Mass Preparation

September 4, Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Wisdom 9:13-18b

Knowledge alone has limits. We also need wisdom to understand the ways of God.

Psalms 90:3-6, 12-17

God's power has no boundaries; it is not limited by space and time.

Second Reading: Philemon 9-10, 12-17

Paul encourages one of his converts to consider his former slave a brother in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Reading: Luke 14:25-33

Jesus teaches about the demands of discipleship.

True humility requires great strength.

Take the lowest place. (Luke 14:10)

A wise man once said that humility isn't thinking less of yourself; it's thinking of yourself less. That's what both Sirach and Jesus tell us in today's readings. Humility helps us take the spotlight off ourselves. And when we stop putting ourselves first, we become more open to the people around us.

That's what makes humility a key to healthy relationships. It helps us in two ways: we see people differently, and they see us differently. In our first reading, Sirach noticed this link (see 3:17-18). That's why he counseled his son to conduct his affairs with humility. Humble people are better able to see the needs, desires, and struggles of the people around them. Not only that, but there's something attractive about a person who doesn't put himself first. It makes people want to try to connect with them.

Jesus said something similar in his parable about taking the lowest place at a banquet. As we take our attention off what we think we deserve or what we think will make us look good, we stop trying to claim recognition for ourselves. That makes us better able to treat other people with respect and honor. And that opens us to the love that God wants to flow between us.

Perhaps you are tempted to think that a humble person is someone who lets other people walk all over them. And who wants to be like that? The truth is, true humility requires great strength. Choosing to put other people ahead of yourself goes against a lot of ingrained habits and self-interest. But it will make you free to love the people around you. And you'll find that this kind of love opens up a curious dynamic: the more you give it away, the more it comes back to you.

Jesus, help me be humble as you were. I want to be free to choose the lowest place. Amen.

Toma el lugar más bajo. (Lucas 14:10)

Un hombre sabio dijo una vez que la humildad no es pensar menos en uno mismo; es pensar menos sobre ti mismo. Eso es lo que tanto Sirac como Jesús nos dicen en las lecturas de hoy. La humildad nos ayuda a no ser el centro de atención de nosotros mismos. Y cuando dejamos de ponernos a nosotros mismos en primer lugar, nos volvemos más abiertos a las personas que nos rodean.

Eso es lo que hace que la humildad sea una clave para las relaciones saludables. Nos ayuda de dos maneras: vemos a las personas de manera diferente y ellos nos ven de manera diferente. En nuestra primera lectura, Sirac notó este vínculo (ver 3:17-18). Es por eso que aconsejó a su hijo que condujera sus asuntos con humildad. Las personas humildes son más capaces de ver las necesidades, deseos y luchas de las personas que los rodean. No solo eso, sino que hay algo atractivo en una persona que no se pone a sí misma en primer lugar. Hace que la gente quiera tratar de conectarse con ellos.

Jesús dijo algo similar en su parábola acerca de tomar el lugar más bajo en un banquete. A medida que quitamos nuestra atención de lo que creemos que merecemos o lo que creemos que nos hará ver bien, dejamos de tratar de reclamar reconocimiento para nosotros mismos. Eso nos hace más capaces de tratar a otras personas con respeto y honor. Y eso nos abre al amor que Dios quiere que fluya entre nosotros.

Tal vez estés tentado a pensar que una persona humilde es alguien que deja que otras personas hagan lo que quieran con él, o ella... ¿Y quién quiere ser así? La verdad es que una sincera humildad requiere una gran fortaleza. Elegir poner a otras personas por delante de ti mismo va en contra de muchos hábitos arraigados e interés propio. Pero te hará libre para amar a las personas que te rodean. Y descubrirás que este tipo de amor abre una dinámica curiosa: cuanto más lo das, mucho más regresa a ti.

Jesús, ayúdame a ser humilde como tú. Quiero ser libre de elegir el lugar más bajo. Amén.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Friday, September 2, 2022
9:30 am to 6:00 pm, St. Ferdinand Chapel

There is nothing like the atmosphere of a quiet chapel or church or the splendor of the monstrance to help you understand the truth of what is happening in Adoration. We are truly before Jesus Christ, His Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity. The more you sink into that silence in front of the Host, the more you'll realize that the only response is awe and wonder at the greatness of our God.

You are invited Friday, September 2, to come and receive the graces promised from the source of ultimate love, Jesus Christ.

Catechetical Sunday, Sunday Faith Formation classes begin

Wednesday, September 21

Wednesday Faith Formation classes begin

September 18th is Catechetical Sunday!

The theme for 2022-23 is This is my body given for you. Luke 22:19

The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. The term "Eucharist" originates from the Greek word eucharistia, meaning thanksgiving. In the celebration of the Eucharist, bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit and the instrumentality of the priest. The whole Christ is truly present -- body, blood, soul, and divinity -- under the appearances of bread and wine, the glorified Christ who rose from the dead. This is what the Church means when she speaks of the "Real Presence" of Christ in the Eucharist. <https://www.usccb.org/eucharist>

Help our children grow in relationship with Jesus and the Church.

PRAY FOR RAIN

O Mighty God, Your fingerprints are scattered across all of creation. Through each thing You have created, You show Your glory. Your caring and gentle nature are on display for all to see and experience. You open the heavens and bring the waters down from above. Lord, this very day we ask that You open the flood gates. Bring down nourishing rains, that the land may be quenched and bring forth much fruit. Amen.
