Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

The topic of wealth is of interest to everyone; to the rich who have a lot and who worry about not losing it, and to the poor who don't even have work but who dream of someday being rich. In our capitalistic society, money is the currency we buy everything with, and not just material things. Some try to use it to buy people, houses, health, success. And so money has become no longer just a means for getting by, but an idol that is honored. Jesus doesn't condemn riches in themselves, but the bad use people make of them. When they become ends in themselves, they enslave us. However, when they are used to serve one's neighbor, they help us reach God. At the end of our life, what will matter will not be the amount of money we have made, but the good works we have done. This must be our goal in life: to be detached from our ambitions and from the arrogance of power and avarice and to aspire to the only treasure that can fill us: eternal life.

Fr. Russ

Catholic Quotes

St. Louis IX

In prosperity, give thanks to God with humility and fear lest by pride you abuse God's benefits and so offend him.

Marriage: Love and Life In The Divine Plan: Reproductive Technology

"The procreative capacity of man and woman should not be treated as just another means of technology, as also happens with in vitro fertilization (IVF) or cloning. When that happens, human life itself is degraded because it becomes, more and more, something produced or manufactured in various ways, ways that will only multiply as science advances. Children begin to be seen less as gifts received in a personal communion of mutual self-giving, and increasingly as a lifestyle choice, a commodity to which all consumers are entitled." The Minor Prophets of the Bible are named that only because of the length of their writings. Their writings are inspired by God and the messages they put forth also deal with our human journey and insight into our redemption and the Redeemer.

Saint Jerome:

"The Scriptures are shallow enough for a babe to come and drink without fear of drowning and deep enough for theologians to swim in without ever reaching the bottom."
