Sixth Sunday of Easter

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

Anyone who loves God should also love whatever God loves. Divine love is universal; it embraces all men and everything that is good. God sends the Holy Spirit to lead us at every moment along the path of true love. He makes us fearless and drives us to goodness. "The Spirit will remind you of everything I have taught you," Jesus tells us. When the Holy Spirit lives in our hearts, he slowly transforms us into Christ: he gives us his way of being and shapes us according to his features. Teresita González, a young Carmelite nun who died in a convent at age 21, had taken this as her motto in life: "Lord, let those who look at me see You." Ask the Holy Spirit to inspire you to do those practical things that you should do for others today in order to carry out His commandments. You may be amazed to find out how many things you have already done to build a better world.

Fr. Russ

Catholic Quotes

Pope Francis

"Do not be afraid of holiness, do not be afraid to aim high, to be loved and purified by God, do not be afraid to let yourself be guided by the Holy Spirit."

The Minor Prophets of the Bible are named that only because of the length of their writings. Their writings are inspired by God and the messages they put forth also deal with our human journey and insight into our redemption and the Redeemer.

Saint Jerome:

"The Scriptures are shallow enough for a babe to come and drink without fear of drowning and deep enough for theologians to swim in without ever reaching the bottom."
