Mass Preparation

July 26th, Seventeenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

First Reading: 1 Kings 3:5,7-12

Solomon pleases God when he asks for a wise and understanding heart to better govern the people.

Psalms: 119:57,72,76-77,127-130

The law of the Lord is more precious than silver and gold.

Second Reading: Romans 8:28-30

God chose us to be conformed to the image of his Son.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 13:44-52

Jesus teaches about the Kingdom of Heaven.

The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed. (Matthew 13:31)

In his parables, Jesus often made use of familiar, everyday objects to capture his listeners' imagination and help them see God's work from a new perspective. In today's Gospel, he uses a tiny mustard seed to illustrate the surprising nature of God's kingdom. "It is the smallest of all the seeds, yet . . . becomes a large bush, and the 'birds of the sky come and dwell in its branches'" (Matthew 13:32). Great things, Jesus is saying, can come from small beginnings.

We see this principle play out in the history of the Church. From their hiding place in the upper room, Jesus' disciples took the message of his resurrection to the whole world. Through the power of the Spirit and the preaching of those first apostles, the Church grew—and continues to grow—in phenomenal ways.

Sometimes, though, God's work may have such tiny, unimpressive beginnings and grow so slowly that we barely notice it. This tends to be true in our spiritual lives, too. That kind of growth is often hidden, like the yeast that the woman put into "three measures" of flour (Matthew 13:33). We may not see dramatic signs of Christian maturity in ourselves or our loved ones right away. On the contrary, it can be easy to spot the "weeds" in our lives and our world that seem to take root and grow so quickly. And that can be discouraging!

That's why Jesus encourages us to remember the mustard seed. He wants us to trust in the goodness of the seed of faith he has placed within us and in his Church. He wants us to keep looking for the green shoots of his kingdom. And he wants us to keep asking for the grace to nurture their growth in ourselves and the people around us.

So don't worry! God's work often starts off small and slow. He is faithful, and his seed will bear fruit!

"Lord Jesus, thank you that your grace is always at work. Help me to see it."

FORMED Time to renew our FORMED subscription

FORMED has been called a "Catholic Netflix," and offers inspiring movies and video-based studies, audio talks, and e-books from the Church's most compelling speakers and authors, in English and in Spanish. Speakers like Vinny Flynn, Peter Kreeft, Fr Mike Schmitz, Mike Aquilina, Dr Brant Pitre and Dr Scott Hahn. A variety of programs on FORMED are featured in the bulletin and on our parish website.

St. Ferdinand and Good Shepherd have subscribed to FORMED for the past several years so that each of us might grow in our relationship with Jesus Christ and in our desire and ability to share that faith with others, especially those closest to us. Our current parish-wide subscription will expire on August 7th. The cost to renew the subscription is $1099. A parish-wide subscription can be shared with anyone within our parish boundaries, including our neighbors and guests from other faiths.

If you would be willing to make a donation toward the cost of a parish-wide subscription available to all residents within both the St. Ferdinand and Good Shepherd parish boundaries, please contact the parish office at 830-833-5227.

DONATIONS NEEDED

Can you help??

Dear sons & daughters,

As I mentioned a few weeks ago, it is always good to take time to reflect on how we can share our gifts with others.

Therefore, on to the next portion of the Pastor Wishlist! Here are a couple of things that I've wanted for a long while, but kept getting pushed back:

- Sports Fields – I would like to provide some more play areas and equipment for our kids and youth! At St. Ferdinand, this will be the field between the RICH House and Elm Street (which will need to be tilled – there is a lot of debris in the ground from the former buildings); at Good Shepherd, obviously it will be the only field we have (where we park on Sundays). For both locations, let's do 2 soccer goals, a volleyball net, and a gaga pit (look it up if you like), with accompanying balls for each. If you would like to help build, purchase, or install these, please let us know!
- Gardening/Landscaping Crew – I would like some parishioners that are familiar with landscaping, gardening, etc. to help beautify our campuses! This is not easy to do in the Hill Country, but I've heard several people who agree that this should be revived. Let's make beautiful spaces for parishioners and visitors alike! If you would like to help in the dirt or supply the plants, please let us know!

I am in hopes that some of you can help us with one or both of these projects. It is always ideal to recruit parishioners before going outside – that way, we contribute to our own home!

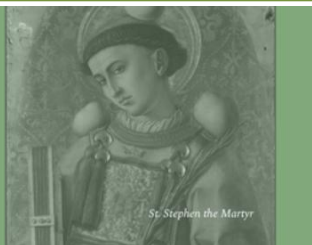

Please e-mail me or call the office if any of you are interested (I will not remember if you simply mention it to me after Mass). I will also accept your suggestions of who I might contact – feel free to throw your neighbors “under the bus”!

