Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

God has a personal plan for everyone. When He thought of you, He assigned you a special mission. And you will be happy in this life, only if you fulfill your special task. When people ask: "Why did I come to this world? What am I doing here?", then that person discovers the meaning of their life. This happened to St. Peter, as St. Luke tells us in the Gospel. While they were fishing in the lake, Jesus said: "Simon, son of John, you will be a fisher of men." Peter took Him seriously, and it was there that he began his vocation as an apostle. What does God expect from you? From all eternity, He has called you by your name. The Lord is knocking at the door of your heart, let Him come in, and be generous in doing whatever He wants. Let us ask Jesus to dispel all our doubts and fears, to help us overcome all our temptations. From the Tabernacle, Jesus is our most sympathetic friend, the most devoted lover. Don't forget Him, for today Jesus calls you by your name. Always say: "Here I am Lord!"

Catholic Quotes

St. Josemaria Escriva.

"The power of obedience! The lake of Gennesareth had denied its fishes to Peter's nets. A whole night in vain. Then, obedient, he lowered his net again to the water and they caught 'a huge number of fish.' Believe me: the miracle is repeated each day."

Quotes from Church Teaching on the Rights of Migrants and Refugees

In its history, America has experienced many immigrations, as waves of men and women came to its various regions in the hope of a better future. The Church is well aware of the problems created by this situation and is committed to spare no effort in developing her own pastoral strategy among these immigrant people, in order to help them settle in their new land and to foster a welcoming attitude among the local population, in the belief that a mutual openness will bring enrichment to all. Migrants should be met with a hospitable and welcoming attitude which can encourage them to become part of the Church's life, always with due regard for their freedom and their specific cultural identity.

Scripture Study

Tuesdays 7-8 PM
Grahmann Center

The Minor Prophets of the Bible are named that only because of the length of their writings. Their writings are inspired by God and the messages they put forth also deal with our human journey and insight into our redemption and the Redeemer.

Saint Jerome:

"The Scriptures are shallow enough for a babe to come and drink without fear of drowning and deep enough for theologians to swim in without ever reaching the bottom."
