The Epiphany of the Lord

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

The first reading of this year (January 1, 2020) was from Numbers 6:22-27. It is commonly called "The Priestly Blessing." I have a plaque with this verse on it mounted beside my office door. It is the first thing I see when I come into my office and the last thing I see when I leave for the day. The Lord tells Moses that this is how the priests are to bless the people. It is the blessing that I pray for our parish, and for myself. You often hear the priests offer these words of blessing at the conclusion of Mass. We don't take them lightly because they were given to us by God Himself.

The LORD bless you and keep you!

The LORD let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you!

The LORD look upon you kindly and give you peace!

Amen

Fr. Russ

Marriage: Love and Life In The Divine Plan: Life-Affirming

"Even when their child-bearing years have passed, a couple should continue to be life affirming. They can do this by staying involved in the lives of young people, and especially their grandchildren, as spiritual mentors, teachers, and wisdom figures." The Minor Prophets of the Bible are named that only because of the length of their writings. Their writings are inspired by God and the messages they put forth also deal with our human journey and insight into our redemption and the Redeemer.

Saint Jerome:

"The Scriptures are shallow enough for a babe to come and drink without fear of drowning and deep enough for theologians to swim in without ever reaching the bottom."
