SUNDAY CONNECTION: YOU ARE MY FRIENDS

MEDITATIO

Love is a verb. It is an action word in the Bible. It demands a response to be fully realized. In the Middle Eastern world, males have generally been more interested in “being” rather than “doing.” Middle Eastern men have normally opted to respond spontaneously to the present moment, trusting that their response is appropriate. Jesus expected men to hear a joyous song and dance, or to hear a dirge and mourn (Matthew 11:16-17). But sometimes men would become complacent in their “being” and neglect the “doing” that daily life requires. This is one place that the challenge of love enters the spiritual equation. Love is active: it is something that we must choose to do. It takes effort to love, to stay connected to others.

Where Middle Eastern men would rather “be” than “do” and so may need encouragement to love in an active way, Middle Eastern women have operated on a different wavelength. Consider Martha, the close friend of Jesus who was always ready to “do” in service to others. Jesus encouraged her to slow down and to “be” like her sister Mary, who was invited to sit at the feet of Jesus and learn from him as a disciple (Luke 10:38-42).

Jesus commands us to love one another. This is a call to action. We have to work to stay connected to each other. This is our witness to the world outside the church. When the world sees how we love one another as brothers and sisters in Christ they will be drawn to join the family of faith.

ORATIO

Joy is a hallmark of the authentic Christian. The joy we experience in knowing the Lord is something that we can easily share with others around us. This is one way that the world will know that we have been born again. Pray for this holy joy this week:

Lord I thank you for the gift of your love in my life. I ask that I can know the joy that you promised me as your child and that I can know this joy in its fullest expression. Make that joy in me complete.

ESTE DOMINGO: USTEDES SON MIS AMIGOS

MEDITACIÓN

Amar es un verbo. Es una palabra de acción en la Biblia. Demanda una respuesta para concretarse plenamente. En el mundo del Medio Oriente, los hombres generalmente tenían más interés en el «ser» que en el «hacer». Los hombres del Medio Oriente generalmente han optado por responder espontáneamente al momento presente, confiando en que su respuesta es la apropiada. Jesús esperaba que los hombres escucharan una canción alegre, y bailaran, o que escucharan una canción triste, y lloraran (Mateo 11:16-17). Pero a veces los hombres se volverían complacientes en su «ser» y descuidarían el «hacer» que la vida cotidiana requiere. Este es un lugar donde el desafío del amor entra en la ecuación espiritual. El amor es activo, es algo que debemos elegir hacer. Requiere un esfuerzo para amar, para mantenerse conectados con los demás.

Si bien los hombres del Medio Oriente preferían «ser» que «hacer», y era necesario animarlos a amar en forma activa, las mujeres del Medio Oriente funcionaban de otra manera. Considera a Marta, la amiga cercana de Jesús que siempre estaba lista para «hacer» algo en servicio a los demás. Jesús la exhortó a tranquilizarse y «ser» como su hermana María, que fue invitada a sentarse a los pies de Jesús y aprender de él como un discípulo (Lucas 10:38-42).

Jesús nos manda que nos amemos unos a otros. Este es un llamado a la acción. Tenemos que esforzarnos a mantenernos conectados unos a otros. Este es nuestro testimonio al mundo fuera de la iglesia. Cuando el mundo vea cómo nos amamos unos a otros como hermanos y hermanas en Cristo, las personas serán atraídas a unirse a la familia de la fe.

ORACIÓN

La alegría es un sello distintivo del auténtico cristiano. La alegría que experimentamos al conocer al Señor es algo que podemos compartir con facilidad con los que están alrededor de nosotros. Es una manera que el mundo sepa que hemos nacido de nuevo. Ora por esta santa alegría esta semana:

Señor, te doy gracias por el don de tu amor en mi vida. Te pido que conozca esta alegría que me prometiste como hijo tuyo, y que pueda conocer esta alegría en su expresión más plena. Haz que esa alegría en mí sea completa.

SAINT OF THE WEEK: JOHN OF AVILA

Born in the Castile region of Spain, John was sent at the age of 14 to the University of Salamanca to study law. He later moved to Alcalá, where he studied philosophy and theology before his ordination as a diocesan priest.

After John's parents died and left him as their sole heir to a considerable fortune, he distributed his money to the poor. In 1527, he traveled to Seville, hoping to become a missionary in Mexico. The archbishop of that city persuaded him to stay and spread the faith in Andalusia. During nine years of work there, he developed a reputation as an engaging preacher, a perceptive spiritual director, and a wise confessor.

Because John was not afraid to denounce vice in high places, he was investigated by the Inquisition but was cleared in 1533. He later worked in Córdoba and then in Granada, where he organized the University of Baeza, the first of several colleges run by diocesan priests who dedicated themselves to teaching and giving spiritual direction to young people.

He was friends with Saints Francis Borgia, Ignatius of Loyola, John of God, John of the Cross, Peter of Alcantara, and Teresa of Avila. John of Avila worked closely with members of the Society of Jesus and helped their growth within Spain and its colonies. John's mystical writings have been translated into several languages.

He was beatified in 1894, canonized in 1970, and declared a doctor of the Church on October 7, 2012.

ST. FERDINAND FEAST DAY CELEBRATION

Come Celebrate with Your Parish Family

Wednesday, May 30th

Wednesday, May 30th, is the feast day of St. Ferdinand. We would like to celebrate this year with a pot luck dinner in the parish hall that evening (time to be determined). We would love to have a display of old pictures of the Chapel, Church, or any of the buildings of St. Ferdinand parish. Also, we'd like to have some input about the beginning of the parish from our more seasoned parishioners. If you have pictures of events that took place in the Chapel or on the grounds here at St. Ferdinand (weddings, baptisms, etc.), anything to show the history of the parish, we'd love to see them or have copies of them. If you have a special story you'd like to share, write it down and send it to us at cathy@stferdinandblanco.org.
