Matthew 14:19

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

Many of us have not been to church for a while. We are, rightfully concerned for our safety and the safety of our families. We have substituted Mass on television and personal prayers. Thanks be to God that these options are available to us. Some have even decided that they don't need that weekly (or daily) gathering any longer. Today's readings speak to all of us, but especially to those who have been gone too long. The Prophet Isaiah says, "All you who are thirsty, come to the water!...Come to me heedfully, listen, that you may have life." St. Paul asks us, "What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword?" (He does not mention viruses, but I suppose he could have.) "No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord." And finally, in the Gospel we hear the familiar words, "He said the blessing, broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, who in turn gave them to the crowds. They all ate and were satisfied."

I understand that many of you are hesitant to assemble in a group. I want you to know that we have taken significant precautions to assure that you are able to maintain social distancing while at Mass. The church is thoroughly disinfected immediately after each gathering to further reduce risk. Hymnals have been removed from the pews and other steps are taken to reduce contact points. Mass attendance is increasing slightly each week, but I look forward to greeting many more of you in the near future. We will add more Masses as necessary to assure your safety. God Bless You All!

The Compendium of the Catechism (Virtues)

The cardinal virtues

1805 Four virtues play a pivotal role and accordingly are called "cardinal"; all the others are grouped around them. They are: prudence, justice, fortitude, and temperance. "If anyone loves righteousness, [Wisdom's] labors are virtues; for she teaches temperance and prudence, justice, and courage." (see note 64) These virtues are praised under other names in many passages of Scripture.

The virtues and grace

1810 Human virtues acquired by education, by deliberate acts and by a perseverance ever-renewed in repeated efforts are purified and elevated by divine grace. With God's help, they forge character and give facility in the practice of the good. The virtuous man is happy to practice them.

Catholic Quotes

St. Theresa of Calcutta

"It is easy to love the people far away. It is not always easy to love those close to us. It is easier to give a cup of rice to relieve hunger than to relieve the loneliness and pain of someone unloved in our own home. Bring love into your home for this is where our love for each other must start."

Pray the Rosary

Prayer for an End to Racism

*Mary, friend and mother to all, through your Son, God has found a way to unite himself to every human being,
called to be one people,
sisters and brothers to each other.*

We ask for your help in calling on your Son, seeking forgiveness for the times when we have failed to love and respect one another.

*We ask for your help in obtaining from your Son
the grace we need to overcome the evil of racism and to build a just society.*

We ask for your help in following your Son, so that prejudice and animosity will no longer infect our minds or hearts but will be replaced with a love that respects the dignity of each person.

*Mother of the Church,
the Spirit of your Son Jesus
warms our hearts:
pray for us.*

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Our Precious Lord will be available for Eucharistic Adoration on this First Friday, August 7, during the hours of 10 AM to 7 PM. Immediately following adoration, communal praise in the form of Benediction will take place. We ask that you join in the Holy Father's intention: "We pray for all those who work and live from the sea, among them sailors, fishermen and their families.." Please use the sign-up sheet in the rear of the church. It is our way of ensuring that the Blessed Sacrament will not be left unattended at any time. All are encouraged to attend this most sacred event. This is our faith.

The Spiritual Communion

(Those who are unable to make sacramental Communion with Christ by participating in the Eucharist, can express the desire to receive him in their spirit with these words that help to make spiritual communion with him:)

My Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar.

I love you above all things and desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

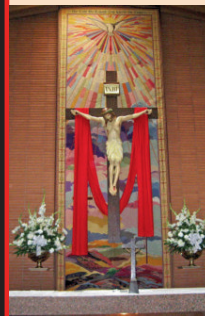

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

Saint Alphonsus Liguori

New to the Parish?

If you would like to become a registered parishioner, please be sure to complete a registration card (found on the table opposite the water fountain in the rear of the church or ask the Ushers) and turn it in to the Rectory during office hours or place it in the collection basket. Temporary envelopes are also available in the rear of the church if you have forgotten to bring your collection envelopes to Mass. Welcome to the parish!

AUGUST DEVOTION

The month of August is dedicated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, and on August 15th, the Church celebrates the Assumption of Mary into heaven, body and soul. We could spend our time in no better way than to meditate upon: her pureness of intentions; her dedication to God's plan for humanity; her sharing of the passion of her son; her role as our mother and advocate of these times.

Altar Guild Membership Drive

The St. Elizabeth Altar Guild is conducting their 2020-2021 Membership Drive. The yearly membership fee is $15. Your fee can be mailed to either Judy Munchrath or the church office. You may also bring it to the rectory or drop an envelope into the mail slots on the door.

The Altar Guild is a very important part of our Catholic mission.
