Pentecost Sunday

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

Today the earthquake that shook the entire universe and turned humanity upside down is happening once again. The coming of the Holy Spirit. Pope St. John Paul II once told some young people who were about to be confirmed: "The love of the Holy Spirit that you are about to receive is stronger than yourselves, than your indifference, than your passivity, than your apathy, than your lack of fruits, than your discouragement, than your sin. Love can do anything. You have not received a traitor's spirit, but rather a spirit of courage in the fight, a spirit that is stronger than yourself. Love is stronger than you are." Faced with the temptation of cowardice and comfort-seeking, love is stronger than the enemies of the soul because it knows how to cover its eyes and distance itself from evil, it knows how to forgive and walk with eager feet, because it is stronger than the luring song of any siren.

Quotes from Church Teaching on the Rights of Migrants and Refugees

Our common dignity as human beings calls us to respect the alien among us, regardless of their status or social position. A preferential love for the poor and disenfranchised is a sure sign of one's Christian identity.

Catholic Quotes

Msgr. Charles Pope

"It has been said that Christmas is the Feast of God with us, Good Friday is the Feast of God for us, but Pentecost is the Feast of God in us."

Scripture Study

Tuesdays 7-8 PM

Grahmann Center

The Minor Prophets of the Bible are named that only because of the length of their writings. Their writings are inspired by God and the messages they put forth also deal with our human journey and insight into our redemption and the Redeemer.

Saint Jerome:

"The Scriptures are shallow enough for a babe to come and drink without fear of drowning and deep enough for theologians to swim in without ever reaching the bottom."
