Welcome Visitors & Guests

Thank you for celebrating the Mass with us. We are glad that you are here. If you have any questions about our parish or joining the Catholic faith, please contact the Church office. For information concerning reception of Baptism, First Reconciliation, First Eucharist, Confirmation, Matrimony and Anointing of the Sick, contact the Church office. Parent interviews for Baptism need to be scheduled with the priest six weeks in advance. Marriage and Quinceañera arrangements need to be made with the priest at least nine months in advance. Holy Communion can be brought to the sick on request. If you know of anyone in need, please call the office. Church Office: 830-833-5227.

Due to unforeseen circumstances, when a mass is subject to cancelation, the mass intentions will be reset accordingly.

(For other Mass and Confession Times in the area, visit masstimes.org.)

Mass Preparation

March 29, 2026, Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion

Gospel at the Procession with Palms: Matthew 21:1-11

Jesus enters Jerusalem as the crowd waves palm branches and shouts, "Hosanna!"

First Reading: Isaiah 50:4-7

The Lord's Servant will stand firm, even when persecuted.

Psalms Psalm 22:8-9, 17-20, 23-24

A cry for help to the Lord in the face of evildoers

Second Reading: Philippians 2:6-11

Christ was obedient even to death, and God has exalted him.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 26:14-27:66

Jesus is crucified, and his body is placed in the tomb.

Martha's faith was being tested. Surely she thought that once she sent word to Jesus that Lazarus was sick, he would come quickly to heal him. And yet John tells us that although Jesus "loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus," he "remained for two days in the place where he was" (John 11:5, 6). How painful it must have been for Martha to watch helplessly as her brother died! How she must have wondered why Jesus hadn't come sooner!

When Jesus does finally show up, Martha doesn't hide her disappointment. If he had arrived in time, she tells him, "my brother would not have died" (John 11:21). Yet her faith remains firmly intact: "Even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you" (11:22). And when Jesus tells her that her brother will rise, she proclaims her belief "in the resurrection on the last day" (11:24). Martha must have been overjoyed when Jesus called Lazarus out of the tomb!

Martha's faith even in disappointment can be an inspiration for us, especially when we have "sent word" to Jesus, but he seems to be absent (John 11:3). Today's Gospel shows us that when the Lord's ways are confusing, he always has us on his heart and mind. He hears our prayers and has a plan for our lives even when we can't envision it.

Martha came to believe that Jesus had the power to raise the dead and that his plans were higher than hers. Even though he hadn't healed her brother, she still trusted him. So when you are in a place of waiting or disappointment, you can bring your pain to Jesus. You can allow him to reassure you that he is your loving Savior. He will strengthen your faith and hope. He will help you see his goodness in this life and, even more, in the life to come.

Always remember that Jesus hears your prayers. He will never, ever forsake you.

"Lord, I put my trust in you!"

St. Ferdinand Spring Festival

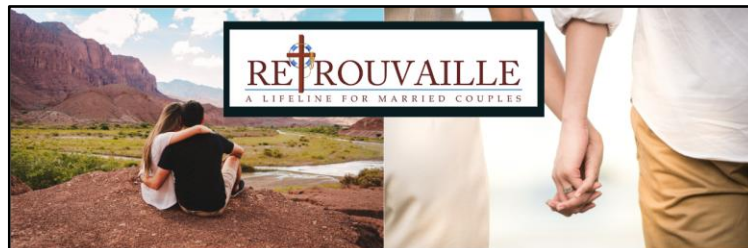

Are you ready for a party at St. Ferdinand? You are in luck. The Spring Fiesta is coming on Sunday, April 19th! This year the Fiesta will have more food, games, rides, BINGO, and even a silent auction. We are now soliciting donations for the auction. The auction will be limited to 25 items. Items should have approximate value between $25 to $75.

Examples of donations include: theme baskets, homemade crafts, jewelry, candles, soaps, movie tickets, gift cards, birdhouses, instructor lessons, sewn or crocheted items, artwork, books, etc. Monetary donations are gratefully accepted. No alcohol donations please. More information to come on deadlines & location for the auction donations.

