Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

Our society is producing a very egotistic type of individual, lacking in solidarity, caught up in materialism, with a small heart and narrow vision, unable to love with true generosity. In the Gospel today Christ is warning us to purify our attitudes. There is one sure way to lose people's esteem and respect: conceit. Conceit makes people think more of themselves than they should, comparing themselves to others and thinking they are more intelligent, stronger, more attractive than everyone else. They look for seats of honor, demand preferential treatment, make themselves heard, always wanting to have the last word. They speak a lot about themselves, announcing their own accomplishments, trying to be the center of the group, at times even humiliating those who stand out in order to make sure they don't overshadow them. In today's liturgy we find Christ as a meek and humble lamb. This is the Christ we are all looking for. Christ in his Passion, suffering humiliation, betrayal, abandonment. How do we react when people insult us and humiliate us? He was humble, accepting in silence. He loved and learned. It is in true, free and unconditional love that we learn about the love of God.

Catholic Quotes

Pope St. Gregory the Great

"The only true riches are those that make us rich in virtue. Therefore, if you want to be rich, beloved, love true riches. If you aspire to the heights of real honor, strive to reach the kingdom of Heaven. If you value rank and renown, hasten to be enrolled in the heavenly court of the Angels."

"2270 Human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person -- among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life. (71)"

Marriage: Love and Life In The Divine Plan: Effects of Cohabitation

"Social science research, however, finds that cohabitation has no positive effects on a marriage. In some cases, cohabitation can in fact harm a couple's chances for a stable marriage. More importantly, though, cohabitation involves the serious sin of fornication. It does not conform to God's plan for marriage and is always wrong and objectively sinful." The Minor Prophets of the Bible are named that only because of the length of their writings. Their writings are inspired by God and the messages they put forth also deal with our human journey and insight into our redemption and the Redeemer.

Saint Jerome:

"The Scriptures are shallow enough for a babe to come and drink without fear of drowning and deep enough for theologians to swim in without ever reaching the bottom."
