Sunday in Ordinary Time

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

There are two things that catch my attention in today's Gospel: first, that Jesus and his disciples are always traveling. Second, Christ's constant meeting with new followers. He tells some, "Come and follow me"; others instead promise him, "I will follow you wherever you go." God calls everyone, but not everyone answers right away. Some people make excuses. Doesn't the same thing happen to us at the important moments of life? Jesus is radical and expects us to give ourselves completely. Being a Christian today takes courage and fortitude, because we need to overcome sentimentalism and our personal plans. The option of living according to Christ's commandments makes everything else fall into second place: work, use of time, entertainment, money. Oftentimes we will have to go against the current, when faced with customs, styles, opinions that are not in agreement with the Gospel. Only the person who understands that "the one thing necessary" is God will be able to understand this; after that, everything else becomes relative. Our happiness depends on our complete self-giving, even though it may be countercultural or difficult. We can be sure that we will never be alone, because Christ will be with us until the last day of our lives.

Fr. Russ

Quotes from Church Teaching on the Rights of Migrants and Refugees

Catholic schools can provide the children of immigrants with opportunities to adapt to American culture in a context permeated by the faith and in an atmosphere of hospitality to all cultures, and they can do much to promote cultural understanding and respect among parents and students alike.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Our Precious Lord will be available for Eucharistic Adoration on this First Friday, July 5, during the hours of 10 AM to 7 PM. Immediately following adoration, communal praise in the form of Benediction will take place. We ask that you join in the Holy Father's intention: "That those who administer justice may work with integrity, and that the injustice which prevails in the world may not have the last word." Please use the sign-up sheet in the rear of the church. It is our way of ensuring that the Blessed Sacrament will not be left unattended at any time. All are encouraged to attend this most sacred event. This is our faith.

LATIN MASS

Back by popular demand! The dates for our upcoming Latin Masses at St. Elizabeth's are:

✠ Thursday, July 25 at 7pm (sung)

We will have a lesson before the June Mass, beginning at 6:30pm, walking through the various parts of the Mass, with an emphasis on how to make the responses.

July's Mass will be a sung Mass (or Missa Cantata), which is accompanied by beautiful Gregorian chant, meant to elevate the mind to God.

Handouts with English translations of the readings, etc, will be provided at both Masses, or you can follow along word-for-word on the free Laudate app on your smart phone. All are welcome!

The most powerful weapon to conquer the devil is humility. For, as he does not know at all how to employ it, neither does he know how to defend himself from it.

Scripture Study

Tuesdays 7-8 PM

Grahmann Center

The Minor Prophets of the Bible are named that only because of the length of their writings. Their writings are inspired by God and the messages they put forth also deal with our human journey and insight into our redemption and the Redeemer.

Saint Jerome:

"The Scriptures are shallow enough for a babe to come and drink without fear of drowning and deep enough for theologians to swim in without ever reaching the bottom."
