Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

In today's readings we see the difficulties facing those called to be prophets. In Jesus, we find the mission of priest, prophet, and king combined. As a prophet he is the bearer of God's message; in fact, he, as the Word, is the message of God himself. In sharing the faith, we as Christians also have a mission to bear God's message and make it known. That happens through sharing our faith, through teaching the faith, but also by the very fact of being Christian. It's important to keep in mind something that's fundamental to being a prophet: God is sending a message that people don't want to hear. In being a prophet, we can sometimes question whether if we'd said something more eloquently or done something better that message would have been welcomed more warmly. Today's readings remind us that even if we do everything perfectly, as Jesus did in today's Gospel, there will still be incredulous people. Let's ask Our Lord today to be bearers of his message in our words and our example, and to help us not get discouraged in our mission of sharing his Word with everyone we meet, especially the ones we love.

Fr. Russ

Facing temptations in prayer

2732 The most common yet most hidden temptation is our lack of faith. It expresses itself less by declared incredulity than by our actual preferences. When we begin to pray, a thousand labors or cares thought to be urgent vie for priority; once again, it is the moment of truth for the heart: what is its real love? Sometimes we turn to the Lord as a last resort, but do we really believe he is? Sometimes we enlist the Lord as an ally, but our heart remains presumptuous. In each case, our lack of faith reveals that we do not yet share in the disposition of a humble heart: "Apart from me, you can do nothing."

Happy Fourth of July!

(Prayer)

God, source of all freedom, this day is bright with the memory of those who declared that life and liberty are your gift to every human being. Help us to continue a good work begun long ago. Make our vision clear and our will strong: that only in human solidarity will we find liberty, and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth. Turn our hearts toward the family of nations: to understand the ways of others, to offer friendship, and to find safety only in the common good of all. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Pray the Rosary

July Devotion

July is the month set aside for dedication to The Precious Blood of Christ. Devotion to the Precious Blood is not an option. It is an obligation for all Catholics. It is presented to us in scripture. Most importantly it is given for us at every Mass.

Baptismal Classes

Our next Baptism Class will be held on July 10, 2021. Both parents and sponsors are required to attend Baptismal Classes. These classes are held in our parish on the 2nd Saturday of each month at 2:00 PM in the Grahmann

Center. Upon completion, a certificate is issued which remains valid for a three year period. For additional information call the rectory at (214) 331-4328.

Altar Guild Membership Drive

Catholic Quotes

St. Peter Julian Eymard

He loves, He hopes, He waits. If He came down on our altars on certain days only, some sinner, on being moved to repentance, might have to look for Him, and not finding Him, might have to wait. Our Lord prefers to wait Himself for the sinner for years rather than keep him waiting one instant.

Knights of Columbus Council 17111

Members of Council 17111 have their meetings on the 1st and 3rd Thursday of each month at 7:00 PM in the Grahmann Center.

We are Catholic men of faith and men of charitable action.” If you’d like to be a part of an international organization of nearly 2 million Catholic men whose principal work involves helping others in need, we’d like to meet you and invite you to join us.
