Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

On this feast day of his most blessed Body, Jesus speaks to us of the Kingdom of God, heals those in need of his care, and offers his divine bread to all of us who are gathered together for this Eucharistic celebration. To live the Eucharistic mystery, which is the summary of our spiritual and temporal life, we need to be mature in our faith. The Jews of that time were not; rather they were only looking for material things, looking only for bread from the oven. May the daily concern of finding bread for our children not make us forget about Sunday Mass where we receive Jesus, the living bread come down from Heaven. He is bread, He is light, He is the shepherd. "The one who eats this bread will live forever," says the Lord.

Fr. Russ

"2270 Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person -- among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life. (71)"

Catholic Quotes

St. Ambrose of Milan

"If it is "daily bread," why do you take it once a year? . . . Take daily what is to profit you daily. Live in such a way that you may deserve to receive it daily. He who does not deserve to receive it daily, does not deserve to receive it once a year."

Quotes from Church Teaching on the Rights of Migrants and Refugees

Catholic schools can provide the children of immigrants with opportunities to adapt to American culture in a context permeated by the faith and in an atmosphere of hospitality to all cultures, and they can do much to promote cultural understanding and respect among parents and students alike.

The Minor Prophets of the Bible are named that only because of the length of their writings. Their writings are inspired by God and the messages they put forth also deal with our human journey and insight into our redemption and the Redeemer.

Saint Jerome:

"The Scriptures are shallow enough for a babe to come and drink without fear of drowning and deep enough for theologians to swim in without ever reaching the bottom."
