Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Please join me in praying for the earthquake victims in Venezuela. As families mourn the loss of loved ones and confront the destruction of their homes and communities, may we unite in prayer, invoking the intercession of our Mother Mary, for their healing, strength, and hope.

We also remember the first responders, relief workers, and all who are providing aid and comfort during this difficult time.

Mass Preparation

July 12th, Fifteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

First Reading: Isaiah 55:10-11

The Word of the Lord shall achieve its purpose.

Psalm: 65:10-14

A prayer of praise to God for his abundance.

Second Reading: Romans 8:18-23

Together with all of creation, we await God's redemption.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 13:1-23

Jesus teaches that the kingdom of heaven is like seed that has been sown on good soil.

I will do it. Be made clean. (Matthew 8:3)

Think about the faith that this man with leprosy showed. He was convinced that Jesus could help him if he wanted to. But just knowing that wasn't enough; he wanted to do something about it as well. Despite his disfigurement and illness, he made his way through the crowd and walked right up to Jesus. It took all the courage he had to declare, "Lord, if you wish, you can make me clean" (Matthew 8:2). Jesus rewarded his confidence: In an instant, the leprosy was gone, and his skin was cleansed. But that wasn't the end of the story.

After healing him, Jesus told the man to show himself to the priest. Here was another test of faith, for this man had no reason to expect that a priest would believe him. In Israel, leprosy was seen as more than a disease. It was thought to be a punishment from God for sin, either in the victim's life or within his family. The priest might blame him or scoff at him. He might say that Jesus was a heretic and couldn't heal anyone. He might question the man's faithfulness to Judaism for even listening to Jesus. But Jesus had healed him! How could he keep silent?

This story reminds us that we are all like this poor man. We are all "diseased" because of our sins. They burden us, separate us from God, and isolate us from our brothers and sisters in Christ. But like this man, we have received God's overflowing grace! Jesus died to cleanse us from every sin. We have new life in him, and he is now asking us to go and "make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19).

Every time you celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation, you relive this Gospel story. You enter the confessional like the sick man, afflicted with sin but turning to Jesus for help and healing. And every time you confess your sins, he cleanses and heals you. Now you are free! You can "go show yourself" to the people around you (Matthew 8:4). By your witness of humility, joy, and peace, you can help them see what Jesus has done for you—and they will be moved to seek out the Lord for themselves!

"Thank you, Lord, for forgiving my sin! Help me tell the world what you have done for me."

Planned Giving

As a Catholic community, we have been richly blessed with God's gifts. In truly appreciating our blessings, it is important that we remain mindful of those who came before us. Thanks to the stewardship of past generations, we can rejoice today as a strong, united parish in God's love. As the Church of today, we are likewise responsible for providing for the Church of tomorrow, working to secure for future generations the blessings we have enjoyed and more. We invite you to consider making a planned gift in effort to ensure lasting sustainability for St. Ferdinand Catholic Church. Making a planned gift that will provide financial support long beyond your lifetime is easier than you might think, and chances are, your gift will not affect your current lifestyle. There are giving opportunities that allow you to give after receiving an income stream for life and opportunities as simple as a bequest in your will or trust or a beneficiary designation of your retirement account or life insurance policy. For more information on planned giving, contact Dan Wierzbowski, Associate Director, Planned Giving, at 512-949-2496 or dan-Wierzbowski@austindiocese.org.

St. Ferdinand Teen's RENEWAL Retreat -- July 9-13, 2026

Calling all TEENS: The RENEWAL retreat is a three-day and three-night retreat presented by laymen like yourself, who are committed to the idea that we can make our faith more a part of our daily lives. A RENEWAL Retreat weekend provides an opportunity for you to put everyday worries aside and concentrate on your spiritual needs. Incoming freshmen to recently graduated teens are invited to attend! The cost is $100 and a $50 deposit is required to save your spot. Scholarship opportunities are available. Please don't let cost keep you from joining us. For more information on the 2026 Teen's Retreat, please contact one of the following adult coordinators: Korey Mangold at 210-279-5764, Scott Nunn at 512-264-4567, or Olivia Nunn at 830-237-2010.

Prayer for America

Dear God, we thank you for the bountiful blessings you have bestowed on us. Guide us in being good stewards of these gifts. Let us care for all of your beautiful creation, from the redwood forests to the gulfstream waters. Make us instruments of your peace in order to put an end to rockets' red glare and bombs bursting in air.

Help us to love and care for all of our neighbors - locally and globally - so that we might be truly crowned with brotherhood from sea to shining sea. Amen.

Gratitude as the Posture to Our Father

Dear Parishioners of St. Ferdinand & Good Shepherd,

Jesus begins "I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth" (Matt. 11:25) as he prays to the His Father. Jesus Christ, who is from all eternity the Son of God, has a posture of gratitude to His Father. Jesus knows that every good gift, every grace, even His own personhood, is from the Father. If He who is Himself God still gives thanks, we too, who are children of God through Him ought to give thanks to the God in whom we live, move, and have our being.

The gratitude of a child is also an act of humility, for by giving thanks to a parent, a child recognizes the dependence they have on father and mother, not only in a material sense, but also in a spiritual sense. All the more, when we give thanks to God for even the slightest thing in our life, we jointly make an act of humility, recognizing that He is the origin of all good things, and we, being made good, depend totally on Him.

We will only find our true rest when we go back to the Father whom we depend on for every breath, and the only way to Him is Jesus Christ. Christ exhorts us to learn from him, "for I am meek and humble of heart" (Matt. 11:29). The meek and humble heart is the heart of a son, who recognizes he depends on the Father and rests in the creative love of the Father and returns his love in gratitude.

In Jesus through Mary & Joseph, Doye Reasoner Baker
Seminarman for the Diocese of Austin

Cedarbrake retreats

Cedarbrake Catholic Retreat Center in Temple will host the Life-Giving Wounds Retreat July 31-Aug. 2. This three-day retreat for young adults and adults with divorced parents invites participants to move through the broken image of love in their parents' relationship to their deepest identity found in God. The retreat gives participants a greater understanding of the wound of divorce and how it affects their lives, offers advice about the difficulties concerning love and trust of others, and explains how the Catholic faith, spiritual practices, and the sacraments are essential to self-knowledge and healing. Details: austindiocese.org/cedarbrake or call (254) 780-2436.

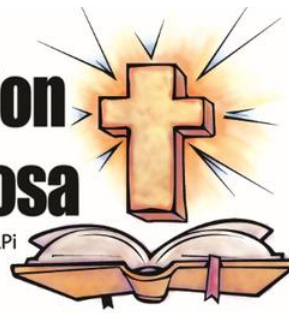

Living as His Beloved One: A Journey from Silence to Surrender to Boldness will be offered Aug. 1 at Cedarbrake Catholic Retreat Center in Temple. "See what love the Father has bestowed on us, that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are." (1 Jn 3:1) The spiritual life unfolds in seasons — and each season calls us to grow.

What if, in the silence, God is forming something deeper in you? In this retreat, we will reflect on the lives of five women in Scripture who show us how to walk with God through silence, surrender, and bold faith. Their witness challenges us to step forward with courage as the beloved sons and daughters we are called to be. Join Mary Pomeroy, retreat leader and spiritual director, to walk this path together and learn to live more fully as his beloved. The cost is $50, lunch is included. Details: austindiocese.org/cedarbrake or call (254) 780-2436.