BINGO donations are also being requested. Items between $10-$25 value are needed. Practical household items or kids' stuff is preferred.

You may volunteer to donate or assist using this QR Code, or sign up in the narthex. Let's make the FIESTA a maravilloso success!

May it be done to me according to your word. (Luke 1:38)

Gabriel has presented the Lord's proposal to Mary and waits for her answer. Meditating on this feast of the Annunciation, St. Bernard of Clairvaux envisioned not only Gabriel, but all of creation awaiting Mary's answer. He wrote, "This is what the whole earth waits for, prostrate at your feet." We can even imagine Jesus in some sense waiting for the answer of the one in whose flesh his own flesh will be knit together.

Imagine the relief as Mary tells the angel, "May it be done to me according to your word" (Luke 1:38). God, in his mysterious providence, invited her to participate in his awesome plan of salvation. He could have accomplished his plan without her, but he didn't want to. Instead, he desired the free and willing assent of this blessed woman who was full of grace.

Mary's yes to God changed the course of history. But her yes at that moment was likely not her first and definitely not her last. She surely said many yesses to God throughout her life. Yes when Jesus was lost in the Temple; yes when he left to start his ministry; yes when he said that his family consisted of anyone who obeyed his Father. Each "may it be done to me" formed and strengthened her for the role God was calling her to fulfill.

We, too, are invited to say yes to God throughout our lives so that we can build a habit of cooperation with the Holy Spirit. Each of us is vital to God's plan taking on flesh in our world. Every time we say, "May it be done to me" as Mary did, we become blessed participants in God's plan of salvation. When we are criticized and want to respond in kind but we say yes to the Spirit's invitation to hold our tongue, heaven rejoices. When we see someone who is hurting and feel the call to stop what we're doing and listen to their story, we bring Jesus to them. When we respond to the Spirit and welcome a needy child into our home, our choice changes the world around us. Jesus is made visible with our every yes to God!

"Blessed Mother, Mary, help me to bring Christ into the world around me!"

Special Days Coming Up

Dear sons and daughters,

Here we are already over half-way through Lent! Thank you to those of you who attended our Stations of the Cross, Lenten Luncheon, Fish Frys, Pastor Installation & Potluck, Penance Service, and Parish Mission!

In the coming days:

- we continue walking with our catechumens and candidates as they prepare for the Sacraments,
- we celebrate the Solemnity of the Annunciation with a high 8am Mass on Wednesday, March 25th,
- we continue our meditations on the Stations of the Cross on Wednesdays and Fridays,
- we gather together for one more Fish Fry on Friday, March 27th, and finally...
- HOLY WEEK! Palm Sunday, Tenebrae on Spy Wednesday, Holy/Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and of course, the greatest of all: the Paschal Vigil on Holy Saturday! Culminating with Resurrection Sunday with extreme Paschal joy!

Check the rest of this bulletin for more details. I encourage y'all to join us for as much as possible, and bring a friend – you won't regret it! May this second half of Lent serve to deepen that faith that the Lord has placed within us.

Pax et bonum,
Father Kyle
Pastor

Clean Water Changes Everything

Rhoda loves showing how clear and clean her drinking water is now! With a new village well, the Zambian teenager doesn't have to draw murky water from a hand-dug pit. Her family is much healthier, and she is safer. Rhoda no longer leaves before dawn on long treks to gather water, risking attacks by wild animals. And there's more! For the first time, she has plenty of water for washing her clothes and making herself clean. Your Lenten alms will help Church missions bring clean water — and hope — to others like Rhoda.

Prayer for Lent

Father of my soul,
I know Your love for me is limitless beyond imagining.
You care for me as a loving parent.
Through my smallest Lenten sacrifices, help me to become less selfish and more aware of Your ways.
Fan the flame of my desire to draw ever closer to You.
Guide me to seek your love.
