studies in Canon Law and has been assigned to St. Elizabeth as our Parochial Vicar. We are very fortunate to have him with us. Take this opportunity to meet Fr. Emmett and welcome him to the parish.

The Minor Prophets of the Bible are named that only because of the length of their writings. Their writings are inspired by God and the messages they put forth also deal with our human journey and insight into our redemption and the Redeemer.

Saint Jerome:

"The Scriptures are shallow enough for a babe to come and drink without fear of drowning and deep enough for theologians to swim in without ever reaching the bottom."
