The Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FROM THE DESK OF THE PASTOR

This week we celebrate Catholic Schools Week throughout the whole Diocese and beyond. Catholic Schools Week is an opportunity to showcase the value of an education rooted in the Catholic worldview, and what a treasure we have in our schools. The Diocese of Dallas is home to 27 elementary/middle schools and 8 high schools, as well as the Notre Dame School for students with intellectual disabilities, and the University of Dallas (of which I am a proud alum).

Of course we are very blessed to have a vibrant school here as an integral part of our parish community. Many of y'all are alumni or parents of alumni, and I am so grateful for your role in building up our school into what it is. We mark a milestone anniversary this year, as we celebrate our 65th anniversary of excellent Catholic education here at St. Elizabeth. Thanks be to God, we have much to celebrate!

(If you haven't already, please make sure to visit our school website www.saintspride.com/alumni to update your contact information so that we can keep in touch.)

I love to spend time at our school, walking the halls and visiting classrooms, as our students are so joyful and eager to learn. One of the highlights of my year so far has been teaching our second graders about the sacraments they'll receive in April. And this month we're starting a Latin Club, open to 4th-8th graders — though I've taken beginner Latin four times in my life, this will be my first time teaching it, so hold a good thought for me!

We have some great Catholic schools in this Diocese, and I believe that ours is one of the best (if I may say so), thanks especially to our GREAT faculty and staff, under the leadership of our Principal, Mrs. Borth. As we celebrate Catholic Schools Week, we give thanks to God for the gift of Catholic education and the many people who make it possible.

Fr. Emmett
