Luke 12:51

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

"And they took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern . . . letting him down with ropes. There was no water in the cistern, only mud, and Jeremiah sank in the mud." But he did not reject his prophetic mission from God and kept on preaching until the end. Jeremiah had an essential virtue which we can all imitate: the virtue of fortitude.

In the words of the Catechism of the Catholic Church: "Fortitude is the moral virtue that ensures firmness in difficulties and constancy in the pursuit of good" (CCC, no. 1808). We admire people with strength of character who keep struggling to achieve a noble goal. It is the virtue of the athlete, the soldier, the mountain climber, and above all, of the saint. Saints are men and women who don't quit or run away when they face obstacles, either from the outside or the inside (their own fears). There will be moments when we must draw from a strength beyond ourselves, namely the supernatural virtue of fortitude, which is a gift of the Holy Spirit. Ask Christ to give us that Spirit, that strength of mind and soul which resists human fears and doubts, and which goes forward to accomplish God's will. Then we can make our own the words of today's Responsorial Psalm: "The Lord heard my cry. He drew me out of the pit of destruction . . . he made firm my steps."

Catholic Quotes

"The peace of Christ is neither "neutrality" nor "compromise at all costs". Following Jesus "entails giving up evil and selfishness and choosing good, truth and justice, even when this demands sacrifice and the renunciation of one's own interests."

Scripture Study

Tuesdays 7-8 PM
Grahmann Center

The Minor Prophets of the Bible are named that only because of the length of their writings. Their writings are inspired by God and the messages they put forth also deal with our human journey and insight into our redemption and the Redeemer.

Saint Jerome:

"The Scriptures are shallow enough for a babe to come and drink without fear of drowning and deep enough for theologians to swim in without ever reaching the bottom."
