Feast of the Presentation of the Lord

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

On today's Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, we meet Simeon at the entrance to the temple. Simeon was just and pious, docile to the Holy Spirit, filled with hope and longing for the coming of the savior, sensitive to divine inspirations, and a prophet by his faith. He is the man that understands the mystery of the Servant of God and finds peace, knowing that God alone is man's fulfillment. He appears to us as one full of delightful Christian maturity, proclaiming to us the overabundant goodness of revelation. Each night, as part of Night Prayer, the church prays with Simeon:

"Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel."

Fr. Russ

Catholic Quotes

St. Mary Magdalen de Pazzi

"Prayer ought to be humble, fervent, resigned, persevering, and accompanied with great reverence. One should consider that he stands in the presence of a God, and speaks with a Lord before whom the angels tremble from awe and fear."

It is a source of blessing to the couple, to their families, and to society and includes the wondrous gift of co-creating human life." To read the document go to <http://www.usccb.org/loveandlife/>.

Scripture Study

Tuesdays 7-8 PM
Grahmann Center

The Minor Prophets of the Bible are named that only because of the length of their writings. Their writings are inspired by God and the messages they put forth also deal with our human journey and insight into our redemption and the Redeemer.

Saint Jerome:

"The Scriptures are shallow enough for a babe to come and drink without fear of drowning and deep enough for theologians to swim in without ever reaching the bottom."
