MATTHEW 17:1-9

Lord, it is good that we are here. (Matthew 17:4)

Peter, James, and John must have wondered why Jesus called them aside and led them up that mountain. Did he have an important teaching to give them? An exciting mission? A special blessing? Jesus gave them all of this—and so much more. At his transfiguration, he offered these three eyewitnesses a revelation of who he is: the Son of God (Matthew 17:5). He gave them a glimpse of his glory.

We can hardly fault them for their stunned silence. Only Peter could find words to respond to Jesus' glorious appearance—and his desire to build tents for Jesus, Moses, and Elijah only demonstrated just how little he understood (Matthew 17:4)! Peter was just beginning to see that Jesus was no ordinary teacher. He was beginning to see that Jesus was the Lord, the God of Moses and Elijah, the God of the Law and the Prophets. And what he saw filled his heart with joy. So he said, "Lord, it is good that we are here" (17:4).

It is good to be with the Lord! It's what we were created for. Whether we realize it or not, our hearts long for God and an awareness of his presence. He is our greatest good! And Jesus longs to reveal that goodness to us even more than we long to know him. That's why he took on flesh and became a man. That's why he poured out his Holy Spirit. And that's why he is truly and fully present in the Eucharist at every Mass.

Today, Jesus wants to give you a glimpse of his glory. He wants to assure you that he is the Lord: alive, powerful, and close to you. Jesus invites you to lift your eyes and your heart toward heaven and ask the Spirit to give you spiritual eyes to see him. So as the priest holds up the Host and Precious Blood at Mass today, you can proclaim in faith with Peter . . .

"Lord, it is good that I am here with you!"

Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14 Psalm 97:1-2, 5-6, 9 2 Peter 1:16-19

HAPPY ALTAR SERVERS' MONTH

As we celebrate this month of Altar Servers, let us thank God for the gift of serving at the altar. It is a gift and we are GIFTED TO GIVE.

When the time comes that we are called to serve in whatever way, may we all respond, SERVIAM. I WILL SERVE.
Here I am Lord. I come to do your will. Amen!

Y nosotros escuchamos esta voz, venida del cielo. (2 Pedro 1, 18)

Piensa en cuántos casos se han ganado en la corte gracias al testimonio de un testigo ocular. O cómo el testimonio de fe de alguien más ha impactado tu vida. ¡Los testigos oculares tienen mucha importancia!

En la segunda lectura de hoy, San Pedro nos narra su testimonio sobre la Transfiguración para que sus lectores puedan profundizar en su creencia de que Jesucristo es el Señor. No fueron "fábulas hechas con astucia", les aseguró. No, Pedro estuvo ahí en persona y vio al propio Jesús, en carne y hueso, aparecer en "gloria" sobre el monte Tabor (2 Pedro 1, 16).

A pesar de que Jesús no está con nosotros físicamente como estuvo con Pedro, continúa revelando su gloria hoy, y tú has experimentado esta realidad. Cada vez que miras al sacerdote elevar la Hostia durante la Misa, estás presenciando la gloria de Jesús. Cada vez que escuchas al sacerdote decir en la Confesión: "Te absuelvo de todos tus pecados", estás experimentándola. Cada vez que observas a un niño, o a un adulto, si es el caso, ser bautizado, la gloria de Jesús brilla a través de ellos. Es una gloria velada, pero sigue siendo real.

Y eso significa que al igual que Pedro, tú tienes una historia que contar de fe y de encuentro con el Señor durante la Misa o la Confesión. Esa historia puede mover a alguien a buscar al Señor más profundamente.

Podrías celebrar esta fiesta de la Transfiguración recordando una situación en la cual la presencia o la gloria de Dios te han conmovido. Recuerda esa situación y pregunta si hay alguien con quien podrías compartirla. Quizá un amigo o unfamiliar que se ha apartado de la fe y a quien podrías impactar.

No veremos a Cristo transfigurado hasta el día en que nos encontremos con él cara a cara. Pero, ¿no es maravilloso que, día tras día, Jesús continúe mostrando su gloria a través de los sacramentos?

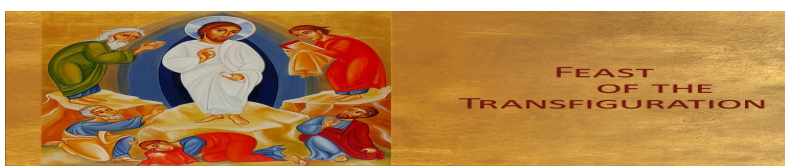

"Señor Jesús, ¡te pido que abras mis ojos y me ayudes a ver tu gloria hoy!" Daniel 7, 9-10.13-14 Salmo 97 (96), 1-2. 5-6. 9 Mateo 17, 1-9.

