Second Sunday in Lent

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

Last week we were able to see Jesus in the desert, a human being like any one of us: he was hungry, spent the night without sleeping, was tempted by the devil, and asked his heavenly Father for help. Today, on the other hand, he shows us his divinity: his clothes are whiter than snow, his face is shining, and he is speaking with the prophets. What wouldn't we give for our Lent to be the setting of a new transfiguration of Jesus in our lives! Our transfiguration begins in prayer. In prayer, we hear the Word of God, and we contemplate his face. We need to create the necessary conditions to be able to hear his voice. When Jesus climbed to the top of Mount Tabor with his disciples, he went away from the noise of the town and took them to a place of silence and seclusion. Brothers and Sisters: this Lent is new opportunity for us to listen and to contemplate.

Fr. Russ

The Minor Prophets of the Bible are named that only because of the length of their writings. Their writings are inspired by God and the messages they put forth also deal with our human journey and insight into our redemption and the Redeemer.
