Matthew 10:38

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

Our love of God is merely a response to His love. St. John tells us that He loved us first. (1 John 4:19). Ours is the love God places in our souls so that we too are able to love. That is why we ask him, Lord, give me the love with which you want me to love you.

We correspond with the love of God when we love others; when we see in them the dignity proper to the human person, made as it has been in the image and likeness of God, created with an immortal soul and called to give glory to God for all eternity. Love is to approach that wounded man we come across on our journey each day; it is to bind up his wounds, restore him to health and take care of him in all things. We must exert ourselves on his behalf, making a serious effort in order to bring him to God. Separation from God is always the greatest of evils, and those separated from him are in need of our help and our urgent attention. This apostolate is a wonderful sign of our love for God, and is the way to love him more.

Francis Fernandez, In Conversation with God.

Catholic Quotes Pope Francis

“Give us, O Lord, a steadfast heart, which no unworthy affection may drag downwards; give us an unconquered heart, which no tribulation can wear out; give us an upright heart, which no unworthy purpose may tempt aside. Bestow upon us also, O Lord our God, understanding to know you, diligence to seek you, wisdom to find you, and a faithfulness that may finally embrace you; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Prayer for an End to Racism

Mary, friend and mother to all, through your Son, God has found a way to unite himself to every human being, called to be one people, sisters and brothers to each other.

We ask for your help in calling on your Son, seeking forgiveness for the times when we have failed to love and respect one another.

We ask for your help in obtaining from your Son the grace we need to overcome the evil of racism and to build a just society.

We ask for your help in following your Son, so that prejudice and animosity will no longer infect our minds or hearts but will be replaced with a love that respects the dignity of each person.

Mother of the Church, the Spirit of your Son Jesus warms our hearts: pray for us.

From "Open Wide Our Hearts: The Enduring Call to Love", a pastoral letter against racism

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Our Precious Lord will be available for Eucharistic Adoration on this First Friday, July 3, during the hours of 10 AM to 7 PM. Immediately following adoration, communal praise in the form of Benediction will take place. We ask that you join in the Holy Father's intention: "We pray that today's families may be accompanied with love, respect and guidance." Please use the sign-up sheet in the rear of the church. It is our way of ensuring that the Blessed Sacrament will not be left unattended at any time. All are encouraged to attend this most sacred event. This is our faith.

July Devotion

July is the month set aside for dedication to The Precious Blood of Christ. Devotion to the Precious Blood is not an option. It is an obligation for all Catholics. It is presented to us in scripture. Most importantly it is given for us at every Mass.

Altar Guild Membership Drive

The St. Elizabeth Altar Guild is conducting their 2020-2021 Membership Drive. The yearly membership fee is $15. Your fee can be mailed to either

Judy Munchrath or the church office. You may also bring it to the rectory or drop an envelope into the mail slots on the door.

The Altar Guild is a very important part of our Catholic mission.

The Spiritual Communion

(Those who are unable to make sacramental Communion with Christ by participating in the Eucharist, can express the desire to receive him in their spirit with these words that help to make spiritual communion with him:)

My Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar.

I love you above all things and desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

Saint Alphonsus Liguori

Catechism of the Catholic Church

(The First Commandment)

2083 Jesus summed up man's duties toward God in this saying: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind." This immediately echoes the solemn call: "Hear, O Israel: the LORD our God is one LORD."

God has loved us first. the love of the One God is recalled in the first of the "ten words." the commandments then make explicit the response of love that man is called to give to his God.

2086 "The first commandment embraces faith, hope, and charity. When we say 'God' we confess a constant, unchangeable being, always the same, faithful and just, without any evil. It follows that we must necessarily accept his words and have complete faith in him and acknowledge his authority. He is almighty, merciful, and infinitely beneficent. Who could not place all hope in him? Who could not love him when contemplating the treasures of goodness and love he has poured out on us? Hence the formula God employs in the Scripture at the beginning and end of his commandments: 'I am the LORD.'"

2090 When God reveals Himself and calls him, man cannot fully respond to the divine love by his own powers. He must hope that God will give him the capacity to love Him in return and to act in conformity with the commandments of charity. Hope is the confident expectation of divine blessing and the beatific vision of God; it is also the fear of offending God's love and of incurring punishment.

2093 Faith in God's love encompasses the call and the obligation to respond with sincere love to divine charity. the first commandment enjoins us to love God above everything and all creatures for him and because of him.