ALTAR SERVERS AT CHRIST OUR LIGHT CATHOLIC CHURCH

Both Roman and Eastern rite Catholics celebrate the Church's feast of the Transfiguration today, August 6, on its traditional date for both calendars.

The feast commemorates one of the pinnacles of Jesus' earthly life, when he revealed his divinity to three of his closest disciples by means of a miraculous and supernatural light.

Before his triumphal entry into Jerusalem, Christ climbed to a high point on Mount Tabor with his disciples Peter, James, and John. While Jesus prayed upon the mountain, his appearance was changed by a brilliant white light which shone from him and from his clothing.

During this event, the Old Testament figures of Moses and the prophet Elijah also appeared, and spoke of how Christ would suffer and die after entering Jerusalem, before his resurrection.

Matthew, Mark, and Luke all record that the voice of God was heard, confirming Jesus as his son (Matthew 17:5, Mark 9:6, Luke 9:35). Peter and John make specific reference to the event in their writings, as confirming Jesus' divinity and his status as the Messiah (2 Peter 1:17, John 1:14).

In his address before the Angelus on August 6, 2006, Pope Benedict XVI described how the events of the transfiguration display Christ as the "full manifestation of God's light."

This light, which shines forth from Christ both at the transfiguration and after his resurrection, is ultimately triumphant over "the power of the darkness of evil."

The Pope stressed that the feast of the Transfiguration is an important opportunity for believers to look to Christ as "the light of the world," and to experience the kind of conversion which the Bible frequently describes as an emergence from darkness to light.

"In our time too," Pope Benedict said, "we urgently need to emerge from the darkness of evil, to experience the joy of the children of light!"

For Eastern Catholics, the Feast of the Transfiguration is especially significant. It is among the 12 "great feasts" of Eastern Catholicism.

Eastern Christianity emphasizes that Christ's transfiguration is the prototype of spiritual illumination, which is possible for the committed disciple of Jesus. This Christian form of "enlightenment" is facilitated by the ascetic disciplines of prayer, fasting, and charitable almsgiving.

A revered hierarch of the Melkite Greek Catholic Church, the late Archbishop Joseph Raya, described this traditional Byzantine view of the transfiguration in his book of meditations on the Biblical event and its liturgical celebration, titled "Transfiguration of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ."

"Transfiguration," Archbishop Raya wrote, "is not simply an event out of the two-thousand-year-old past, or a future yet to come. It is rather a reality of the present, a way of life available to those who seek and accept Christ's nearness."

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION ANNOUNCEMENT

Are you an adult (over 18 years of age) in need of confirmation? Perhaps you weren't ready for confirmation when you were younger or you didn't get the opportunity? Confirmation is necessary for the completion of baptismal grace (CCC 1285) and seals us with the Holy Spirit. Classes will begin this fall, so please take this opportunity to enroll in Adult Confirmation, if you have not yet been confirmed.

Contact Margie Terrell or Carolynn Katkoski at the RE Office.

RCIA - Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Are you thinking about becoming a Catholic Christian?

Do you want to follow Jesus
Christ through the Catholic Church?

RCIA is the first step in a lifelong journey of discipleship! This is the Catholic Church's process to bring people, through study, spiritual growth, and community, into the heart of the Kingdom of Heaven. We have various classes and programs available, sacramental preparation and Catholic Church teachings. We would love to talk with you about where you are on your faith journey and how we can help you become the Catholic Christian you have always wanted to be.

Please call our Religious Education office at 936-825-1869 to learn more about our Fall programs.

NEW CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL FEASIBILITY STUDY BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR AUGUST 8 INFORMATION SESSION

An exciting opportunity is being studied for a proposed new Catholic high school in Conroe. Sponsored by University of St. Thomas and approved by Daniel Cardinal DiNardo, this feasibility study is being conducted in collaboration with the nationally known Catholic school planning firm, Meitler from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The goal of this study is to assess the need for and level of interest in a new Catholic high school. An essential element of the new high school study is gathering information from parishioners and prospective parents who may be interested in Catholic education and/or could enroll their children at the proposed school. To that end, interested parishioners and parents with children 16 years and younger are invited to a special information session to find out more on Tuesday, August 8 from 6:30 – 7:30 p.m. at Sacred Heart Parish Life Center, 704 Old Montgomery Rd, Conroe, TX 77301.
