"Jesus said: "Without me you can do nothing" (John 15:5). We can do nothing without Jesus and Jesus is in every Catholic tabernacle in the world. When we make Him available in Exposition more souls are drawn to visit him and the more people that visit Him the more fruits Pope Francis hopes for will be obtained."

Most Holy Trinity Sunday

"The Feast of the Most Holy Trinity leads us to contemplate the mystery of God who unceasingly creates, redeems and sanctifies, always with love and through love."

—Pope Francis (May 27, 2018)

The mystery of the Holy Trinity is the central mystery of the Christian faith and life. God reveals himself as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The doctrine of the Trinity includes three truths of faith.

First, the Trinity is One. We do not speak of three gods but of one God. Each of the Persons is fully God. They are a unity of Persons in one divine nature.

Second, the Divine Persons are distinct from each other. Father, Son, and Spirit are not three appearances or modes of God, but three identifiable persons, each fully God in a way distinct from the others.

Third, the Divine Persons are in relation to each other. The distinction of each is understood only in reference to the others. The Father cannot be the Father without the Son, nor can the Son be the Son without the Father. The Holy Spirit is related to the Father and the Son who both send him forth.

All Christians are baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. The Trinity illumines all the other mysteries of faith.

Saint of the Week

Saint Ephrem, Deacon and Doctor of the Church

c. 306–373 | FEAST DAY JUNE 9

Known to Syrian Christians as "the harp of the Holy Ghost," this Mesopotamian from Nisibia was baptized at 18 and may have accompanied his bishop to the Council of Nicaea in 325. He served as head of the cathedral school and left Nisibia only after it became Persian. In 363 he moved to a cave overlooking Edessa but preached frequently in the city and wrote many poems, hymns and biblical commentaries; he organized a choir of women to sing his hymns during liturgies. About 370 he visited St. Basil in Caesarea. The winter before his death, he earned praise for managing relief supplies during a severe famine in Edessa. Ephraem is the only Syrian father declared a doctor of the church.

We do this as a Parish Community in response to the teaching of St. John Paul II:

The "Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this sacrament of love. Let us not refuse the time to go to meet him in adoration, in contemplation full of faith, and open to make amends for the serious offenses and crimes of the world. Let our adoration never cease."

MATTHEW KRUSLESKI

Home Parish: Sacred Heart Church, Richmond, TX

Seminary: Holy Trinity Seminary, Irving, TX

I grew up in Sacred Heart Church in Richmond, TX, since it was across the street from my dad's clinic. I attended Catholic School from kindergarten through high school at Holy Rosary Catholic School in Rosenberg and Pope John XXIII High School (now St. John XXIII College Preparatory) in Katy. I was trained as an altar server in my parish in fifth grade and have continued to do that in college at after I graduated. I also joined a Boy Scout troop, reaching the rank of Eagle Scout at the end of high school. In high school, I helped to lead daily prayer. I attended university at Texas A&M University where I had the opportunity to live and do behind-the-scenes work at St. Mary's Catholic Center. I graduated with a B.S. in Engineering Technology, specializing in Manufacturing and Mechanical Engineering Technology.

I like to center my prayer around the liturgy. I was introduced to praying Morning Prayer as a freshman in high school and committed to praying Morning, Evening, and Night Prayer and attending daily Mass in college. I also like to use Gregorian chant and sacred polyphony (e.g. Palestrina) and even other church music to aid my prayer. I have found that God has been walking with me in all of the people that I know, especially in the generosity of my family and my friends and I strive to imitate that generosity in service.

My call to seminary and priesthood has developed gradually. I think that my experiences as an altar server began to sow the seeds of a vocation. In junior high, I saw the U.S. Bishops' film Fishers of Men. The scene where the priest went to anoint the teenager at an accident scene really struck me because it showed the importance of even the little actions of a priest. I was also blessed with a very faithful, hard-working and friendly parish priest, Fr. Howard Drabek. I had a high school theology teacher who encouraged me to discern the priesthood. Finally, in college, my foundation was supplemented at St. Mary's Catholic Center, under now-Bishop David Konderla, especially after living and working at the center for three years.

Favorite Scripture: Ps. 16:11: "You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, the delights of your right hand forever."

This verse concludes a psalm expressing trust in God's providence. It reminds me that even with all of the attractions that the world has to offer, I can find true joy only in the presence of the Lord, especially in prayer. Furthermore, I know that God will lead me through life's difficulties, not abandoning me to destruction, but guiding me to the fullness of joy, namely: everlasting life with Him in heaven. I consider a theme of my discernment to be abandonment to God's will.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

Most Holy Trinity — “For God so love the world that He gave His only Son...” John 3:16 Is your love conditional? Is there a price others have to pay to receive your love and forgiveness? Are you generous with your time, skills, money and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you “fit it in” when it’s convenient for you? God desires a personal relationship with us so much that He gave us His Son, unconditionally! Pray for a grateful and generous heart.

Boletín de Mayordomía—Reflexiones

Santísima Trinidad — “Porque tanto amó Dios al mundo que se dio a sí único Hijo...” Juan 3:16 Es tu amor condicional? ¿Hay algún precio que otros tengan que pagar para recibir tu amor y perdón? ¿Eres generoso con tu tiempo, habilidades, dinero y posesiones? Si le das algo a alguien, ¿esperas algo a cambio? ¿Dedicas tu tiempo libremente o lo “encajas” cuando es conveniente para ti? ¿Dios desea tanto una relación personal con nosotros que nos dio a su Hijo incondicionalmente! Ora por un corazón agradecido y generoso.

GRACE AND ETERNAL LIFE

Moses is a man after our own hearts, for haven't we all dealt with more than our share of stiff-necked people? Indeed, haven't we all gotten a little stiff-necked ourselves at times? Complaining . . . impatient . . . quick to anger. How lucky for Moses—how lucky for all of us—that God is exactly the opposite! And we don't even have to guess about it. The Lord tells us so directly. Accordingly, Moses does what we all need to do. Even with the tablets in hand, he bows down and asks for God's forgiveness and grace. Encouraging us to live together in peace—and in God's favor—the Apostle Paul knows all about this grace, joyfully invoking Christ's grace on us along with God's love and the Holy Spirit's. "Rejoice," he says. And when it comes to rejoicing, John offers us the gladdest words of all: the assurance of eternal life through Jesus. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

GRACIA Y VIDA ETERNA

Moisés es un hombre como nosotros, ¿acaso no hemos tratado también con cabezas duras? De hecho, ¿acaso no hemos sido nosotros mismos los cabezas duras? Quejumbrosos. . . impacientes. . . rápidos para enojarnos. ¡Qué suerte la de Moisés y qué suerte la nuestra que Dios es precisamente lo opuesto! Y ni siquiera tenemos que adivinarlo. El Señor nos lo dice directamente. Y en concordancia, Moisés hace lo que todos necesitamos hacer. Pese a tener las tablas en las manos, se postra y pide el perdón y la gracia de Dios. Alentándonos a vivir juntos en paz y con el favor de Dios, el apóstol Pablo sabe de esta gracia, e invoca con alegría la gracia del amor de Dios y del Espíritu Santo sobre nosotros. "Estén alegres", dice. Y cuando se trata de alegrarnos, Juan nos ofrece las palabras más regocijantes: la seguridad de la vida eterna en Jesús. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Lay Reader Message

What's on God's Refrigerator Door?

If you are a parent or grandparent or even just an admirer of a young child, your refrigerator door may be the showcase of one or more paintings or drawings. To a visitor, that work of art may be just a mass of scribbles, but to the one who loves the child it is a masterpiece. We love the gift because of the person who made it and gave it to us. It is precious to us because it was a gift from the heart. The motive of the child was pure and loving.

Perhaps our gifts to God are similar. We're such amateurs, such babies. God could accomplish his work so much more efficiently by himself. Our works, even if monumental by human standards, are just scribbles if God would judge them in relation to his ability. Because he loves us, though – and loves us far more than a parent or grandparent loves a child – He looks at our works with eyes of love. He sees our hearts and knows we are motivated by love and faith, and he is pleased. He is so pleased that, if he had a refrigerator, he'd use it to display our works done for his glory.

God has given us gifts to use for this purpose – to glorify him by serving others. In 1 Peter 4:10 we read, "Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in its various forms." God has seen to it that each of us has something to offer. He gives us the privilege of serving and then provides all that we need to do so.

Just as the budding art student improves with the help of a teacher and with appropriate tools to create his work, so does God teach us through his Word how to fulfill our purpose and how to improve our service. So also he gives gifts of time and money and talents and then his Word and Sacrament to strengthen us for service.
