classes that will begin in September. Classes are held on Wednesday Evenings at 7:30 pm.

Quinceañera: per the policy of the Diocese of Dallas, these are no longer celebrated individually, but with a blessing at the Sunday Mass. Please contact Elizabeth Seidemann at x223 for further information.

Marriage: Please call the parish at least 8 months previous to the date you wish to celebrate your marriage so that the required formation required by the diocese can be completed. Please contact Elizabeth Seidemann to begin your process of formation toward your marriage. Please note that marriage issues in the Catholic Church must all be completed before the Sacrament can be celebrated in a Catholic Church. Please call Elizabeth at x223 or eseidemann@stelizabethdallas.org for more information.

Anointing of the Sick and Homebound Ministry: the Sacrament is celebrated communally on the second Saturday at 8am in

Mark 6:7

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples, "Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them." Everyone wants to feel welcomed, but sometimes being welcoming pushes us outside our comfort zone. When someone looks, speaks, or dresses differently from us, we tend to be stand-offish. We have heard much lately about welcoming the stranger, the immigrant and the refugee and we try to be supportive of the efforts to provide for them and treat them with fairness and justice. But how do we do in our own parish? I know that sometimes when a homeless person, or a person with active toddlers, or someone who is dressed inappropriately sits near us we are uncomfortable. But consider this: that homeless person may be trying to find hope, that person who is not properly dressed may be seeking a relationship with God, and the kids...thank God that their parents think it is important to worship together as a family. Let's do all we can to make these people feel welcome, so they don't "shake the dust off their feet and move on."

Fr. Russ

Flowers for the Altar

Beautiful flowers on the altar during the Mass remind us of the beauty of God's creation and our efforts to give Him glory and praise. If you would like to contribute flowers for our Sunday Masses, please contact Bertha at the rectory (214) 331-4328).

Catholic Quotes

Venerable Fulton J. Sheen

"The refusal to take sides on great moral issues is itself a decision. It is a silent acquiescence to evil. The Tragedy of our time is that those who still believe in honesty lack fire and conviction, while those who believe in dishonesty are full of passionate conviction."

Reconciliation TIME CHANGE

Beginning Saturday July 7th Reconciliation will no longer be in the morning from 9:30 'til 10:30 AM. The new time will be from 3:30 PM 'til 4:30 PM. This change is permanent. It will afford the priests more opportunity to accommodate special liturgical requests from our parishioners. We are sorry for any inconvenience.

Quotes from Church Teaching on the Rights of Migrants and Refugees

✠ The call to solidarity is also a call to promote the effective recognition of the rights of immigrants and to overcome all discrimination based on race, culture, or religion. . . Catholic lay people, diocesan officials, and bishops should continue to work together with community organizations, labor unions, and other religious bodies on behalf of the rights of immigrants in the workplace, schools, public services, our legal system, and all levels of government.

✠ Communion does not abolish differences but brings together one family, diverse and united in the one Lord.

New to the Parish?

If you would like to become a registered parishioner, please be sure to complete a registration card (found on the table opposite the water fountain in the rear of the church or ask the Ushers) and turn it in to the Rectory during office hours or place it in the collection basket. Temporary envelopes are also available in the rear of the church if you have forgotten to bring your collection envelopes to Mass. Welcome to the parish!

PARISH HOMEBOUND SERVICES AVAILABLE

It is our duty as Catholics and our privilege as members of this parish to help those who cannot attend Mass or receive the sacraments and to be a link to the parish community. If you know of anyone who is homebound, permanently or temporarily, and would like to receive the sacraments but is unable, please call the rectory with their contact information. We will be more than willing to attend to their spiritual needs.

"2270 Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person -- among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life. (71)"

Scripture Study

Tuesdays 7-8 PM

Grahmann Center

The Minor Prophets of the Bible are named that only because of the length of their writings. Their writings are inspired by God and the messages they put forth also deal with our human journey and insight into our redemption and the Redeemer.

Saint Jerome:

"The Scriptures are shallow enough for a babe to come and drink without fear of drowning and deep enough for theologians to swim in without ever reaching the bottom."

DATES TO REMEMBER

- ⇒ Scripture Study—Every Tuesday at 7-8 PM in the Grahmann Center
- ⇒ Ladies Prayer Group — In the Grahmann Center every Thursday following the 8:00 AM Mass and Rosary
- ⇒ Reconciliation— Every Saturday 3:30—4:30 PM
