Fifth Sunday of Easter

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

If all the laws that were ever written in every country of the world were one day erased by magic and men decided to live only by the law of love just as Jesus preached the world would be changed upside down. There would be no more wars, theft, jealousy, anger. Husbands would not betray their wives, children would obey their parents, there would be no lies, no corruption. The true Christian is not the person who is smarter, more pious, more sacrificial, more influential, but rather the person who loves the most. Our love has to be like Jesus' love, freely given, generous, universal, unconditional. Jesus loves with his mind; because he knows each person. Jesus loves with his heart, in other words, fully and in depth. Jesus loves everyone without limits, especially those who most need to be loved. Imagine that Jesus is next to you at every moment of the day, and that you ask him: "Lord, how would you do what I am about to do?" This is how you will learn to love as Jesus loves. In this way we will be making Jesus' dream, the civilization of love, become a reality.

Quotes from Church Teaching on the Rights of Migrants and Refugees

The local people, moreover, especially public authorities, should all treat [immigrants] not as mere tools of production but as persons, and must help them to arrange for their families to live with them and to provide themselves with decent living quarters.

Catholic Quotes

St. Teresa of Calcutta

"Spread love everywhere you go: first of all in your own house. Give love to your children, to your wife or husband, to a next door neighbor... Let no one ever come to you without leaving better and happier. Be the living expression of God's kindness; kindness in your face, kindness in your eyes, kindness in your smile, kindness in your warm greeting."

Scripture Study

Tuesdays 7-8 PM
Grahmann Center

The Minor Prophets of the Bible are named that only because of the length of their writings. Their writings are inspired by God and the messages they put forth also deal with our human journey and insight into our redemption and the Redeemer.

Saint Jerome:

"The Scriptures are shallow enough for a babe to come and drink without fear of drowning and deep enough for theologians to swim in without ever reaching the bottom."
