Fifth Sunday of Easter

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

In today's reading from the Acts of the Apostles, the Twelve were being criticized for not doing enough in the service of Christ because they were too busy evangelizing. They know they needed help and chose seven men to assist them in their pastoral responsibilities. Thus, the first Deacons were ordained. The ministry of Deacon has been part of the church since its very beginnings. We are blessed to have two Deacons serving at our parish, Deacon Doug and Deacon Frank. We also have two men who have been preparing for ordination to the Diaconate, Chris Paulsen and Paul Williams. They were scheduled to be ordained next weekend along with about twenty of their classmates. Unfortunately, due to the current pandemic, their ordination is postponed indefinitely. They and their wives have dedicated two weekends per month for the last six years in preparation for this special service to the church. During that time, they have done internships at local hospitals, prisons, and other parishes. They have also continued to serve here at St. Elizabeth as Lectors and Acolytes, among other various duties.

I know that we are all anxious to resume our Sacramental life in the Church. One of the Sacraments I am looking forward to is the Ordination of the two holy men. Congratulations Paul and Chris on your completion (almost) of this program and may God Bless You in your continued ministry.

The "Stella Caeli Extirpavit" Chant in Time of Pestilence

The Star of Heaven that nourished the Lord drove away the plague of death which the first parents of man brought into the world.

May this bright Star now vouchsafe to extinguish that foul constellation whose battles have slain the people with the wound of death.

O Glorious Star of the Sea, preserve us from pestilence;
hear us, O Lady, for Thy Son honors
Thee by denying Thee nothing.
Save us, O Jesus,
for whom Thy Virgin Mother supplicates Thee.
O most pious Star of the Sea, preserve us from pestilence;
hear us, O Lady,
for Thy Son honors Thee by denying Thee nothing.
Save us,
O Jesus, for whom Thy Virgin Mother supplicates Thee.

Ancient hymn asking for an end to pestilence, within the Franciscan tradition. The source of the chant can be traced back to the seraphic tradition of the Franciscans: Cf <https://sspx.org/en/newsevents/news/stella-coeli-extirpavit-prayer-our-lady-times-pestilence-56625>.

The Regina Caeli

(A Prayer for Easter. From Holy Saturday to Pentecost we sing or recite one of the Church's most joyful anthems, the Regina Coeli (O, Queen of Heaven), customarily said in place of the Angelus at 6am, noon, and 6pm.)

Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia.

For he, whom you did merit to bear, alleluia.

Has risen as he said, alleluia.

Pray for us to God, alleluia.

V. Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia.

R. For the Lord is truly risen, alleluia.

Let us pray: O God, who gave joy to the world through the resurrection of thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, grant we beseech thee, that through the intercession of the Virgin Mary, his Mother, we may obtain the joys of everlasting life. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Spiritual Communion

(Those who are unable to make sacramental Communion with Christ by participating in the Eucharist, can express the desire to receive him in their spirit with these words that help to make spiritual communion with him:)

My Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar.

I love you above all things and desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen
