Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

As Catholics, we firmly believe that God has a plan for our lives. He calls some to marriage, some to priesthood, and others to religious life. Some remain as generous single people. Fully living our own vocations – and teaching young people how to discern God's call – is a serious duty, but also a joyful one.

Today begins National Vocations Awareness Week. During this week, please pray about how God is calling you to live your vocation more deeply. Encourage the young people in your life – children, grandchildren, students and friends – to be open if God calls them to priesthood or consecrated life. Pray that God would raise up many holy men and women to His service.

Fr. Russ

New to the Parish?

If you would like to become a registered parishioner, please be sure to complete a registration card (found on the table opposite the water fountain in the rear of the church or ask the Ushers) and turn it in to the Rectory during office hours or place it in the collection basket. Temporary envelopes are also available in the rear of the church if you have forgotten to bring your collection envelopes to Mass. Welcome to the parish!

Quotes from Church Teaching on the Rights of Migrants and Refugees

✠ From the viewpoint of the U.S. bishops, it has been apparent for several years that our immigration system is broken and badly in need of repair. The U.S. Bishops are united in the view that migration is beneficial to our nation economically, socially, and culturally. The strength of our nation comes from its diversity and from the hard work and contributions of immigrants who have come to our shores over the past two hundred years. It is our identity and our soul. -The Most Reverend Kevin Farrell, Auxiliary Bishop of Washington and member of the U.S. Catholic Conference of Bishops Committee on Migration.

Our next RCIA class will be on Wednesday November 7 in the Grahmann Center. It will begin at 7:30 PM and end at 9:00 PM. The topics will be the "Mary, Praying the Rosary (Seminarians)". A light supper will be available before class begins. If you or someone you know is interested in becoming a Catholic, completing sacraments, or is interested in learning more about our faith these are the classes for you! Please contact David Fisher at (972) 754-4377.

Anointing of the Sick

The Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will be celebrated during the 8 AM Mass on Saturday, November 10, 2018 in the chapel. If you are in danger of death due to chronic illness, advanced age, or impending surgery, please join us for the prayers of the community and this Sacrament of Healing.