Pax et bonum,
Uncle Father Kyle

PROJECT STEPHEN

Project Stephen is an opportunity to walk with other men and their wives who are also discerning a deeper relationship with God and whether that includes answering God's call through service as a deacon. Over the course of eight sessions, attendees will have the opportunity to learn about who the deacon is and how he serves in word, liturgy, and charity; the history and development of the diaconate; and, the four pillars of formation. In addition, one will discover how to discern well, with a focus on prayer as the way God communicates his life and makes his presence known in the soul. This fall, all Project Stephen meetings will occur on the following Sundays from 2 to 4 p.m.:

- Aug. 16: Diocese of Austin Pastoral Center in Austin
- Sept. 13: St. Joseph Catholic Church (Bryan)
- Sept. 27: Christ the King Catholic Church Parish Hall (Belton)
- Oct. 18: Diocese of Austin Pastoral Center in Austin
- Nov. 8: St. Jerome Catholic Church Parish Hall (Waco)
- Nov. 15: St. Mary Catholic Center (College Station)

For more information, go to the Austin Diocese website at: <https://www.austindiocese.org/project-Stephen>. Or email diaconateformation@austindiocese.org.

Graphic content: Image of St. Stephen the Protomartyr was one of the early Christians chosen to serve the community and recognized in the Acts of the Apostles as one of the first deacons.

Nicholas Pinkerton is currently volunteering with the Travis Manion Foundation as part of a book tour designed to help spread the message that “Character Does Matter.” During the event, he reads Things My Brother Used to Say, written by Ryan Manion about her brother, Travis Manion, and the values that continue to inspire service and leadership today.

The program lasts approximately 45 minutes and begins with a brief introduction about the Character Does Matter initiative by a veteran or Gold Star family member. Nicholas then reads the book while the pages are projected behind him for the children to follow along. Following the reading, the children participate in a few simple character-building activities, such as identifying a personal promise they want to keep, drawing a picture, or writing about something they are grateful for.

The event concludes with a patriotic presentation of the Air Force Band's This Flag (pre-recorded), a free raffle for a hard copy of the book, and the presentation of WRRF dog tags to each child in attendance.

While the primary audience is children ages 13 and under, families and children of all ages are welcome to participate. Please come join us in the Parish Hall on Friday, July 24th, at 6:00pm!

I found him whom my heart loves. (Song of Songs 3:4)

St. Mary Magdalene, July 22

If you were looking for a saint whose life is a story of humble, dedicated love for Jesus, you might find all you need in Mary Magdalene, whose feast we celebrate Wednesday, July 22nd. In Mary, we see someone who had found, like the bride in the Song of Songs, “him whom my heart loves” (3:4).

But Mary hadn't found a husband or her beloved in the physical sense. No, she found Jesus, the One whose love had set her free from sin and desperation and filled her deepest needs. Through him, the demons that once held her in bondage and torment had been cast away, and Mary never forgot what he had done. So she stayed close to him wherever he went. She heard him preach powerful sermons and rebuke religious leaders. She saw him heal and deliver countless people, just as he had done for her. She even stayed by his side as he gave up his life on the cross.

After Jesus' death, when most of the other disciples hid in fear, Mary went to the tomb as soon as she could. And while she may have been afraid, something compelled her to go find him. The love that had transformed her life propelled her to follow Jesus even into the most uncomfortable, dangerous places. As a result, she became the first witness to the risen Christ and the first one to proclaim, “I have seen the Lord” (John 20:18)!

When we encounter Jesus, we meet the One whom our heart loves. And in him, those things that once bound us in fear or shame lose their grip. Even more, as we are set free, his love compels us to follow him.

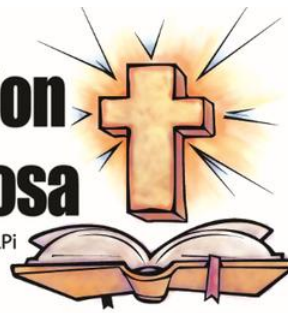

You may not have experienced anything quite as dramatic as having seven demons cast out of you, but perhaps you can think of some sin that used to keep you bound that you no longer struggle with. Or perhaps your life was headed in one direction and took a very different turn after you met Jesus. Praise God for all those miracles! And if there's a part of you that needs more of his love and power, invite him in. Let him keep transforming you.

“Jesus, you are the One whom my heart loves.”
