

How can I repay the Lord for all the good done for me? I will raise the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all his people. Lord, I am your servant.

Priesthood
Sunday

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

In this week's Gospel, Christ presents us with two types of people that exist within ourselves, the proud, vain Pharisee and the humble, sinful publican. Every time we hear this Gospel passage, it's so easy for us to think we are on the middle ground, neither proud like the Pharisee, nor sinful like the publican. Perhaps for many this attitude may be correct, but most of us need to recognize that we share elements in common with both. The Pharisee considered himself pleasing in God's eyes as he offered him the platter of his good deeds. He goes up to the front and says, "I give you thanks because I am not like the rest." The publican comes with an attitude of humility, he feels ashamed of his soul, his very self, his sin. "He didn't dare to raise his eyes to Heaven, nor enter the temple." Humility is the best attitude for prayer because it lays bare our soul before our Creator and we can love with our soul fixed on God. This week pray like the publican: a prayer of humility, confidence, repentance. Saint Augustine said, "The man who prays well, lives well."

Catholic Quotes

Pope St. Clement I

"We should let God be the One to praise us and not praise ourselves. For God detests those who commend themselves. Let others applaud our good deeds."

LATIN MASS

On Tuesday, November 19th at 7pm, we will celebrate the feast of St. Elizabeth of Hungary with a sung Mass in the Extraordinary Form (Missa Cantata). Handouts with English translations of the readings, etc. will be provided, or you can follow along word-for-word on the free Laudate app on your smart phone. All are welcome!

Marriage: Love and Life In The Divine Plan: God's Love, Our Love

"God established marriage so that man and woman could participate in his love and thus selflessly give themselves to each other in love. A man and a woman who by their act of consent are no longer two but one flesh (see Mt 19:6ff.) render mutual help and service to each other through an intimate union of their persons and of their actions." Scripture Study

Tuesdays 7-8 PM
Grahmann Center

The Minor Prophets of the Bible are named that only because of the length of their writings. Their writings are inspired by God and the messages they put forth also deal with our human journey and insight into our redemption and the Redeemer.

Saint Jerome:

"The Scriptures are shallow enough for a babe to come and drink without fear of drowning and deep enough for theologians to swim in without ever reaching the bottom."
