The Lost Sheep

The Lost Coin

The Lost Son

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

We have heard the Parable of the Prodigal Son many times. Something that is often overlooked is the son's example of making a good confession. Recognizing himself as a sinner, he makes an examination of conscience. He is concerned, repentant, he thinks again and decides to return to the father and ask him for forgiveness. When he arrives, his father embraces him, listens to him and forgives him. This is precisely what the priest does in Confession in God's name. When we go confess our sins, let's not forget that it is God himself who welcomes us with open arms. He is our merciful father who has been looking for us, not stopping until he finds us.

Marriage: Love and Life In The Divine Plan: Living Chastely

"Married people are called to love with conjugal chastity. That is, their love is to be total, faithful, exclusive, and open to life... The practice of marital chastity ensures that both husband and wife will strive to live as a gift of self, one to the other, generously. In other words, marital chastity protects a great good: the communion of persons and the procreative purposes of marriage." To read the document go to: <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Catholic Quotes

St. Teresa of Calcutta

"We can cure physical diseases with medicine but the only cure for loneliness, despair, and hopelessness is love. There are many in the world who are dying for a piece of bread but there are many more who are dying for a little love. Let us not be satisfied with just giving money. Money is not enough, money can be got, but they need your hearts to love them. So spread love everywhere you go."

Scripture Study

Tuesdays 7-8 PM
Grahmann Center

The Minor Prophets of the Bible are named that only because of the length of their writings. Their writings are inspired by God and the messages they put forth also deal with our human journey and insight into our redemption and the Redeemer.

Saint Jerome:

"The Scriptures are shallow enough for a babe to come and drink without fear of drowning and deep enough for theologians to swim in without ever reaching the bottom."
