Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the Desk of the Pastoral Administrator

Tuesday marks the feast of St. James, son of Zebedee (along with his brother, John), and one of the twelve Apostles. As we know from Scripture, James was a fellow fisherman with Peter, called to become a fisher of men. He had a fiery temper, earning him the nickname "Son of Thunder", witnessed the Transfiguration, and was a zealous follower of our Lord. James presided over the Church in Jerusalem, and was the first of the Apostles to be martyred.

There is a venerable tradition that, in addition to all of this, James traveled to Hispania (Spain) to preach the Gospel, and was buried there after his death in 44 AD. The site of his burial, Santiago de Compostela, later became an important place of pilgrimage. Maybe you've heard of the Camino de Santiago de Compostela? (Or just "camino" for short.)

Countless pilgrims over the centuries have made their way to the town of Santiago, in the Galicia region of northwestern Spain, and it remains a very popular destination for pilgrimages even to this day. You might have seen the 2010 movie "The Way" starring Martin Sheen and Emilio Estevez. Perhaps you've even walked the Camino yourself. I walked the Camino in 2019 with my brother and a few other pilgrims, and it was a life-changing experience for us all. I'm still seeing the graces of that pilgrimage unfold today.

Pilgrimages are sort of an interesting thing. The destination is always some holy site. But a pilgrimage is more than just a vacation to a holy place. The journey itself is important, and often (intentionally or not) penitential in some way. To be a pilgrim, we must make ourselves receptive to God's grace, and reliant on His providence. This is how pilgrimages change lives.

Some of y'all are signed up to go on pilgrimage to Italy with Fr. Uche. (I'm very excited for you, and only a little jealous.) I pray that it is a transformative experience for you.

Finally, I'd like to share another pilgrimage destination a bit closer to home: Sacred Heart Parish in Muenster, TX, has a small piece of Our Lord's Cross available for veneration. It might be nice to get a group together and make the trek up I-35 to go visit, pray, and share a meal at the local German restaurant. Perhaps on September 14th, the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross.

St. James, pray for us on the way!

Fr. Emmett
