P.E.R.A. (Perpetual Eucharistic Reparative Adoration)

We are inviting and highly encouraging everyone to sign-up for our "P.E.R.A." (Perpetual Eucharistic Reparative Adoration). We are asking everyone to devote ONE HOUR (at least) a WEEK adoring God in the Blessed Sacrament—that is, only asking 168 parishioners to make adoration of God everyday, 24/7! We do this as a Parish Community in response to the teaching of St. John Paul II:

The "Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this sacrament of love. Let us not refuse the time to go to meet him in adoration, in contemplation full of faith, and open to make amends for the serious offenses and crimes of the world. Let our adoration never cease."

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time — “But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, ‘Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.’” Luke 19:8 We are all called to gratefully give back to the Lord in proportion to the blessings we have been given. This means everyone isn't called to give the same amount, but is called to give equal sacrifice. No amount is too small or insignificant! Open your heart, how is God calling you to be more generous with your financial resources and possessions?

31ºdomingo de Tiempo Ordinario — “Pero Zacqueo se quedó allí y le dijo al Señor: le daré la mitad de mis bienes a los pobres, Señor, y si he chantajeado a alguien, se lo devolveré cuatro veces”. Lucas 19:8 Todos estamos llamados a devolver con gratitud al Señor en proporción a las bendiciones que se nos han dado. Esto significa que no todos están llamados a dar la misma cantidad, pero sí a dar el mismo sacrificio. ¡Ninguna cantidad es demasiado pequeña o insignificante! Abre tu corazón, ¿cómo te está llamando Dios a ser más generoso con tus recursos y bienes?

A GREAT AND GLORIOUS GOD

Our readings today ponder two powerful truths: God is infinitely greater than we are; and God provides every kind of help so we can discover and share in God's glory. The reading from Wisdom reminds us that we are tiny compared to "the LORD of the whole universe." Nevertheless, God preserves and nurtures us out of perfect love. If we feel tiny, weak, and sinful compared to God, we are blessed! God's greatness sustains and strengthens us. Saint Paul encourages the Thessalonian Christians with the same message. He reminds them that God alone makes the Church holy. He prays that everything they undertake will be for the glory of God. Luke's Gospel shows us what this looks like in real life: Zacchaeus, feeling small and excluded, looks for Jesus. Jesus finds him and gives him the strength he needs to repent of his sins and glorify God.

UN DIOS GRANDE Y GLORIOSO

Nuestras lecturas de hoy reflexionan en dos verdades poderosas: Dios es infinitamente más grande de lo que somos y Dios provee toda clase de ayuda para que podamos descubrir y compartir su gloria. La lectura del libro de la Sabiduría nos recuerda que somos pequeños comparados con "el Señor de todo el universo". Sin embargo, Dios nos protege y cuida por su amor perfecto. Si somos pequeños, débiles y pecadores comparados con Dios, ¡Estamos bendecidos! La grandeza de Dios nos sostiene y fortalece. San Pablo anima a los cristianos tesalonicenses con el mismo mensaje. Él les recuerda que solo Dios hace a la Iglesia santa. Él ora para que todo lo que emprendan sea para la gloria de Dios. El Evangelio de Lucas nos muestra cómo es en la vida real. Zaqueo, sintiéndose pequeño y excluido, busca a Jesús. Jesús lo encuentra y le da la fuerza que necesita para arrepentirse de sus pecados y glorificar a Dios.

2019 NATIONAL VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

Nov 3-9, 2019

'Our Hearts Are Full'

The family of Tom and Katie Krug beam with pride at the ordination of oldest son, Fr. Jerome Krug, in Oklahoma City. "I would be proud of him whatever he did," said Tom. "But knowing he chose a higher calling, there are no words to express our joy... though I hear God telling me, 'This happiness isn't one tenth of the happiness of heaven!'" Tom encourages reluctant parents: "If your son is thinking about seminary, tell him to go! It's an ideal place to form strong young men."

INSPIRATION FOR PARENTS

Families: the Foundation for Vocations

An old Latin schoolmaster had the habit of entering the classroom and bowing to his pupils before the lesson. One day a boy asked why he showed such reverence to the young students. "Because I do not know who you may be one day," answered the old teacher. "Some of you may grow up to be presidents or generals, perhaps even popes or saints. I do not bow to who you are today, but to who you may become."

Who might your child or grandchild become? A leader who solves a political crisis? A researcher who discovers a life-saving cure? What about a priest who heals souls? Or a brother who serves the forgotten?

Your attitude toward your child's vocation has a huge impact. Many priests and sisters say: "Growing up our family prayed together.... We served others as a family... My parents often had clergy and religious over for dinner."

The influence of parents may actually be getting stronger. Oprah Magazine ran an article on new research showing that millennials feel closely connected with their parents, with 77% seeking their parents' advice on a regular basis.

If your son or daughter should express interest in becoming a priest, sister, or brother, they'll be watching closely for your reaction. It may be awkward to bow, but in your own way, express reverence for what they may become.

Pope John Paul II speaks of 'vocation' more than 30 times in his famous encyclical on the family, Familiaris Consortio, calling family "the primary and most excellent seed-bed of vocations."

"I would like to speak into the ears of so many men and women: giving up one's children to the service of God is not a sacrifice: it is an honor and a joy." -St. Josemaria Escriva

The growing clergy shortage means that priestly presence is waning in many Catholic institutions, especially high schools and colleges. Even Vocation Directors, whose job is to help young people discern God's call, often find themselves with one or two (or more!) additional assignments. More than ever, the Church needs lay people, especially families, to encourage the next generation of vocations.

'I get to be the priest this time!'

Did you know that according to canon law, impersonating a priest disqualifies a man from ever being ordained?

But not if you're a little kid, of course. Moms and dads who have videos of toddlers elevating Ritz crackers as "hosts" can rest easy. (Have you seen the YouTube video of the four-year-old having a tantrum because his brother assigned him to be the deacon at a makeshift "Mass" in their living room? "But I can't even reeeead!" he wailed.)

Children have pretended to celebrate Mass for literally centuries, and why not? It's a way of emulating one's heroes. Think of the third-grader in a Tom Brady jersey throwing a football, or the son of a police officer driving a toy cruiser.

Play has a deeper meaning, of course. It's a way of preparing for the real world. And because our world needs God's mercy so much, why not nudge your kids (or grandkids) to get out the crackers and grape juice?
