ORACIÓN DE LA SEMANA

La Sagrada Familia de Jesús, María y José

Señor Dios, que te dignaste dejarnos el más perfecto ejemplo en la Sagrada Familia de tu Hijo, concédenos benignamente que, imitando sus virtudes domésticas y los lazos de caridad que la unió, podamos gozar de la eterna recompensa en la alegría de tu casa. Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo, tu Hijo, que vive y reina contigo en la unidad del Espíritu Santo y es Dios por los siglos de los siglos.

STEWARD REFLECTIONS

Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph "See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God, and so we are." I John 3:1 During this season of giving, let us remember a beautiful gift that we have received - being children of God! As God's children, it's in our DNA that we share and express our love for others as well. Tell your spouse, children, other family members and friends that you love them, every day! Also, pray for those people that are different than you, those that you may not like or those that go out of their way to annoy you. Your prayers may be the start of a new friendship.

REFLEXIONES DEL BOLETIN DE CO-RRESPONSABILIDAD

La Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia de Jesús, Maria y José "Miren con cuánto amor nos ama nuestro Padre que nos llamamos hijos de Dios, y eso es lo que somos." 1Juan 3:1 Durante esta temporada de dar, permitámonos recordar el bello regalo que hemos recibido iel ser hijos de Dios! Como hijos de Dios, el compartir uy expresar nuestro amor por los demás también está en nuestro ADN. Dígale a su esposo, hijos, otros miembros de la familia y amigos que los ama, itodos los días! También, rece por las personas que son diferentes a usted, por aquellos que a lo mejor no le agradan o aquellos que se desviven por molestarlo. Sus oraciones pueden ser el comienzo de una nueva amistad.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

That as grateful children of God, we remember to tell family and Friends that we love them every day and to pray for those people that may annoy us.

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph

FAMILY LIFE

Christmas celebrates the Incarnation, the "en-flesh-ment" of God as a human person. In Jesus, God is bodily present in the human story. Today we honor the Holy Family, helping us to see that God is active in daily family life. God is near at hand, amidst the tensions, joys, and uncertainties of family life. As our Gospel passage describes, even with family miscommunications and with limited understanding of Jesus' mission, the Holy Family persevered in their life together. Like many family conflicts, there was no immediate or clear resolution of the issues raised by Jesus and by Mary. God's intentions for the family, and for Jesus, were still unfolding. They continued to stay connected with each other and with God. Within the turbulence of family life, they trusted God to actively sustain and guide them into an uncertain future. We are invited to follow their example.

VIDA FAMILIAR

La Navidad celebra la Encarnación, la "en-carna-ción" de Dios como una persona humana. En Jesús, Dios está presente físicamente en la historia humana. Hoy honramos a la Sagrada Familia, que nos ayuda a ver que Dios está activo en la vida familiar cotidiana. Dios está cerca, en medio de las tensiones, alegrías y las incertidumbres de la vida familiar. Como lo describe nuestro pasaje del Evangelio, incluso con la falta de comunicación y con una limitada comprensión de la misión de Jesús, la Sagrada Familia perseveró en su vida en común. Como en muchos conflictos familiares, no hubo una resolución inmediata o clara en los asuntos presentados por Jesús y María. Las intenciones de Dios hacia la familia y hacia Jesús, seguían desarrollándose. Ellos eran una familia unida y también lo eran con Dios. Dentro de la turbulencia de la vida familiar, confiaron en que Dios los sostenía vivamente y guiaba a un futuro incierto. Estamos invitados a seguir su ejemplo.

The Nativity of the Lord (Christmas) Mass at Dawn

Saturday, December 25, 2021

Background on the Gospel Reading

There are four Masses that are celebrated for the feast of Christmas, and each is given its own set of readings to help us contemplate Christ's birth. The Gospel for the Vigil Mass on Christmas Eve is taken from the beginning of the Gospel of Matthew, the genealogy of Jesus and the angel's announcement of the birth to Joseph. The Mass at midnight proclaims the birth of Jesus through the angels' announcement to the shepherds in the Gospel of Luke. Luke 2:15–20 is the reading for the mass at dawn on Christmas morning. It continues the story of the birth of Jesus as found in Luke's Gospel with the shepherds' visit to the infant Jesus. Finally, the Gospel for Christmas Mass during the day is taken from the beginning of John's Gospel. It is not an Infancy Narrative like those found in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke. Instead, John's Gospel starts at the very beginning of time and presents Creation as the framework for announcing the Incarnation. John's opening words echo the first verse in the Book of Genesis, "In the beginning was the Word."

The story of Jesus' birth, which begins with a reference to Caesar Augustus, concludes with the shepherds, people looked down on by most of society, visiting the infant. As the angels return to heaven, the shepherds decide to go see "this thing" that has happened in Bethlehem. Their visit confirms everything the angels had told them about the birth of the Savior and Messiah. They then spoke publicly about all they had seen, to the great astonishment of all who heard. Mary ponders all this in her heart, and the shepherds return to their fields praising God. What had been told to them really happened. This account does not tell us very much about the infant Jesus because Luke's concern is that God's action of sending a savior be publicly proclaimed. As Paul says before King Agrippa in Acts of the Apostles 26:26, "None of this was done in a corner." The picture is simple, two parents and an infant in a stable. But the reality is great, God's salvation offered to all.

A Stewardship Minute

Inspiring a deeper understanding of true giving

An introduction of Stewardship to the congregation

December 2021

The magical sound of a bell choir can only be achieved if the group plays together ... harmoniously. The music played will not sound right unless each bell player rings his or her bell at the right time.

Humans working and living together are similar. God has given us talents, intelligence, strength, resources and time to live according to God's plan. When we live under the guidance of God, in harmony with the direction God gives us, then we fulfill the purpose God has for us. We bring joy, peace, sweetness to the world.

Mother Teresa, the little nun who worked among the poorest of the poor in India, said that she wanted to make her life Something Beautiful for God. She did! Her life was not discordant because she lived in harmony with God.

To live with inner peace and a sense of purposefulness, this month's issue of Stewardship points out that it is necessary to use the totality of our lives under the direction of the Master Conductor. It is to use whatever brain power we have, whatever talents, whatever time we are given, and whatever resources we have on behalf of our Creator and for the betterment of the world. In short, it is to be the best steward possible, making sure that we bring harmony instead of disharmony to this aching world.

Prayer: Give us the courage and will-power, O Lord, to love and serve you each day we live. May our lives be purposeful and constantly pleasing to you. Amen
