Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

This week we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. The documents of the Second Vatican Council state that the Eucharist is “the source and summit of our Christian life.” We already share in the banquet of heaven: “I am the bread that came down from heaven” (John 6:41) and “The bread that I will give is my flesh” (John 6:51). When we eat Christ’s flesh and drink his blood, we agree to become one family, sharing on a meal of thanksgiving. No one can welcome Jesus and close the door on his brothers and sisters. The “Amen” we say when we receive holy Communion acknowledges two realities: First, the Real Presence in the eucharistic bread and cup; and second, whoever receives the Eucharist, agrees to be the Body of Christ, to give one’s life to live out that real presence to others.

I know that many of you long to receive the Eucharist again on Sundays. I hope that we will continue that practice soon. Until we do, I remind you that we celebrate Mass each weekday, Monday through Saturday, at 8:00 a.m. I hope to see you there.

Fr. Russ

Catholic Quotes St. Julian Peter Eymard

“He loves, He hopes, He waits. If He came down on our altars on certain days only, some sinner, on being moved to repentance, might have to look for Him, and not finding Him, might have to wait. Our Lord prefers to wait Himself for the sinner for years rather than keep him waiting one instant.”

Pray the Rosary

Prayer for an End to Racism

*Mary, friend and mother to all, through your Son, God has found a way to unite himself to every human being,
called to be one people,
sisters and brothers to each other.*

We ask for your help in calling on your Son, seeking forgiveness for the times when we have failed to love and respect one another.

*We ask for your help in obtaining from your Son
the grace we need to overcome the evil of racism and to build a just society.*

We ask for your help in following your Son, so that prejudice and animosity will no longer infect our minds or hearts but will be replaced with a love that respects the dignity of each person.

*Mother of the Church,
the Spirit of your Son Jesus
warms our hearts:
pray for us.*

Compendium of the Catechism

(What kind of worship is due to the sacrament of the Eucharist?)

The worship due to the sacrament of the Eucharist, whether during the celebration of the Mass or outside it, is the worship of latria, that is, the adoration given to God alone. The Church guards with the greatest care Hosts that have been consecrated. She brings them to the sick and to other persons who find it impossible to participate at Mass. She also presents them for the solemn adoration of the faithful and she bears them in processions. The Church encourages the faithful to make frequent visits to adore the Blessed Sacrament reserved in the tabernacle.

(How is Christ present in the Eucharist?)

Jesus Christ is present in the Eucharist in a unique and incomparable way. He is present in a true, real and substantial way, with his Body and his Blood, with his Soul and his Divinity. In the Eucharist, therefore, there is present in a sacramental way, that is, under the Eucharistic species of bread and wine, Christ whole and entire, God and Man.

(What is the meaning of transubstantiation?)

Transubstantiation means the change of the whole substance of bread into the substance of the Body of Christ and of the whole substance of wine into the substance of his Blood. This change is brought about in the eucharistic prayer through the efficacy of the word of Christ and by the action of the Holy Spirit. However, the outward characteristics of bread and wine, that is the 'eucharistic species', remain unaltered.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

(Feast Day June 19, 2020)

O most holy heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore you, I love you, and with lively sorrow for my sins I offer you this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure and wholly obedient to your will. Grant, Good Jesus, that I may live in you and for you. Protect me in the midst of danger. Comfort me in my afflictions. Give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, your blessing on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death. Amen.

The Spiritual Communion

(Those who are unable to make sacramental Communion with Christ by participating in the Eucharist, can express the desire to receive him in their spirit with these words that help to make spiritual communion with him:)

My Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar.

I love you above all things and desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen
