STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time them, 'Why are your terrified? Do you not yet have faith?'" -Mark 4:40 Do you really trust God? Is God your first your first choice or last resort? Is your faith something you just do on Sunday or do you live the Gospel message very day of the week? Many of us know about God. How many of us have a personal relationship with Him? Start now, open your heart to receive our Lord. Talk and listen to Him throughout the day, in all circumstances.

"Boletín de Mayordomía—Reflexiones

Domingo 11º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario — "Entonces Él les preguntó, ¿"Por qué están aterrados"? ¿Es que todavía no tienen fe?" Marcos 4:40 ¿Realmente confía en Dios? ¿Es Dios su primera opción o su último recurso? ¿Es su fe algo que solo practica los Domingos o usted vive el mensaje del Evangelio cada día de la semana? Muchos de nosotros conocemos acerca de Dios. ¿Cuántos de nosotros tenemos una relación personal con Él? Comience ahora, abra su corazón para recibir a nuestro Señor. Hable con Él ;y escúchelo durante el día, en cualquier circunstancia.

We will have sacristan training after the English Masses on the 26th and 27th of June. Anyone wanting to assist with the preparation of the Mass please attend one of the training sessions. It you have been a sacristan in the past and want a refresher please attend the training. If you have any questions please talk to Kathryn Kehlenbeck or Deacon Grant Holt.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

A number of editorials, blog posts, and other commentaries of late have declared "languishing" as the "mood," or dominant emotion, of 2021. This is not depression, but rather a series of emotions that wear away at our sense of purpose and belonging. Those who languish experience apathy and a lack of motivation, all while participating in the daily activities of life. Yes, I said to myself, that's it exactly! After the craziness of these last 15 months ... I think these writers are on to something! Therefore, I am particularly moved by God's providence and grace in providing an antidote to the emptiness of languishing in today's Scriptures. In the second reading, Paul writes with such urgency that "the love of Christ impels us" to live not for ourselves, but for the sake of Christ who died for all. The word "impel" differs from "compel," because it implies a strong moral force from within. And in the Gospel, we see that for Christians, that inner force springs from faith, a faith that can endure both the violent squalls of life and the sense of being adrift that we can't always put our finger on. Like Paul, our faith impels us to refocus our lives on our love of Christ and others.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITHESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

It occurs to me that we Catholics have myriad opportunities to avail ourselves of those graces, and to strengthen our faith. Languishing can be replaced with flourishing, and a recapturing of the knowledge of who we belong to: the Lord. Praying for others during Mass, reading and discussing a spiritual book with a friend, volunteering at a soup kitchen or shelter, offering to help drive refugees or senior citizens to medical appointments, or participating in a young (or older) adult parish activity - these are all actions that empty us of apathy and fill us with gratitude. The pandemic has been tragic, and terrifying, and life-altering. But God remains steadfast. We will face our share of storms, but we can rest assured that Jesus is our anchor as we move forward in faith.

PRAY Feeling blah? Re-read Paul's letter (2 cor 5:14-17) and ask God to help you remember that you are God's beloved - with dignity, value, and purpose. Trust that "whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come."

A Stewardship Minute

Inspiring a deeper understanding of true giving An introduction of Stewardship to the congregation

June 2021

Timothy was still a young man when he received a letter from the man we call St. Paul. In that letter Paul told Timothy how to conduct himself with the following words: "Let no one despise your youth, but set the believers an example in speech and conduct, in love, in faith, in purity." (I Timothy 4:12)

I call your attention to the words: "Set the believers an example in speech and conduct." On the night before our Savior was crucified, he showed love and humility by washing the feet of his followers. When finished he said, "I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you.' (John 13:15)

There is a story of a widow who was left with five children. She lived on a farm and taught her children how to work hard, how to serve God, and how to give oneself totally for the kingdom of God. She had an old-fashioned wooden coffee grinder that she used to save a healthy portion of her earnings. Each Sunday she would empty the grinder and take the money to worship as the family's offering to God.

This month's Stewardship points out that the power of her stewardship was memorable. She did what Paul told Timothy to do: "Set an example in speech and conduct, in love, in faith, in purity." As a result of her example, her children grew up into wonderful adults ... for it was of one who loved the Lord with heart, mind, soul, and strength.

Prayer: Stir up faithfulness and service in us, dear Lord, to the end that we may glorify you in the totality of our lives. Amen
